

PVT. GARY LEE WILHELM

Army and Navy Meet Here

Pvt. Gary Lee Wilhelm was home on a weekend leave the Fourth of July from the Army at Ft. Lewis, Wash., where he has been taking his basic training and has been platoon leader of his company.

Gary graduated from basic training July 9 and was sent off by plane that night for Fort Eustis, Va., where he is to be in school 9 weeks. He is going to be an air machinist.

Gary is the son of Mr. and Mrs. James L. Wilhelm, Heppner. And their older son Joe, with the Navy, came home and spent the Fourth of July with Gary and his folks. He is stationed at Port Hueme, Calif.

Heppner First Reports Loans and Deposits Up

Earnings at First National Bank of Oregon increased slightly in the first six months of 1971 compared to a similar period last year. Moderate increases were recorded in deposits, loans and total resources.

Income before securities transactions totaled $7,162,278 or $1.35 per share for the period ending June 30, compared with $6,939,412 or $1.31 per share recorded at mid-year 1970. This represents a three per cent increase. Net income was $7,160,878, also $1.35 per share, compared with $6,949,727 or $1.31 per share one year ago.

Deposits at Oregon's largest bank rose 8.5 per cent to $1,666,276,410 at the end of the first half compared with the $1,536,264,052 recorded on June 30 of last year. Loan volume at the bank's 122 statewide offices increased 4.4 per cent to $1,075,493,952 compared with the $1,029,906,772 at the end of the first six months of 1970. Resources were $1,948,576,837, up from the $1,766,849,929 one year ago.

The Heppner branch reported deposits of $6,422,698 and loans of $6,607,576 as of June 30, according to Harley Sager, manager.

Comparable totals for the branch a year ago were $6,117,014 in deposits and $5,884,269 in loans.
