

Two Receptions Honor WSU Young Marrieds

An early summer wedding at Pullman, Wash., united two Ione High School sweethearts, Charity Linda Beggs, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Beggs of Pullman and Rick Calvin Marquardt, son of Mr. and Mrs. Bill Marquardt of Lexington. The Rev. Edwin Crawford and Ernie Almqvist performed the ceremony at the Church of the Nazarene.

The bride, given in marriage by her father wore a floor length gown with lace bodice, sleeves and train. The short veil was held in place with lace roses. She carried a bouquet of carnations and roses in white and shades of pink.

Joy Beggs was maid of honor for her sister and Doreen Boyd was bridesmaid. The girls wore floor length gowns of pale green with an overlay of chiffon. The long sleeves were trimmed with pink and white lace. They carried nosegays of pink and white flowers. Cindy Hodgdon, cousin of the bride was flower girl.

Brothers of the bridegroom acted as best man and candle lighters. Bruce was best man and Phillip and Doug were the candle lighters. Ushers were Ken Baker, and the bride's brothers, Doug Beggs and Scott Beggs.

The church was decorated with white and pale pink roses. The candelabra were tied with roses and white satin bows. Norita Marquardt sang the Lord's Prayer and the bridegroom's uncle and aunt sang a duet "Thou Art My Own". Mrs. Marquardt played the accompaniment and the nuptial music.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Beggs wore a pink polyester street dress and Mrs. Marquardt wore pale green with a lace coat.

Reception Follows

The reception followed in the church social room. Serving at the reception were Shirley Hodgdon and Virginia Almqvist, both aunts and Glenna Larson and Janel Erickson. Attending the gift table were Margaret Salisbury, Debbie Cunningham and Charlotte Paul. Billee June Marquardt, Charma Marquardt and Penny Marquardt were in charge of the guest book. These three Marquardts along with Norita wore identical gowns of floor length pastel pinks with rose velvet ribbon at the empire waist.

Going Away

For going away the bride wore a green polyester knit with multicolored scarf and white accessories. After a short wedding trip to Spokane, the young couple is at home in Pullman. Both are graduates of Ione High School and are students at WSU.

Reception at Lexington

The young couple was honored at a reception later when they visited in Morrow County. The affair was held at the IOOF hall. The three-tiered cake, decorated with pink roses was baked by Mrs. Don Johnson.

Numerous cousins, sisters, grandmothers and aunts of the bride and bridegroom assisted at the reception.

PNG to Make Lap Robes for IOOF Home

On July 19, the Past Noble Grands of Sans Souci Rebekah Lodge, held their regular quarterly meeting at the Zinter ranch in the mountains where Leathers' and Cooks have their summer home.

The meeting was called to order by chairman Opal Cook. Plans were discussed to continue making lap robes until September for the IOOF home. Clara Gertson will deliver them to the home, along with bingo prizes for the patients there. It was also decided to sell a 16 inch doll and wardrobe to supplement the club funds. Elsa Leathers and Opal Cook, hostesses served delicious refreshments of apple pie and ice cream.

Traveling to the mountains for the afternoon were: Letha Archer, Mary Bailey, Esther Bergstrom, Mary McMurry, Betty Rood, Adelle La Trace, Clara Gertson and Jo Huston. Also three children: Dee Dee Rood, Marci Leathers and Claudia Huston.

During the afternoon the ladies drove out to Bull Prairie reservoir for sight-seeing and pictures.

1915 Ione Teacher

Mrs. Winnie Jeppesen (Winnie Williams) of Sacramento, Calif., and her sister-in-law, Mrs. Arlene Jeppesen from Portland were returning from a trip to Wallowa County when they stopped in Heppner to give us this piece of news.

Mrs. Winnie Jeppesen taught in one of the county schools outside of Ione in 1915. She recalls her school days with pleasure. And hopes it may be possible to look up a few of her students before proceeding on her trip to the coast to visit friends and relatives.

Girls Tell 'The Feel' Of Girls' State

An enthusiastic pair of Girl Staters reported to the Soroptimist Club at the luncheon meeting Thursday. A chart presented the sequence of their days from organization on the two-party system at the city level, through county and state. Their emphasis was on the "feel" of Girls State.

Diane Mills told of the feeling of fellowship and closeness that quickly developed with the other girls of her county. At the daily flag raisings she was thrilled and humbled to feel that great feeling of being an American and to feel the love of God.

She described the singing in the Rotunda as one of unity. The girls sang the Girls State songs as they stood with crossed arms with their neighbor in a symbol of Unity. Adding to the occasion, the bystanders on the opposite stairs joined them in the same gesture. Spectators were of every color, poor and well-to-do. Diane said, "I just wanted to take that feeling of unity out to everybody".

Barbara Allstott told of her most impressive sessions. Her highlight was the daily vespers. At one in particular everyone could tell her own special inner feelings. Some read poems that expressed their feelings. This was a gratifying session filled with peace and understanding that made "everyone of one faith".

Another always-to-be remembered event was the candle light ceremony in the sunken garden. Here again the girls sang all the Girls State songs then closed with "The Old Rugged Cross" as the girls formed a cross in the center.

Both girls thanked the American Legion Auxiliary and the Soroptimist Club for their opportunity to attend the 1971 Girls State.

Besides the two Girl Staters, other guests were Mrs. Riley Munkers, president of the Heppner unit of the American Legion Auxiliary and Mrs. Don Bennett, Girls State chairman. Other guests were Sally Bay and Don Stangel from the Extension office and Ramona Gonty from Seattle.

Mrs. Dave Owens presented some ideas on the float and asked for suggestions from the members. Members were urged to become participants of the Morrow County Fair.

Wayne Snyders Have 25th Anniversary

Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Snyder observed their 25th wedding anniversary recently with an Open House in Pendleton. The affair was held at their home out at Riverside now occupied by Mrs. Mabel Snyder, Wayne's mother.

Hippies Flock To Canada

Mr. and Mrs. Archie Padberg were appalled at the number of hippies they saw hitchhiking in Canada. They returned Friday from an 8-day vacation in Alberta and British Columbia provinces.

They saw the beautiful scenery at Banff, Lake Louise, and Jasper. They went over to Kamloops and then back down south through Washington. They had some pretty hot days on their trip.

Phill Boyer of Baker stopped to visit with his friend, Frank Turner, but missed connections. Frank said it was Phill's Aunt Clara who had organized the Pioneer Picnic which has become an annual event for Morrow County. Phill is now a pilot for Ellingson Lumber Co. of Baker.
