

MR. and MRS. ARNOLD F. HARDING of The Dalles. The bride is the former Dorinda Kaye Farrens of Monument.

The Dalles is First Home for Newly Marrieds

Dorinda Kaye Farrens of The Dalles, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Darrel K. Farrens of Monument and Arnold F. Harding of The Dalles were married on July 24. The bridegroom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Charles Harding of The Dalles. The ceremony took place at the Harding home with the Rev. Ron Coleman of the First Christian Church reading the double ring ceremony.

The bride given in marriage by her father wore a white lace short length dress with floating back panel topped with white satin bow. The full length sleeves were banded with pointed lace. The shoulder length veil was held in place with a band of fresh pink baby roses. The bride carried a nosegay of lavender carnations and pink roses.

Donna Faye Cox, sister of the bride, was matron of honor. She wore a rose sheath dress and carried a bouquet of long stemmed pink roses. Her headband was white lace with pink ribbon beading and embroidered rosettes. Michelle Cox, niece of the bride, was flower girl. She carried a basket of pink rosebuds.

Ron Bales of The Dalles was best man.

Jessie Underhill played the wedding music. Chris Neitch was in charge of the guest book.

For her daughters wedding Mrs. Farrens wore a lilac knit dress and a pink and lavender baby carnation corsage. The bridegroom's mother wore a navy blue dress with red and white trim. Her corsage was of white baby carnations.

Reception Follows
The three tier wedding cake decorated in a pink rose entwined pattern was topped by white wedding bells. It was served by Kathy Hasbrouck and Gertrude Steuber of The Dalles to the more than 80 guests. At the punch bowl were Kristin Harding, sister to the bridegroom and Jollene Middleton, friend of the bride from Eugene. Murna Wilson also from Eugene was pouring coffee.

For Traveling
For traveling the bride wore a white lace pants suit which she had made. Her pink rosebud corsage was linked by a gold and pearl beaded chain to a rose shaped key which concealed a 1971 penny. After a trip to the coast the couple is at home at 300 W. 4th St., The Dalles.

The bride is a graduate of Monument High School and Springfield Beauty College. She is employed by Joan's Beauty Salon of The Dalles.

The bridegroom graduated from The Dalles High School, served four years in the U. S. Navy and is now employed by Bonn's Meat Market at The Dalles.

Out of town friends and relatives included Evelyn Farrens, grandmother of the bride and her aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Wright, all of Heppner; her brother Glenn Farrens, Portland; Mrs. Don Anderson, Brad and Tommy of Arlington; Mrs. Walter Jones of Ashland; Mrs. Bill Miles, Dave and Danny, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Cox, Michelle and Troy, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Hill from Kimberly and Mr. and Mrs. Tom Wilson, Mr. and Mrs. Don Middleton and Heather from Eugene.

Mr. and Mrs. Tom Driscoll, Jeff and Kristi of Poulsbo, Wn., left Tuesday after spending a week here visiting with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jim Driscoll. They also visited in Hermiston with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Schmidt. Tom teaches High School English at Poulsbo and is assistant basketball and track coach.

Greens at Wedding In Carson City

Of all the Courts I've interviewed from Chief Joseph Days, Milton-Freewater Pea Festival, Chelan County Fair in Washington and Morrow County Fair and Rodeo Court, this year's Morrow County girls are by far "the horstest"! And of the five, Jan Schlichting is the horstest! Her "horse fever" extends to her horse family of 4, all from Arabian stock. She hopes to breed horses with the purchase of Fallasa, a young stud from Iris Doherty's herd of registered Arabians.

Juanita Carmichael is one of those amazing persons who constantly does the unexpected. Ginger Wilkinson will always have a delightful feeling when she thinks of Juanita buying an organ to play at her installation as Worthy Grand Matron. Because that is just what Juanita did. She wasn't familiar with the organ that was there and as she said "since I was going to buy one for myself anyway I just thought this was a good time to do it". And she did.

SANDY MATTHEWS

ACWW Rep Leaves for Oslo

Mrs. Norman Nelson, Ione, left Aug. 3 for a six week trip to the Scandinavian countries and Germany. Accompanying her is her daughter Kristin, a sophomore at Oregon State University.

Mrs. Nelson is a delegate to the Associated Country Women of the World triennial meeting in Oslo, Norway, Aug. 10-19. She is one of 14 women representing Oregon Extension Home-maker's Council. There are two other Eastern Oregon Extension women: Mrs. S. H. Griffin, Vale; and Mrs. Grace Henderson, Ible.

The Associated Country Women of the World is an international organization composed of 6,000,000 rural women from Africa, Australia, Canada, Ceylon, Denmark, England, Finland, France, Holland, India, Norway, Sweden, Switzerland, Germany and the United States. The aim of the organization is to make friends among country women to help improve living standards, with the over-all hope that better understanding will lead to peace. Enrolled Home Extension members are affiliated with this international organization through their state council and their national Extension Home-maker's Council. The Farm Bureau also holds membership in ACWW, and will send representatives to the triennial meeting in Oslo.

Mrs. Nelson and her daughter will fly directly to Bergen, Norway from Portland. Following the ACWW meeting, they will tour Norway, Denmark, Sweden, and Germany. They plan to visit an International Farm Youth Exchange student in Norway, who previously had lived with them at their ranch home near Ione.

Mr. and Mrs. Sam McDaniel went to Monument Thursday to spend the day at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Howell. It was Frank's 84th birthday and they had brought him a pretty birthday cake for the occasion, made by Mrs. Helen Stevens. Also visiting at the Howell home were Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Howell and Paddy from Wall Creek.
