

'71 Queen Glows with Pizazz

HOT WALKER and Queen Michelle comes in from a short ride.

CHOW TIME as Queen Michelle gets out the sandwich makins'.

NOT JUST A BULLETIN BOARD . . . but a bulletin wall has Queen Michelle as she puts up one of the posters from Princess Jeanne Dalys dance.

Once a Princess and now a Queen . . . is Michelle Miller. She had lots of sparkle and was delightful as a Princess but a year of college has added a certain positive confidence and self assurance, for a tantalizing pizzazz in the 1971 Queen.

She gives credit to being on the Court for two years as well as her year in college for this new found assurance and ease at meeting people and situations. She delights in this new discovery of hers that she is no longer shy or apprehensive at meeting people in fact looks forward to it.

There were no high points for her year at college. It all was "just great". She feels everyone should have at least one year at college, and she wouldn't have missed it for anything. She liked college for the kinds of people she met as it also broadened her views on life.

She saw things she didn't like and things she liked and approved. Her broadening experience, has served to heighten her belief in families and accepting responsibility at home and in her community.

The first day at BMCC she didn't see a soul she knew but things have changed. This year as she has appeared in parades over the East Oregon country, she has seen students she knew in BMCC. She is looking forward to her second year this September. She has shared a room with Vicki Steagall and they have enjoyed home privileges in a private home in Pendleton. She has had her car at school with her and came home nearly every weekend.

She very much enjoyed an experience she had this spring of working at the Umatilla County IED office. This was a credit course in her secretarial course.

This year while serving as Queen of the Morrow County Fair and Rodeo Court, she is again riding Hot Walker, a registered Quarter Horse. She has liked both courts that she has been on but finds this year's court less adventuresome than the 1970 Court.

This summer finds her roust, about again on the Miller ranch that her great grandfather, E. C. Miller settled on in 1912. She helps fix lunches, takes them to the fields, makes cold drinks and takes them to the field, helps her mother with the extra cooking and runs errands.

Her brother Mark, now on the combine plans to enter EOC this fall. He has included learning to ski in the things he hopes to learn at college. Queen Michelle is considering joining him on the slopes at Spout Springs.

Reading is one of her favorite pastimes. She has completed Gone With the Wind and is looking forward to seeing the movie. This summer she is on a western book binge with Zane Grey, a favored author.

Hosts Dinner
Before the Kick-off dance, her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Tad Miller, hosted a picnic supper at their ranch home north of Lexington. Their guests included the Rodeo board and wives, members of the Court and their parents and the pennant bearers and friends. Permanent pennant bearers who have ridden at all the parades with the Court except Chief Joseph Days are Judy Bennett, Sherri Kemp, Patty Daly and Diana Wright.

Queen Michelle's aunt, Mrs. Milton Morgan of Ione recently entertained the court at a luncheon. This year they have had many luncheons and suppers. It's a great year to be on the Court, says Queen Michelle.

Over The Tee Cup

By MARIE McQUARRIE
Have you surmised why there has been no "Tee Cup" in the Gazette-Times for a few weeks? You guessed it—too hot to golf. Even straining at 7:00 a.m., you end up dripping at the 9th hole. We hope for better weather next week.

There are special doings going on at the Willow Creek Country Club next Tuesday. Condon, Echo and McNary gals have been invited to come to Heppner. We all hope that old man weather is in our favor and that it cools down some little bit. When a crowd like this is asked here, it would be nice if as many of the Heppner golfing girls would turn out as can. We like to put one Heppner girl with each foursome, so please come and be a part of the party.

There will be coffee and doughnuts served at 9:00 a.m. and tee-off time will be at 9:30. Corliss Boner is heading the whole affair and never having done this big job, it will be up to the rest of the members to give her as much help as possible.

Improvements have been made on the course which should be noted. In the first place, the flood damage is slowly disappearing. There are going to be two new greens made on No. 2 and No. 3, which should be quite an improvement over the old ones. Also, the underground wa-

Copter Crash Causes Fatality

Friends and relatives of Mrs. Dale (Candiss) Hays Frischknecht were saddened to hear of the death of her husband in a helicopter accident at John Day July 31. The helicopter was piloted by Mr. Frischknecht flying for Henderson Aviation of Springfield. The contract helicopter working for the Oregon State Forestry Dept., was on a forest fire spotting operation when it crashed and burned northwest of Mt. Vernon. Two passengers were hurt in the mishap.

Services were held from the LDS chapel in Corvallis where the young couple made their home. Burial was in Utah. Mrs. Frischknecht, the former Candiss Hays, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Hays of Corvallis and granddaughter of Cora Warner, Corvallis. All were former Lexington residents.
