

Long Creek Bride Has Pink and Lavender For Summer Wedding

On July 17 at the Long Creek Community Church, Joyce A. Moore, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Don C. Moore of Long Creek and Douglas K. Reade of Spray were united in marriage. The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Reade of Spray. Rev. Bill Reid officiated.

Escorted by her father, the bride wore a gown fashioned of white lace over crepe back satin. It was styled with a fitted bodice and full skirt. Ribbon roses and pearl hearts held the tulle veil edged with lace. The gown and veil were fashioned by the bride and her mother. The bride carried a white Bible topped with a cascade of white roses and orchid corsage.

The maid of honor was Treiva Carter. Bridesmaids were Kathy Hiatt and Cindy Reade, sister of the bridegroom. They wore empire high neck gowns. Treiva wore a pink gown with lavender ribbons and a bow in back. Kathy and Cindy wore lavender gowns with pink ribbon and bow in back. They each carried a spray of pink and lavender carnations and lily of the valley.

Treiva and Treisa Brockway, twin flower girls wore lavender gowns. They carried white baskets of rose petals.

Mrs. Nancy Swaggart played the organ music and accompanied the soloist Mrs. Connie Eastocks. The church was decorated with candles and baskets of white lilies, roses, pink and white carnations with lavender and pink bows. All the flowers were made by the bride's mother and the bride.

The ring bearers were Vaughn and Zane Adams, cousins of the bride. The best man was Kenneth Reade, the bridegroom's father. Ushers were Bill Moore and Les Ledington. The bridegroom wore his army uniform.

For her daughter's wedding Mrs. Moore wore a pink and white checked knit suit with white accessories and pink corsage. Mrs. Reade wore a beige knit with multi-colored scarf, white accessories and pink corsage.

Reception at Church Annex
The wedding reception was held at the Church Annex with 123 guests. The wedding cake was made by Mildred McGuire.

MR. and MRS. DOUGLAS K. READE who were married in summer wedding at Long Creek.

Jeanne Plank and Bonnie Allen, all of Long Creek. The three tier cake topped with a bride and groom was decorated with pink and lavender flowers. Cutting the cake was the bride's aunt, Miss Carol Ann Moulton. Grandmothers of the bride and bridegroom, Mrs. Mary Moulton and Mrs. Olive Reade poured. Carol Arbogast had the guest book and Sherry Blackwell and Debbie Miller arranged the gift table.

After the newlyweds opened their gifts, they attended a dinner at the bride's home. After a wedding trip to Wallowa Lake, Seattle and Portland, the bridegroom went to Hanau, Germany where he is stationed. His bride expects to join him soon.

The bridegroom attended his 12 years of school at Spray and the bride her 12 years at Long Creek.

Guests came from Mitchell, Dayville, Kimberley, Unity, John Day, Spray, Bend, Pilot Rock, Fossil, La Grande, Estacada, Portland, Baker and Washington towns of Spokane, Seattle and Wishram, also Maumee, Ohio and Fort Bragg, Calif.

Mrs. Bill Heath Has Fun Trip To East Coast

Mrs. Bill Heath is still marveling at her good fortune for a trip to the east coast this early summer. She left June 3 to fly to Pueblo, Colo., in time for graduation. Her nephew Jimmy McLaughlin was a member of the graduation class.

On June 10 she accompanied her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John McLaughlin on a flight to Newport News, Va. They were met by Mrs. Heath's daughter and her husband, Mr. and Mrs. R. R. Schultz. She loved flying, "I wouldn't go any other way". It was cloudy going back and dark returning so she didn't get to see much of the land between Oregon and Virginia.

They spent some time with her brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Bernard McLaughlin at Middletown, Pa. They had side trips to the Pocono Mts. It is a beautiful park and very scenic.

They spent nearly 4 weeks with Mr. and Mrs. Schultz. Their side trips also included a tour of Gettysburg which she says "everyone should see". It isn't as she had expected. All very historic. She enjoyed seeing a miniature village made to scale while visiting in Pennsylvania.

She was disappointed in Philadelphia. It was smelly, dirty and crowded. They saw the Liberty Bell and the Betsy Ross House. At Hershey, they toured the Hershey Candy Co. which had a heavenly smell. Lots of free samples and candy could be purchased fabulously low.

Washington, D. C. was another highlight: Lincoln and Jefferson Memorials, National Archives, Smithsonian Institute, Capitol Blvd.

They crossed the bay via the Chesapeake Tunnel to the peninsula and waded in the Atlantic ocean which was very warm.

They thrilled to Colonial Williamsburg and Jamestown... all very much history. They visited the first glass factory in the United States and bought a piece of glass.

She marveled at the Luray Caverns which still has stalagmites and stalactites forming. She also had visited the Cave of the Winds at Pueblo. Mr. McLaughlin celebrated his 80th birthday on his trip.

When they left the east coast, they flew to Farmington, New Mexico where the trio visited Mr. and Mrs. Bob McLaughlin, then to Colorado and Mrs. Heath came on to Heppner.

Mr. Schultz is expected to be discharged next spring and they plan to bring their mobile home and come to Oregon.

Visiting Guest From France

Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Waid of Portland visited a few days, the first of this week with her sister, Mrs. Amanda Duvall.

They brought with them their guest, Miss Nicole Marque from Paris, France. Miss Marque is a teacher there specialized in languages including English. This was her first visit to the United States.

Mrs. Duvall took her on a tour of her ranches and she was very interested in the differences between their ways of farming and ours, and the vastness of the open country in Eastern Oregon.

Announcement Of Marriage

Mr. and Mrs. Bill Scott of Heppner would like to announce the marriage of their daughter, Jana Lee Scott, to Fred Harnden, son of Mr. and Mrs. Delbert Harnden, also of Heppner. The wedding was Aug. 20 in Reno, Nev.

Mr. and Mrs. Barney Neistadt later accompanied Jana Lee and Fred to Lake Tahoe.

Phil and Hazel Tour Ireland, Scotland And England

Phil and Hazel Mahoney are home from an enjoyable trip to Ireland, Scotland and England. Hazel who is usually a panty-waist about flying said both flights were ideal. They went over the Pole Seattle to London going over. Coming back they landed at Bangor, Maine to clear customs then came across Canada, Montana and home.

Spot comments: "The Irish are charming, good looking, happy people. I loved the English countryside. There's lots to see in London. I enjoyed London. It was raining so hard Phil wouldn't go with me to kiss the Blarney Stone! The fog was down to the ground when we tried to sight-see in Scotland."

They went on a charter flight of the Oregon State Bar. There were 186 people on the plane going over. There were quite a few family groups with a number of children.

After the week long American Bar meeting was over, the group scattered to meet in London to come back home.

The Mahoneys spent 10 days in Ireland. They didn't go into northern Ireland. Ireland was much more tropical than she had imagined. The west coast is very tropical with palm trees. It never freezes. She said she had never seen it rain so hard as it did while they were in Ireland. No wonder it is so green.

They spent 6 days in London. There was lots to see. Scotland would have been beautiful except for the weather.

Doug Gribble has made the Dean's list the last two terms at EOC. He made the spring term list with a 3.75 and this summer term with a 3.50. He will finish at the end of spring term 1972.
