Booths Pace the Fair

Many were the favorable comments on the Booth section of the Morrow County Fair this year. Sweepstakes went to the North Morrow 4-H Council booth. This enterprising group had a huge golden egg and "hatching" from the golden egg was 4-H. Letters in the background: Build Your Nest in the West and displays told all the work that there is to do in 4-H from square dancing to leather tooling.

They were in Community Service. Second place winner was the American Legion Auxiliary and the Jaycees, 3rd place.

Churches
There were four churches who arranged booths at the Fair.

Landscape Expert At M-F Workshop

Claude Mills on the State Board of Oregon Federated Garden Clubs will conduct a workshop in Milton-Freewater on Sept. 10 at 7:30 p.m. at the Community Bldg. He will lecture on Landscaping and Roses. This is open to the public. It is sponsored by the Freewater Garden Club. There will be door prizes. The charge of admission is $1.00.

Mr. Mills is known here having spoken at the Chamber of Commerce meeting a few years ago and conducted a workshop in Ione and Heppner at that time.

New Owners of Bucknuts Here

—Mr. and Mrs. Warren Ritchey have purchased Bucknuts Tavern from Mr. and Mrs. Larry MacPhersons. The MacPhersons are moving to the east coast and Larry is going back to school.

—Mr. Ritchey says he is pleased just to get out of Portland. He's been trying for some time to figure out a way to move to Eastern Oregon. He will be joined here by his family as soon as housing can be found.

The Ritcheys have three children, Dave student at Portland State, Carl a senior in high school and Diana, 8th grade.

Two Station Dick

Ladd Dick has taken over the Chevron Station in Heppner and will rename it Heppner Chevron Station. Mel Allyn of Boardman formerly of Lexington Station. Ladd will personally manage both stations.

Mr. and Mrs. Allyn will move their mobile home from Boardman and put it on the lot they own in Lexington.

MEAL PREPARATION CONTEST

Kathleen McElligott was the only participant in the meal preparation contest. She had to plan, prepare and serve a meal for three guests and herself. Her menu included tossed green salad, swiss steak, mashed potatoes, corn, rolls, angel food cake and strawberries.

Her guests were her mother, Mrs. Don McElligott, Mrs. Howard Crowell and a long time judge at fairs, Ed Shannon.

She received a Blue ribbon, the $3.00 award presented by Morrow Produce for the best dinner serving Morrow County potatoes and the $3.00 award from the Morrow County Cow-Belles for the best Senior dinner using beef.

The judge said she showed that she had done lots of cooking but that she needs polish on individual techniques and for this didn't feel that she was ready to go to State Fair. She suggested that others contemplating entering this contest in other years consider a theme for the meal and then build their menu and center piece around this theme.

Clyde Alton Currin Buried in Idaho

Clyde Alton Currin, 81 of Payette, Idaho, died Saturday in an Ontario hospital. Memorial services and burial were in Payette.

Mr. Currin was born May 6, 1890 at Currinsville, Ore., a settlement near Estacada, now site of the annual Currin picnic. The family moved to Heppner when he was a young boy. In 1897 they moved to a ranch at Payette.

Ned Harlan, a partner in Riley's Store, and a Heppner resident in 1915, sent us a clipping of the obituary. Ron Currin informs us that Mr. Currin was his great grandfather's brother's son. Several old timers in the area may recall knowing him as a lad.
