

Bridegroom Wears Air Force Uniform

On August 14 at the Heppner Christian Church, Linda Sue Pettyjohn, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Pettyjohn, of Ione, became the bride of David William Wright, son of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Wright of Heppner. Pastor Don W. Johnson officiated at the double ring candle-light ceremony.

The bride chose an informal wedding and followed her white and yellow colors with her wedding dress. Given in marriage by her father she wore a street length sleeveless polyester knit. The v-neckline was accented with a yellow scarf. She carried a bouquet of yellow centered daisies and white carnations with white lace festoons.

Marsha Ball was the bride's only attendant. She wore a yellow dotted swiss dress and carried a nosegay of garden flowers.

The bridegroom wore his Air Force uniform. Hal Bergstrom was his best man. Ushers were Dean Wright, brother of the bridegroom and Jerry Pettyjohn, the bride's brother.

Mrs. Paul Tewes was organist. The church was decorated with yellow and white daisies and gladiolus arranged in picture baskets. Pews were marked with yellow bows. Yellow and white tapers were in the candleabra.

Reception Follows

The wedding reception was held in the church social room. The three-tiered bridal cake was topped with a bride and bridegroom and decorated with bells and yellow flowers. It was served by Mrs. Jack Hynd, aunt of the bride and Mrs. Leland McKinney. Pouring were Mrs. Bob Wright of Umatilla and Mrs. Clayton Wright of Hermiston. Diane Wright and Cindy Barnett arranged the gift table. Nancy Pettyjohn and Doris McCabe were in charge of the guest book. Marlene Bergstrom and Mrs. Clyde Pettyjohn co-chairmaned the kitchen.

There was a get-together for the family at the Wright home later that evening. The bride chose to wear a floor length yellow hostess gown for the occasion.

The young couple honeymooned a few days at the Wright mountain cabin. The bride returned to drive wheat truck for her dad for a few days before they left for Wichita, Kansas where the bridegroom is stationed. He has

OSU Seniors Marry in Heppner

High school and college sweethearts, Nancy Judith Doherty and Steven Dean Pettyjohn were united in marriage Sept. 4 at 1 p.m. at St. Patrick's Church in Heppner. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bernard J. Doherty and the bridegroom, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Howard Pettyjohn. Father Raymond H. Beard read the ceremony.

The bride given in marriage by her father wore a high-waisted dress of shantung crepe with fitted bodice which had rose lace inset. The full gathered skirt was floor length. She wore a rose lace veil and carried white daisy and rose cascading bouquet.

Her sister, Maureen Doherty was maid of honor. Bridesmaids were Martha Doherty, Becky Doherty, both sisters of the bride and Dee Ann Pettyjohn, sister of the bridegroom. The girls wore dresses the same style of the bride's in lavender, peach, blue and yellow ripple crepe. They carried bouquets of pastel daisies and baby breath. The gowns were all made by the bride's mother.

John Rawlins was best man and ushers were Russell Killenny, Larry Pettyjohn, the bridegroom's brother and Eric Graves, his cousin.

Mrs. Paul Tewes accompanied John Conlon as he sang Ave Maria and Panis Angelicus. She also played the nuptial music. The church was decorated with pastel daisy and gladiolus arrangements.

Mothers Wear Blue and Beige
Mrs. Doherty wore a blue knit dress and coat with lace sleeves. Mrs. Pettyjohn chose a beige dress with stand-up collar with accent buttons on a diagonal line.

The reception in honor of the young couple was held at the country home of the bride's parents. Here again the pastel multi-colors of the wedding were used in the daisy and gladiolus flower arrangements. The three-tiered wedding cake was made and decorated by Mrs. Robert Davidson of Lexington. Mrs. Ray Ayers of Heppner, aunt of the bridegroom and Mrs. Walter Hill, Missoula, Mont., aunt of the bridegroom served the cake. Pouring were Mrs. Jack Colpitts of Corvallis.

WHAT'S COOKIN

Comes the fall and football. If you're planning to have guests in after a football game and you're all coffee'd up from the game you might try Russian Tea. There are many recipes for Russian Tea but with today's easy powder mixes, it's easier to make than it used to be. It's hot and tangy, delicious and enjoyed by young and old alike. Blend ingredients together and store in covered container.

Russian Tea

- 2 cups powdered orange
  - 1 cup sugar
  - 1 pkg. lemonade mix
  - 1 cup instant tea
  - 1 tsp. cloves
  - 1 tsp. cinnamon.
- Use 2 heaping spoons to each cup of water. You can vary the sugar and spice to suit your individual taste.
