

Heppner Civic League Elects New Officers, Plans Annual Sale

The Heppner Civic League held its election of officers for the 1971-72 year on Monday. Ruth Maatta was elected president; Anna Lee James, vice-president; Liz Curtis, secretary; and Tanna Padberg, treasurer. The new board members are Ann Schwarz and Judy Goch-nauer.

Kindergarten teacher, Dee Jones, announced that six children from Ione have registered to attend the afternoon session. Their mothers will arrange their transportation.

Annual Sale Planned

Plans for the annual rummage and baked foods sale are underway. Watch the paper for more information about this important event. This project provides the major support for the kindergarten.

Start sorting through your clothing, toys, and household articles. The Civic League provides free pick-up. For phone numbers to call for the pick-up service, look in the classified ads.

Mrs. Lowe Gives Coffee for Francie Mauss

While Mr. and Mrs. Steven Mauss were here late in the summer visiting her folks, Mr. and Mrs. Bob Abrams, Mrs. Bob Lowe entertained at a coffee for Mrs. Mauss who will be remembered as Francie Abrams. This provided an opportunity for friends and neighbors to chat with Francie.

Steve and Francie will be at Fort Collins, Colo., this year finishing their senior year. Francie is taking Veterinary medicine.

They planned to take Francie's boss, Samantha, back with them. She has been out on pasture at Bob Mahoney's.

MARRIED IN the Ione City Park were Mr. and Mrs. Randy Stillman, nee Barbara Boyce.

Ione Park Scene of Stillman-Boyce Wedding

The skies cleared and it was sunny skies on Sept. 4 for the wedding day of three couples.

The Ione City Park was the early afternoon setting for the wedding of Barbara Ann Boyce and Randy Lee Stillman. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ray Boyce and the bridegroom the son of Mr. and Mrs. George Stillman, all of Heppner.

The Rev. William Arthur performed the double ring ceremony. Mrs. Darrell James accompanied by her husband sang "We've Only Just Begun" and "The Lord's Prayer". Sue Jepsen played the nuptial music on the piano that had been moved to the park.

Given in marriage by her parents, the bride wore a gown of white lace over taffeta styled on empire lines. She wore an elbow length veil and carried a bouquet of white carnations and baby breath.

Mrs. Jeff Burnett of Portland was the matron of honor. Her gown was blue flocked. Bridesmaids were Charlene Hamlett and Marsha Ball. Their gowns were yellow flocked. They were all fashioned similar to the bride's and they each carried a single long stemmed yellow rose.

Best man was John Pusateri of San Jose. Ushers were Rick Boyce, brother of the bride and Jim Ennis, of Boring, cousin of the bridegroom.

Reception at the Park

The reception was also held in the park. Mrs. Earl Pryor of Condon and Mrs. Tom Philbrick of Boring served the cake. Pouring were Mrs. Skip Connor, Pilot Rock, aunt of the bride and Mrs. Carl Ennis of Boring. Becky Stillman was in charge of the guest book and Molly Becket arranged the gift table.

For going away the bride chose a pale lavender three-piece knit suit. Following a short wedding trip to the coast, the couple is at home at 611 S. E. 27th St. in Portland.

The bride is a 1970 graduate of Heppner High School and graduated from Western Business in Portland. She is employed at Aetna Life and Casualty, in Portland.

The bridegroom graduated from Heppner High in 1968 and was employed at the Heppner branch of First National before enlisting in the Navy. He will continue his career with First National in Portland.

Hollyce McKnight of Ormond Beach, Fla., visited here last week with her cousins, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Hamlin. They enjoyed a short stay at the Hamlin's cabin where they saw a band of 15 deer. They planned a trip around Oregon and then to Reno.

Sans Souci Meets Here

Sans Souci Rebekah Lodge No. 33 held draping of Charter ceremonies Friday, 17, with Noble Grand Mary McMurry presiding; members in formal attire draped their Charter in memory of a beloved member, Emma White Cecil who passed away recently. Mrs. Cecil was a veteran member of the Order who previously had belonged to Mistletoe Rebekah Lodge No. 25 in Hardman; she was a Past Noble Grand and Past Chairman of District No. 20 and also held an office in Sans Souci this current term. She will be greatly missed by a large circle of her fraternal friends.

Several members reported visits in hospitals. Oma Cox is lodge chairman on community service and would appreciate if all members of Sans Souci would make a list of hours or contributions donated to this work so as to compile her report. These count towards awards in Assembly next May.

Rebekah Veteran Jewels were voted to be purchased for those eligible, these must be earned by a member in good standing holding continuous membership for fifteen years or more. Jewels of this type may be worn in lieu of regalia if the wearer is not occupying an office in the lodge.

Newly upholstered divan was tried out and a decided comfort to sit upon. Welcomed back to the meetings was Tena Scott of Hermiston and Ola Ruggles, Color Bearer of Sans Souci but who also served as warden in the absence of Bernice Nash.

For refreshments for after lodge social Lynn Haguewood had baked a delicious decorated birthday cake, enjoyed by all, but made special for members having birthdays in past three months, those present thus honored were Opal Cook, Mary McMurry and Mildred Padberg. N.G. Mary McMurry added to the theme with colorful birthday napkins.

Heukman-Hughes Wed at John Day

Proud grandmother Mrs. Olive Hughes was in John Day on Sept. 11 attending the marriage of Keith Lynn Marshall and Carol Heukman at two o'clock at the Catholic Church.

Keith is the son of Ellen Hughes Marshall and the late Keith S. Marshall of Albany. Carol's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Roy Heukman, John Day. Susan Farley Griffith, granddaughter of Sadie Farley and daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Farley, John Day, served as matron of honor.

The newlyweds will live in Eugene. Carol who graduated from Oregon State last June has a bank job. Keith, after four years in the U. S. Air Force, will attend the U of O as a junior in International Law and Chinese. While in the air force he was a sergeant in the language specialists division with Chinese and South Vietnamese as his specialties.

John and Fran Privett and their three children Kim, Karen and Michael moved this weekend to Burley, Idaho, where John is employed at Ore-Ida.

RACHEL MOORE of Athena, District 6 American Legion Auxiliary president installs the officers of the Heppner unit: Mrs. Riley Munkers, Mrs. Arnie Hedman, Mrs. Frank Hamlin, Mrs. Jerry Rood, Mrs. Gene Ferguson, who stood in as chaplain for Marjory Worden and Mrs. Don Munkers.

District Head Installs Auxiliary Officers

Mrs. Rachel Moore, Athena, District 6 American Legion Auxiliary president was in Heppner last Monday to install Heppner's Auxiliary officers for the 1971-72 year. She was accompanied by Past Department president Pearl Funk, also of Athena, who is now Department Leadership chairman and Mrs. Dorothy Whiteley.

Mrs. Moore congratulated the Heppner unit on receiving a Red ribbon on their Blue and Gold Round-the-Year projects. She noted that the National dues are being raised but members paying their dues before Oct. 20 would pay the old. She urged members to subscribe to the Legislative bulletin, order poppies early and asked chairmen to read the information bulletins. Girls State fees are being raised to $50 next year.

In reporting on the National Convention, Mrs. Funk said that a girl from Antelope, Sonja Celer, received a $100 Savings Bond in the National Poppy Poster contest. An Auxiliary Benefit fund has been established to which each unit has been asked to contribute $1.00. This is an emergency fund for members who find themselves in temporary financial straits.

Uncovered in the discussion was the number of articles available from the Auxiliary and Legion on a loan basis. They have a hospital bed, wheel chairs, crutches and other items. These may be checked out from D. E. Shorty Hudson.

Mrs. Moore installed the officers for the 1971-72 year. Mrs. Riley Munkers, president; Mrs. Arnie Hedman, vice president; Mrs. Frank Hamlin, secretary; Mrs. Jerry Rood, treasurer; Mrs. Jim Driscoll, Sgt. at Arms; Marjorie Worden, chaplain and Mrs. Don Munkers, historian.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Jones are happy to report that their classified ad in last week's paper sold their travel trailer to Mr. Clarence Warren. The Jones' had many phone calls about the trailer.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Norton, Baker, spent a few days last weekend visiting his cousin, Mrs. Amanda Duvall. The Nortons are leaving soon for Apache Junction, Ariz., where they spend their winters.

Many people in Morrow County say of "Doc" Severinsen, "I knew him when" . . .

Mrs. Severinsen is the former Evonne Evans who grew up in Heppner. Her parents were Mr. and Mrs. Harold Evans. Her mother now lives in Portland. She is a niece of Mrs. Herb Hynd, now of Umatilla and the late Mr. Hynd who formerly lived at Cecil and Judge and Mrs. Rho Bleakman of Canyon City.

Doc grew up at Arlington and is the son of Dr. and Mrs. Carl Severinsen. His parents live in Portland where his dad is a dentist.

Doc has always played the trumpet and Dennis Toney who teaches in Heppner High School can remember when his band used to be in La Grande to play for their high school dances.

If you stay up late enough you may see Doc on the Johnny Carson Show. He won the hearts of his Morrow County countrymen recently when he at one time mentioned Olex.

This week Evonne Severinsen sent a note and a copy of the paper with the account of Judy's wedding. The paper carried several pictures of the wedding: A picture of Doc in his black and white striped pants and double breasted blazer. A close-up of the wedding party; an across-the swimming pool of the entire wedding party and the young couple and the 10 attendants and the minister with the parents of the bride and the bridegroom standing on the opposite side of the pool; a picture of Doc escorting Judy to the altar and then a close-up of the parents.

We are printing the story as it appeared in The New Jersey Herald. The write-up is different as was the wedding. I enjoyed it and hope you will.
