

Cake Decorators Show Imagination

The results of two cake decorating courses in the county were reflected in the number of entries in the Morrow County Fair cake decorating entries. The Irrigon area has had a 4-H Cake Decorating club and BMCC had a Cake Decorating course in the county through their Adult Education program.

Dorothy Zinter got a First and a Special award on her pink and white and blue button mums decorated cake.

Mildred Davidson had baked a loaf cake and then decorated it so it looked like an opened florists' box filled with a dozen long stemmed red roses.

Marj Daltoso of Boardman received a red ribbon on her cake that looked like a Cowboy. Greg Davidson had a 3rd on a doll cake. The cake resembled a skirt from Southern Colonial days.

ANOTHER VIEW of the Soroptimist float featuring Morrow County's new history, "Homesteads and Heritages". The fun part of this float was the real old timer sheep herder, Roy Knighten and his pet sheep. As other people walk their dog... Roy walks his sheep. The two little girls ready to turn the pages of the book are Ariene and Susan Gray.

WOOPS! Who are the clowns? They were excellent on their bicycles and hoops at the same time.

Ione Bows To Weston

Ione's early season win over Arlington then two weeks before their next game produced a void that was unmountable for the Cardinals in their game Saturday with Weston. Weston mixed rining and passing in good fashion to win 26 to 6.

Dick Snider put the Cardinals on the score board in the final period with a one-yard scoring plunge. Other than that the Cardinals didn't do a whole lot.
