LONEROCK NEWS

LONEROCK — Mrs. D. L. Ramsey from Stevenson, Wash., who belongs to the Genealogical Society in Portland was sent to Lonerock last week to make a record of the cemetery here and the ones in Wheeler County, also.

One of their projects is to make a copy for the Oregon Historical Society Library and one for the Forum Library. These records will mean a great deal to people who are tracing their relatives and friends who came to Oregon in the early days.

Several men from Portland have been working at the school house the past week getting everything ready for the hunting season.

Mr. and Mrs. Jim Heidinger have been busy also, as they expect 10 hunters from Portland to join them the first of October.

Alton Carter and wife have bought a home in The Dalles and the family moved down there last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Herman Christensen had the following guests this week. A. L. Zumwalt of Gresham, Marie Wright from Sacramento, Herman's sister and family on their return trip from Banff and Lake Louise.

Evert Johnson who was born at Lonerock but moved to Monument when a small boy was a passenger with his wife on the ill-fated plane that crashed in Alaska recently.

Miss Linda Cox, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lyle Cox, Lexington, is presently visiting with her brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Nalbro Cox, at Quonset Point, Rhode Island. Linda expects to be employed there soon.
