Need 4-H Leaders

By BIRDINE TULLIS
Extension Aide

The fall recruiting of 4-H leaders for all areas of the county is underway. More leaders are needed in every community to meet the needs of the ever-increasing interest of young people in 4-H club work.

Visiting schools in the various areas, Agent Don Stangel and Aide, Birdine Tullis, found an overwhelming number of young people eager to join 4-H clubs.

The Boardman area with the greatest number of interested youth, has the most urgent needs for leaders, for all project work.

Lexington also has opportunities for leaders to work with boys and girls. A foods club leader is especially needed there for in-town girls.

Anyone with an interest in youth is asked to call 676-9642 or come by the Extension office to learn more about 4-H leadership.
