

MR. and MRS. BRUCE THOMSON

Thomsons' First Home To Be In Germany

Many friends went to Portland early this month for Bruce Thomson's wedding to Phyllis Marie Daoro. Bruce came from Germany on a rather short schedule for his wedding.

The autumn wedding was held Oct. 3 at St. Agatha's Church with Father Karl Schray officiating. Phyllis is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Reno J. Daoro of Portland and Bruce is the son of Mr. and Mrs. James G. Thomson of Heppner.

Phyllis was given in marriage by her father. She wore a white floor length gown fashioned with a high standing neckline and empire waist with a small sweeping train. Portuguese lace and seed pearls trimmed the empire midriff and sleeves. The finger-tip French illusion veil flowed from a cap of roses made of braided seed pearls from which hung a crystal teardrop. She carried a crescent shaped bouquet of white carnations and tropicana roses.

Attending the bride as matron of honor was her sister, Mrs. Ed Boitana and bridesmaids were another sister, Deana Daoro; Miss Joyce Cross and Mrs. Frank Frustaci. Mrs. Boitana wore avacado green crepe and the bridesmaids wore salmon pink crepe. All were fashioned after the bride's gown. They all carried tropicana rosebuds mixed with greenery.

George Van Schoiack of Portland, a childhood friend of the bridegroom was best man. Ushers were Ron Jones, Frank Frustaci and Paul Daoro.

The altar flowers of white chrysanthemums, salmon, pink gladiolus and roses were arranged by Mrs. George Van

3-ON-A-TEAM

Beret - Scarf - Gloves
MILADIES

Schoiack. Mrs. Shirley Meeved of Tacoma, Wash., was the organist.

Reception Follows

The reception honoring the young couple was held at St. Agatha's Parish Hall. Featured on the punch table was a lovely handmade candle created by Mrs. Paul Brown of Heppner. Cutting the cake were sisters of the bridegroom, Mrs. Meredith Walters and Miss Bernice Thomson. Serving punch were Mrs. Shirley Leetch, cousin of the bridegroom and Mrs. Anna Toste. Serving coffee and tea was Mrs. Donna Albertini. Mrs. Carol Dittbrandt attended the gift table and Miss Deana Daoro the guest book.

Traveling

Two days later the young couple left for Bremerhaven, Germany where the bridegroom is stationed with the U. S. Army. The bride is a graduate of North Catholic High School and Northwestern College of business. She was employed as a secretary in a law firm in Portland.

The bridegroom is a graduate of Heppner High School, Eastern Oregon College and did graduate work in Business Administration at Portland State College.

Guests attended from Los Angeles and Ferndale, Calif.; Tacoma, Puyallup and Vancouver, Wn.; Heppner, Lexington, LaGrande and the Portland area.

Bouquet To Paul and Gladys

It was a happy ending to the Community Welcome for Teachers and Newcomers as the Soroptimists presented to Judge and Mrs. Paul Jones, the autumn floral centerpiece in honor of their wedding anniversary. Just as 37 years ago they paraded down the aisle they went down the hall to take it to their car.

The arrangement was a gift of Elma's Flowers and had been arranged by Frank McAlister.

Teen Age Spooks To Dance on Saturday

The Morrow County Jaycees have arranged a Saturday night dance especially for high school age youth of the county at the Fairground Pavilion starting at 10:00 and holding forth until 1:00.

Music for the spooks will be by The Stone Image of Pendleton.

Rebekah Convention Here Tomorrow Celebrates 50 Years

A Golden Anniversary District Rebekah Lodge convention will be held in the Sans Souci Lodge rooms in Heppner the afternoon and evening of Friday, Oct. 29.

Mrs. Ed Hunt of Lexington's Holly Lodge is convention chairman. About fifty are expected when the county's three Rebekah Lodges, Bunchgrass of Lone, Holly of Lexington, and Sans Souci of Heppner gather together from 1:00 until 5:00 tomorrow.

Mrs. Mavis M. Paul, State Assembly President from Portland's Riverside Lodge will make a visitation on this occasion. She will address the convention and will be the honored guest at the dinner following the afternoon's meeting.

The dinner at 6:00 in the Heppner lodge rooms will be cooked and served by members of the Methodist Church Women's Society of Christian Service.

Mrs. Hunt is eager that any Rebekah from any lodge feels welcome to attend this convention.

25th Duo Celebration For Frenchs And Ashbecks

A reception in honor of the 25th wedding anniversaries of Mr. and Mrs. Leo Ashbeck and Mr. and Mrs. Raymond French, all of Butter Creek, will be held Saturday, Nov. 6 at the Morrow County Fair annex. Friends and relatives are invited to come to the Annex at 7 p.m. to extend their congratulations and best wishes.

Children of the two couples are hosting the evening. They are Mr. and Mrs. Joe Wood, Verina and Susie French, children of Mr. and Mrs. French and Mr. and Mrs. Mitch Ashbeck, Melvin, Calvin and Alvin Ashbeck, children of Mr. and Mrs. Ashbeck.

The honored couples ask that there be no gifts.

Carnation Club is At Blettell Home

Mrs. Herman Blettell was hostess for members of the Carnation Club's Wednesday meeting.

Ladies attending were: Mrs. Wilbur Steagall, Miss Doris Robinson, Mrs. Archie Padberg, Mrs. Oma Cox, Mrs. Carl King, Mrs. John Bergstrom, Mrs. Lincoln Nash, Mrs. Clara Gertson, and Mrs. E. E. Gonty.

Mrs. Steagall presided in the absence of Mrs. Ed Hunt. Business discussed concerned having a hand work and food sale in the spring, Nov. 6 was set for a fall food sale at Turner-Van Marter and Bryant office. Mrs. Gonty is to chairman this sale. Nov. 20 was chosen for the Degree of Honor members' and families' Thanksgiving Dinner. The place and hour will be announced later.

HOSTESSES at the Community Welcome for Teachers and Newcomers were the Heppner Soroptimist Club whose members arranged the tea table. Each one wearing a "smile" button: Mrs. Jim Thomson, Mrs. Clayton Sweet, Mrs. Phil Doherty, Mrs. Clara Gertson, Mrs. Dean Gilman and Mrs. Olive Hughes. (Photo by G-T)

'All Hands' Welcomed at Community Party

Thursday night saw the first community Teachers and Newcomers welcome party in Heppner. It brought teachers and other school district employees and many residents out to enjoy greeting one another.

The arrangements were the cooperative efforts of the Soroptimist Club, the Chamber of Commerce and the Ministerial Association. The program was contributed by many who presented things to do in the community.

Star Performers

Musical numbers were presented at intervals during the evening. The Assembly of God Youth Chorus, led by Mrs. Don Burwell and accompanied by Mrs. Loa Taylor; Mr. and Mrs. Carl Marquardt and Harley Sager sang accompanied by Clarence Baker on his guitar; Dennis Cass sang accompanied by Mrs. Cass. Instrumental treats were Mrs. Emile Grohens' piano solo, and Dave Mann's trumpet solo with accompaniment by Mrs. Grohens.

Evening's Program

After greetings over the coffee and punch and cookies, the flag salute was led by five Boy Scouts from Pack 661, Webelos Den No. 1, leader Leonard Toll.

The boys, Jimmy Raymond, Steven Marlatt, Richard Schmidt, Terry Toll and Randy Worden did a precise job. The evening's master of ceremonies, Harley Sager, took over to keep the program moving smoothly. He introduced Mayor Bill Collins who gave the official welcome. Judge Paul Jones introduced the County Commissioners, Superintendent of Schools, Ron Daniels, introduced the members of the county school board, his office staff and the two principals, Jim Bier and Don Cole. Each principal introduced his teaching staff and the supportive staffs of their schools, asking each one and/or the husband and wife to stand.

Church Speakers

Representatives from Heppner's churches each gave a two minute talk. Participating were Rev. Don Burwell, Assembly of God; Rev. Dan Thompson, All Saints' Episcopal; Father Raymond Beard, St. Patrick's Catholic; Rev. Don Johnson, Christian Church, Heppner and Church of Christ, Lexington; Paul Warren, The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints; Rev. Rudy Mensch, Valby and Hope Lutheran; Rev. Edwin Cutting, First Methodist; Mrs. Floyd Everhart, Church of the Nazarene and Mrs. Vernon Wilson, Seventh-day Adventist.

Organizational Reps

Representatives of the following organizations spoke briefly: County Agent Harold Kerr and volunteer leader, Jean Nelson, OSU Extension and 4-H; Mrs. Herman Winter, Heppner Library-Museum Board; County Clerk Sadie Parrish, register to vote; Mothers' Club, Barbara Jessmer; Heppner Garden Club, Jane Rawlins; Willow Creek Country Club, Ed Hiemstra; The Bowling League, Corliss Boner; Jaycees, Pat Wonsler; Cub Scouts, Len Ray Schwarz; Boy Scouts, John Gochnauer; Blue Birds, Ginger Keithley.

Speakers were timed by Leonard Munkers with a two-minute bell-ringing alarm.

Reps. of Lodges

Lodges were represented by: Bob Abrams, Masonic Order; Dean Naffziger, Elks Lodge BPOE; Jack Sumner, Odd Fellows; Mary McMurry, Sans Souci Rebekahs; Clara Gertson, Degree of Honor, Grange Masters who spoke were Dorris Graves, Rhea Creek and Ed Hunt, Lexington Grange. Mrs. Hazel Hamlin represented the American Legion Auxiliary and Jim Driscoll spoke for the American Legion.

Other Group Reps

Others who appeared were: Morrow County Gem and Mineral Society, Pete McMurry; Ar-buckle Ski Area, Kelly Wolff; Wranglers, Dick Schlichting; The Neighborhood Center, Dorothy Heard; Golden Age Club, Sadie Parrish; Heppner Civic League, Judy Gochnauer; TOPS Clubs, Lily Wilson; Heppner Arm of the Right To Bear Arms, Ron Britner; and The Lone Grand Squares, Daisy Collins.

Other Helpers

The evening's great collection of cookies was provided by the women of the churches. Coffee and punch, cups and napkins, were purchased by the Heppner-Morrow County Chamber of Commerce. Soroptimist Club members arranged and presided at the refreshment and name tag tables. 4-H Empire Builders and The Rainbow Girls donated their services as goodwill baby sitters for the evening.

Friends Are Invited To Spray Wedding

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Britt of Spray announce the engagement and forthcoming marriage of their daughter, Donna Rae to Thomas Lee Troxell. All friends are cordially invited to the wedding to be held Nov. 5 at 7 p.m. at the Assembly of God church in Spray and to the reception following.

Golden Age Dinner Nov. 2, at Elks

The Golden Age Club will gather for a potluck dinner in the Elks dining room at 7:00 on Tuesday, Nov. 2. This is the night of their regular meeting, the first Tuesday in November.

Sew Now-Fly Later Offers Big Tour Prize

Girls entering the Make It Yourself With Wool sewing competition will be trying for the all-expense paid European vacation, the top prize for a junior and senior in national competition.

The first step is to win the district competition to be held Nov. 20 at Blue Mountain Community College. Girls ages 10 to 21, making garments of 100% American loomed wool, are eligible to enter. The deadline for mailing entries is Nov. 1, but a later entry may be made by contacting the district director, Mrs. Robert Hoskins, lone.

The grand prize for a junior and senior in the district contest will be an all expense paid trip to the state competition Dec. 8 & 9 at the Imperial Hotel in Portland. The sub-district winner will receive a Lambs-wool rug presented by the Krebs Brothers Ranch. Runner-up in each division will receive a gift certificate from the yardage department of the Bon Marche.

Honorable mention yardages will be presented by the following woolgrowers: Stelwer Ranches, Shirley Rugg, Jim West, Joe Doherty, Sr., Oscar McCarty, Cunningham Sheep Co., and Robert Hoskins.

Other district prizes will be presented by: Belding Corticelli, Bonnie Bell Cosmetics, Butter-lick Fashions, Coats and Clark, Inc., National Hand Knitting Yarn Association, Scoville Dritz and Singer Co.

Helping sponsor this contest in Oregon are the Oregon Wool-growers and Auxiliary, the U. S. and First National Banks, the Pendleton Woolen Mills, the Meier and Frank Co., the Lipman Co., the Imperial Hotel, the Madras Freight Line, and the Portland Motor Transport Co.

The American Legion Auxiliary will not have a meeting Nov. 1.

Easy-On!

39¢

Transparent Plastic
STORM WINDOW KIT

35" x 73" 18 Feet
Plastic Sheet • Fibre Moulding • Nails
READY TO TACK ON

Pettyjohn's
Farm & Builders
Supply
Heppner

OPEN YOUR HEART

TO ALL THE WORLD'S CHILDREN

TRICK OR TREAT

for UNICEF

Please? Pogo

©1961 NALT KELLY

Jessie Faye Morris'

FOURTH GRADE STUDENTS

WILL BE KNOCKING ON DOORS
HALLOWE'EN EVENING -- OCT. 31
To collect money for the UNICEF
PLEASE GIVE GENEROUSLY!

THIS MESSAGE SPONSORED BY YOUR HOME-OWNED BANK AS A COMMUNITY SERVICE

BANK OF Eastern Oregon

HEPPNER—IONE—ARLINGTON
MEMBER, FEDERAL DEPOSIT INSURANCE CORPORATION

For $22.95
Give Her Diamonds
Caravelle® by Bulova.

If diamonds are a girl's best friend, befriend her. And keep her timely, too. For a mere $22.95. Give her a pretty sculptured, precision-made, 17 jewel watch, highlighted with twin diamonds. The Sweet Briar "G", Caravelle by Bulova. An expensive watch at an inexpensive price.

"Something from the jeweler's is always something special."

Peterson's JEWELERS

Store Hours: 9 A.M. to 6 P.M.
177 MAIN ST. HEPPNER
PH. 676-9200

SPOOK DANCE

Saturday Night
10 P.M. -- 1 A.M.

Music by "STONE IMAGE"

FAIR PAVILION
HEPPNER

$1.50 Per Person

Sponsored by Morrow County Jaycees