Christmas Stamps
 Carol Moen, postmaster, announces that two special 8c U. S. postage stamps keyed to Christmas 1971 are now on sale at the local post office and all the other post offices. They went on sale first Nov. 10 at Washington, D. C., and here Nov. 11. One stamp features a nativity scene and the other a partridge in a pear tree. The postmaster asks that everyone mail early and also emphasize the importance of including zip codes on all cards, letters and packages.

As a guideline for mailers the post office advises mailing distant packages by Dec. 1, local packages and distant cards by Dec. 10, and prior to Dec. 15 all local cards.

Mrs. Moen said that total Christmas mail-volume of 10 billion pieces is expected this year, of which nearly two billion pieces will be handled in the western states, and that everybody's help will be needed to help deal with this avalanche and deliver Christmas on time.

Garden Club Meets
 The Boardman Garden Club met Monday night at the home of Mrs. Rollin Bishop, with Mrs. Walter Wyss as co-hostess. Roll call was answered by naming a variety of holly.

In the absence of Mrs. Roy Ball, president, and Mrs. Walter Hayes, vice-president, Mrs. Leo Root was in charge of the meeting, and opened with a devotional, "They Failed the Test", taken from "The Daily Bread".

In response to a letter from the Eastern Oregon Hospital and Training Center at Pendleton a donation was voted to them for Christmas.

An article was read on World Gardening from the Oregon Newsletter whereby the club can receive a Citation of Merit from the Oregon State Federation to Guatemala for small fruits and berries, which is a state project. No action was taken.

Hazel Miller gave a program on flowers of the world, and told of different ones she saw on her trip to Italy in 1969. She said garland chrysanthemums are raised in Palestine, and all are yellow and bloom in March. Mrs. Arthur Allen told about flowers in the West Indies.

Mrs. Bishop read an article on "Autumn Birds".

Prizes were won in a game by Mrs. Frank Marlow and Mrs. Ralph Earwood. Mrs. Allen received the door prize.

The next meeting will be the annual Christmas party with exchange of gifts, and held at the home of Hazel Carpenter Dec. 20 at 8 p.m. with Mrs. M. I. Oveson as co-hostess.
