

Adlard Benefit Winners Listed

The benefit dance and ticket sale put on by friends and neighbors for Patty and Dale Adlard brought $317.95. Various donations were received amounting to $376.35, for a total of $694.30 in community contributions to this family whose new mobile home was gutted by fire.

Lucky ticket holders announced Saturday night at the dance at the Legion Hall were: Dale Adlard, $5 gift certificate from the Coast-to-Coast Store; also Dale Adlard, a turkey donated by the Chamber of Commerce; Bill Scott won a case of Pepsi donated by the bottler and gave it to the Adlards; Pat Wanser got a year's subscription to the Gazette-Times; Bob Hager won the turkey donated by Thomson's Grocery; Tom Wilson got the 20 lb. box of Laundry detergent from Sears Catalog Store; Harley Young won the electric alarm clock given by Peterson's Jewelers; Herman Green won the electric fry pan donated by Morrow County Grain Growers; Jack McTimpeny gets a turkey given by Pettyjohn's Builders Supply (he also won a turkey at the Evans party).

An electric coffee pot from Lott's electric was won by Ron Winett, Pendleton; the $10 gift certificate from Miladies went to Bob Shuman; and the canned ham given by the Rebekah Lodge was won by Billie Kemp.

Music was again given by the Roy Quackenbush Group. Many attending remarked that they had enjoyed the party so much that they hoped there would be more like it.

Both of the recent benefit dances were promoted and arranged under the leadership of Janice Flanagan and Pat Jensen. They say very good help with the midnight supper and with the cleaning up developed each evening.

Society Honors Harold Kerr

Epsilon Sigma Phi, national honor society for extension workers, inducted 20 new members in ceremonies held during the annual conference of the Oregon State University Cooperative Extension Service here this week.

Andrew Landforce, extension wildlife management specialist, and Mrs. Jane Schroeder, Jefferson county extension agent and out-going chief of Gamma chapter, conducted the ceremony.

Membership in Epsilon Sigma Phi is open to those who have worked in Extension's informal, off-campus educational programs for ten years or longer. Principal aim of the organization is to promote professional improvement among Extension staff members. New member is Harold Kerr, Morrow County Extension Agent.
