

First Home of Larry Wilsons Is California

Judith Anne Hinton became the bride of Larry Dale Wilson at a candlelight ceremony Nov. 26 at the Boardman Community Church. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Cleve S. Hinton of Boardman, and the bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Wilson of Irigton. The double ring service was performed by Pastor Neil King of the Boardman Church.

Pamela Kuhn sang "We've Only Just Begun", accompanied by Denise Henkle. Miss Kuhn played the nuptial music.

Given in marriage by her parents, the bride wore a floor-length Gibson girl style gown of white velvet. The finger tip veil was held in place by a pillbox headpiece trimmed with pearls and rhinestones. The veil was borrowed from the bride's cousin, Mrs. Rudy Casiano of Germany, formerly of Roseburg. The bride's sister, Mrs. Ed Wolf wore the veil at her wedding last August. The bridal gown was made by the bride's mother, who also made the attendants' gowns. The bride's bouquet was a white orchid set in a circle of red and white carnations and lilies of the valley, with trailing ribbons.

Colors—Red and White

Georgia Susan Hinton was her sister's maid of honor, and another sister, Mrs. Ed Wolf of the Dalles was bridesmaid. Their gowns were of red velvet, and they carried red and white carnations. Joy Hogeland of Dillard and Susan Hinton of Ukiah, cousins of the bride, were candlelighters.

Maurice Costin of Los Angeles, Calif., was best man. Ushers were Loren Wilson, brother of the bridegroom, and Bob Buchanan, both of Irigton. Following the ceremony a reception was held in the Riverside High School commons area. In charge were Mrs. Arthur Allen, Mrs. Carroll Donovan, Mrs. Stan Henkle, Denise Henkle and Mrs. Tom Barnhart.

The three tiered square cake, topped with white love birds in a nest of red and white carnations, was cut and served by Mrs. Dan Dalton and Mrs. Bill Hinton of Ukiah, aunt of the bride. At the coffee table were Mrs. George Hinton of Ukiah, grandmother of the bride, and great-aunt of the bride. Serving punch were Mrs. Jim Hogeland, Dillard, cousin in the bride, and Mrs. Dean Nickles of Winston.

Shirley Hinton, cousin of the bride, and Arla Barber of Pendleton had the guest book, and at the gift table were Mrs. Bob Nickles of Roseburg, and Mrs. Rex Lyon of Hillsboro, both aunts of the bride.

The bride is a graduate of Riverside High School, and attended Blue Mountain College, receiving a certificate in dental assistance. The groom is a 1968 graduate of Riverside, and attended Weaver Airlane School in Kansas City. He is presently employed in Los Angeles, Calif. at the Los Angeles International Airport for Northwest Orient Airlines as transportation agent.

For going away the bride wore a navy blue polyester knit dress with red, white and blue accessories. Her corsage was the orchid from her bouquet.

Grand Squares Gain 15 Members

Caller Darrell Wilson is such a good instructor it is said that his latest class of beginners can dance with their hands tied behind their backs and their feet in shoe boxes. A class of eight couples was graduated at the annual Christmas dance Dec. 17. The five couples who were present for fun, provided hilarious entertainment during their initiation into the Grand Squares. The new members are Mr. and Mrs. Gene Hall, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Pettyjohn, Mr. and Mrs. Dick Sargent, Mr. and Mrs. Dennis Martin, Mr. and Mrs. Bob Jepsen and Tom Wolfe. New members not present were Mr. and Mrs. Art Warren and two of their children and Lisa Collins.

Willows Grange Hall, festively decorated, was packed for the party. Guests came from Pendleton, Hermiston, Wyeast and Canyon City. A grand march around the Christmas tree, gift exchange and homemade ice cream were part of the evening's fun.

The regular dance set for Jan. 1 has been postponed to Jan. 8. Members of the Grand Squares will be dancing at the Rocket Squares New Year's Eve party in Pendleton.

Golden Age Club

Golden Age Club will meet Jan. 4 at the Elks Dining Room for potluck dinner at 7:00 p.m., barring a severe weather change.

DOTS JOTS

I was ever so pleased to see so many clippings that I had written in Clint Krebs' Brochure that he entered in the Elks Leadership Contest. Now how egotistical can you get! It wasn't what I did but what he did of course that really counts. I was just glad to have had a part. His brochure is beautifully done. It truly is a record of his high school years.

It is too bad that every Freshman in high school can't see this outstanding book. Clint has clippings, pictures, and letters to document his offices and positions of leadership that he held in class and school organizations. It is a record of his honors and awards received in school, his extra-curricular school activities, his out-of-school activities, positions held in gainful employment and Civic and community activities.

All Freshmen should take heed and RIGHT NOW clip those clippings, keep letters, programs, certificates that can be used to tell your story and why you should receive the top award. It could mean help for college and money in the bank. I'm sure that Cheri Carlsons' is just as well done but I never got to see it!

You know it has bothered me for years that the bridegroom is so almost ignored in the wedding write-ups. Hopefully this may be a thing of the past with the colors and fashion the men are sporting these days. Read with interest the account of Judy Hinton's wedding in Boardman. I was so in hopes that Mary Lee Marlow had included something about the bridegroom's apparel. The picture shows his Jaquard jacket of a weave that really looks handsome. Just curious about what color it was!

Every twice in awhile a good subscriber answers our renewal reminders with a bit of rhyme himself. A cute one came this week from an lone subscriber. He says it's "good sentiment but rotten verse". We loved it!

I done forgot, so here is the five.
Sorry you had to prod to bring us alive.
We like to sit with the paper and rest from our labors
And read all the news of our friends and neighbors.

The Elks No. 358 is recognize-ing an outstanding girl and a boy each month. Receiving first recognition were Dianne Mills and Jim Cutsforth. Their lists of accomplishments sound like a "Who's Who"!

I was especially interested in Mr. Bier's remark about Jim as football manager "one of the hardest working members of the team". I can well agree with him. I remember when Don Heard was manager of the football team at Joseph. In those days the managers washed towels, socks and jerseys and what have you after practice. Don used to get home 7:30-8:00 o'clock. That was when he learned to play chess. They'd play while they waited for the clothes to come out of the dryer.

John Hoppers Have Guests on 3 Days

Mr. and Mrs. John Hopper on Water Street kept very busy enjoying three days of family visits Christmas week.

Their son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Hopper and grandsons Cody and Robbie, from Hermiston, were Thursday evening visitors.

On Christmas Eve their granddaughter and family, Mr. and Mrs. Lyle Potter and daughters Zorieta and Shiril, Hermiston, came visiting.

Christmas Day guests were their daughter and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Britt of Spray, who brought Zorieta and Shiril Potter with them, and their granddaughter Raelene Gentry, husband Burke, and Mrs. Maida Britt, all of Heppner.

Weatherfords Ask Friends for Tea

Mr. and Mrs. Bill Weatherford asked a few friends to stop in for Sunday afternoon tea or coffee and to visit with Mr. and Mrs. Marion Weatherford, Arlington, and their Japanese guest, Massa, from Tokyo.

About 20 stopped to meet Bill's brother and sister-in-law, and their interesting guest, Massa is a graduate of Tokyo University who has been attending Whitworth College, Spokane, this year. Maron Weatherford became acquainted with his father, a member of the Diet (Japan's Parliament) when he visited Japan some years ago. The father has just recently been elevated to cabinet rank; he is Japan's first Minister of Environ-

Linda Baker Rules Rainbow Dance

The Heppner Rainbow Assembly held its annual Holiday Dance on Wednesday night, Dec. 23, in the Heppner High Cafeteria. The decorations combined moments of an old-fashioned Christmas, and of toyland.

The high spot of the evening was the crowning of the queen during the intermission. Linda Baker, Worthy Associate Advisor, was crowned queen; the princesses were, Cyde Allstott, Faith, and Juanita Wilson, the Assembly Treasurer.

The seventy-some couples danced to the music of Fern Valley and Co. from Pendleton. Chaperones

Masons, Eastern Stars, and parents served as chaperones during the evening. Mr. and Mrs. Bob Abrams, Mr. Dick Wilkinson, Mr. and Mrs. Lyle Cox, Mrs. Omer Huston, Mr. Don Gilliam, and Mr. and Mrs. Arnold Raymond joined Mrs. Hubert Wilson, Mrs. Barbara Devine, Mrs. John Hyde, Camas, Wn., as chaperones.

Soroptimists Have Busy December

Heppner's Soroptimist Club had a giving, singing December. The group gave toward the Christmas at Pendleton's Eastern Oregon Hospital; gave groceries and gifts to a Morrow County Family, and gave half-do's at the hospital.

Special, joyful events included honoring Mrs. Marlene Bergstrom, bride-elect of Randall Peterson. Marlene was presented with a money lei and cheered and congratulated at the Dec. 9 luncheon. The lei was constructed by Mrs. Garry Tullis, and was selected as the medium for a club gift because it has become known that Marlene and Randall expect to be Hawaii bound this spring.

On Dec. 16, the attendance officer, Mrs. Etta Parker, called roll to Christmas greeting responses. Mrs. Emile Groshens led the group in the singing of Christmas Carols to her accompaniment on a borrowed, portable, toy, electric organ which had a problem key or two that seemed to stick or something. However, skillful Mrs. Groshens managed to coax music out of the balky instrument, and all the Soroptimists present enjoyed her vocal leadership and their own participation.

They were home for the weekend except for the Blakes who stayed on for this week. Holly remained also and the Blakes will take her to Hood River when they return home next weekend.

The 2 older boys have returned south, and Pam and Sam will be taken back to Nampa by their family on Jan. 2.
