

Daisy Colors Chosen for Wright-Flaiz Winter Wedding

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Wright
Nee Sandra Flaiz

For her mid-winter wedding to Jack Wright of Pendleton, Sandra Flaiz chose the colors yellow, white and brown. Sandra is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Richard J. Flaiz of Heppner and Jack is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Ed Wright of John Day.

The young couple was united in marriage at the bride's home by the Rev. Don Johnson on January 8 at 6 o'clock in the evening. Bouquets of yellow and white pom-pom daisies with brown ribbon were about the room. The bride given in marriage by her father wore an empire floor length satin gown with long sleeves. Her floor length veil had lace down each side and white daisies across the top. She carried a bouquet of yellow daisies tied with a long brown ribbon. Her attendants Mabley and her sister, Mrs. Vern Marshall, Rita Gibson, her niece was flower girl and Ron Mabley, her nephew, was ring bearer.

The girls wore yellow checked gingham floor length gowns, ruffled at the sleeves, at the hem and the neck. They carried nosegays of yellow daisies with long brown ribbons.

The bridegroom's brother, Jerry Wright, of John Day was best man and Richard F. Flaiz, the bride's brother, was usher.

The bride's brother-in-law, Vern Mabley, sang "I Love You Truly," "More" and "Never Ending Love" with guitar accompaniment.

RECEPTION AT HOME
The three-tier wedding cake was decorated with yellow daisies and brown horseshoes flanked with yellow candles in horseshoe candleholders.

Sally Marlatt served the cake. Patti Wright, sister-in-law of the bridegroom and Irma Legler, aunt of the bride, served the coffee and punch. Theda Legler was in charge of the guest book.

The young couple is residing in Pendleton where Jack is an insurance agent for Farmers Insurance. He is a 1968 graduate of Grant Union High School. Sandra graduated from Heppner High in 1970 and graduated from Bassist Fashion School in Portland in 1971. She was employed at the Morrow County Assessor's office at the time of her marriage.

Elks Leadership Winners Told

Congratulations are in order for the winners of the 1971-72 BPOE No. 358 Youth Leadership Contest: Cheryl Carlson of Ione High School for girls and Clinton Krebs of Ione High School for the boys.

Both have held numerous studentbody, class and organization offices that indicate leadership.

Cheryl, vice president National Honor Society, Student Council Representative, vice president Girls Athletic Ass'n., Varsity cheerleader, school newspaper page editor, annual staff.

Clinton, Freshman class president, vice president and president letterman's club, Associated Student Body vice president, student council representative, football team captain and student council vice president.

Both have been involved in community and church activities and 4-H Club. They are both ranch hands as Cheryl works in the wheat and cattle operations of the Carlson ranch and Clinton in the hay and sheep operations of Krebs Bros.

They have both been involved in other kinds of remunerative employment and aren't afraid of work and don't feel they are too good to work at jobs that some young people would look down on.

Both young people have goals not only for day to day but also for the future.

Not content to have things done the same way year after year, Clint developed some innovative programs at Ione High School: money making projects for the Letterman's Club, school dances and school spirit promotions.

Clint has proved his resourcefulness by constructing his bedroom furniture. He designed and constructed a trough for feeding bumper lambs and a "dodge" gate for separating sheep.

After college, he hoped to become a diversified rancher in Morrow County.

Their awards will be presented at the Elks Annual Saturday afternoon.

SCHAFFITZ TO FOREST GROVE

Mary M. McElligott

Homemaker Award Winner Named

By Linda McKay
Mary M. McElligott, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Donald McElligott, has been named Ione High School's Betty Crocker Homemaker of Tomorrow for 1972. She was chosen on the basis of her score in a written knowledge and attitude examination taken by senior girls on December 7, and will receive a specially designed award charm from General Mills, sponsor of the annual educational program. Additionally, she is now eligible for state and national honors.

The State Homemaker of Tomorrow, to be selected from all school winners in the state in judging which will center on performance in the December test, will be awarded a $1,500 college scholarship. Her school will receive a complete set of Encyclopedia Britannica. A scholarship of $500 will go to the second-ranking girl in the state.

This April, the 51 Betty Crocker Homemakers of Tomorrow representing every state and the District of Columbia will be given an expense-paid educational tour of Colonial Williamsburg, Va., and Washington, D.C. The national winner will receive a $5,000 scholarship, with the three runners-up receiving $4,000, $3,000 and $2,000. During the 18 years since the program's inception, enrollment has totaled over eight and one-quarter million, and with this year's grants, scholarship awards will reach almost $2 million.

A National Honor Society member at Ione High School for 2 years, Mary is currently serving as president of the Girls Athletic Association, of which she has been an active member for 4 years. She was a Girls State Delegate as a Junior. Mary has also been on the cheerleading squad for 3 years -- 2 as Varsity and 1 as Junior Varsity. Mary has served on the student council as a senior and as a sophomore. Outside activities have occupied much of Mary's time, as she has been a 4-H member for 9 years, and is also active in her church group.

DOT'S JOTS
Well! I can't say ever again that "I have never won anything." Sunday at Ione PTA's Carnival and Chili Feed I won the last cake in the Cake Walk! A delicious and beautiful heart-shaped cake decorated with white and pink frosting.

There was a wonderful crowd having a gloriously good time.

I THOUGHT I was going to wear a Chinese handcuff the rest of my life. During Bingo this boy sat next to me loaded with all this loot he'd won. I asked him about a finger-shaped basket-woven gadget open at both ends that he had two of. He didn't know, so I asked Charlie. He said, "It's kind of a Chinese handcuff" and suggested I put it on my finger then put a finger from my other hand into the other end. My heavens above. When I tried to remove my finger that basket-woven trap just held on tight.

MORE ON the Wheat League Cake. Mrs. McMurdo called to say she had enjoyed a piece of the OWL cake baked by Mrs. Floyd Jones and Laurena hadn't put in an egg.

Then another good cook made the cake and her husband said "It's the worst you've ever made" however he did concede a few days later that it improved the older it got! She said she'd bring us a piece the next time she made it!

Must get on the stick and try it myself!

Princess Kerry Who Sounds So "All American"

This is to introduce Kerry Coppock, Lexington Grange's representative on the Morrow County Fair and Rodeo court. She writes: "I belong to Pep Club and I'm secretary of Girls' League and secretary of Drill Team. Right now I'm working on Honor Society. I'm in Horse 4-H and have been since I moved here from Athena seven years ago. I'm also in Sewing 4-H. I've been pretty lucky with it so far.

SPORTS MINDED
I love to swim, play basketball, baseball and football, camping out and of course, riding and helping dad with the cows. I like snow and all the things that go with it like intertubing and I really would like to learn to ski (water skiing too) and I want to go ski-dooing. I would like to learn to play the guitar, rope decently and fish better.

I like everything but I like fireplaces, people, welcome mats, animals and pine trees. Guess I don't really do anything spectacular--I'm just me.

I've always dreamed about being a princess ever since I knew anything about it but I thought all I could do was dream. Being selected princess was one of the greatest things that has happened to me and I'll try not to let anybody down!

Sunday Concert Draws Good Crowd

There was quite a good attendance at the Sunday afternoon concert given by the Grade School Band and directed by David Mann. For the most part, parents and friends felt it was something to do during the winter.

5th Grade Band made up of beginning students who have just started on their instruments played pieces from the method book used for instruction. 6th GRADE BAND composed of students who have been playing one year plus a few beginners play Spiritual March, Rondelay and Minka Minka.

7th & 8th Grade Band made up of students who have 2 to 3 years playing experience played Promotion March, Songs of the Sage, Scarborough Fair, Fosterama (A Stephen Foster Medley) and Soul Explosion.

Happy 19th

Jan Schlichting was surprised on her 19th birthday, her first one away from home on Jan. 7. Her room mate, Merrill Victor of Enterprise, arranged a full evening of excitement.

A boy friend took her to dinner at Cimmiyottis. When they returned to Challenger Inn, a group had gathered along with a big birthday cake, ice cream and a dozen red roses! The room was wall-to-wall people visiting and eating cake and ice cream.

Jan is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Dick Schlichting of Heppner. This is her first year at BMCC. She recently made a wood sculpture that may be placed in the landscaping at BMCC.
