Home Ec Judges Training

This year more than 130 women will sharpen their judging skills in two training sessions for judges this month. Those attending the training schools will be available to judge at 4-H and county fairs throughout Oregon this spring and summer. Two sessions are offered this year for the first time. One in Bend, which will make the training available to more women from central and eastern Oregon.

THE ANNUAL REUNION of the West family was held Saturday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Carroll Donovan. Eight members of the family who have birthdays in Feb. and Mar. were especially honored.

Those present included Mr. and Mrs. Dale Russell and children Dan and Dalene, Rose Chavanski and Christine Ames all of The Dalles, Mr. and Mrs. John Hutson and son Phil of Walla Walla, Wash., Mr. and Mrs. Charles Wetherell of Hermiston, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Stephens of Irrigon, Mrs. Sam Beeks of Arlington, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Bates and Dewey West Jr. and Jerry, Jack and Carol Ann Donovan. Sunday morning Mrs. Donovan served breakfast to the Dewey West's, the Dewey West's Jr., Mrs. Beeks, and Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Wetherell of Arlington.

the other in Corvallis. Both sessions will cover the same basic program. Training will be given on judging clothing and knitting exhibits, style revue and demonstrations. Both will stress the role of the judge as an educator in the OSU off-campus youth education program. Experience judges and extension agents will conduct the trainings. The schools are designed to train new judges and to keep experienced judges up-to-date on changes in the 4-H program as well as to sharpen judging skills. Those attending from Morrow County will be Mrs. Roland Bergstrom, lone and Birdine Tullis, Morrow County Extension Aide.

Many are the Dogs Few are Licensed

The county is not going "to the dogs" at least not licensed dogs! To date only 41 dog licenses have been issued for 1972.

Continuing on from licenses of 1971, the first one number 116 issues this year went to Don Pointer of Lex on January 5 for their dog named Bobby. G.C. Weaver of Ione has license number 117 and Clista Venard of Heppner got the 3rd license for her big bird dog, "Billie", a Labrador.

Allen Hughes licensed two dogs 119 and 120. Ruolah Mankin number 121 and Elva Ruhl of Lexington No. 122.

Three people have licensed three dogs each. Charles McConnell of Lex number 123, 124, 125 for Prince, a German Shepherd; Bobbo and Brownie. Alberta Johannes licensed her three and Albert Wright licensed three. They have two cow dogs, Robbie, a Collie and Dud who is a little bit of everything but is a good stock dog and Whiskers, the house dog.

Shirley Baker, Lexington, has number 126 on her dog and Judy Gochnauer has number 127 on their dog "Trixie".

Male or female it makes no difference, the license is $4.00.
