

Danny Leathers Takes Bride

Mr. and Mrs. Leathers

There were a number of relatives going over from Heppner for Danny Leathers marriage to Susan Joan Reinhart on Feb. 19. Those attending were Mrs. Owen Leathers, Mrs. Larry Cook, Mrs. Vic Lovgran, Mrs. Carl McDaniels, Mrs. Carey Hastings, Mrs. Grace Buschke, Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Rood and Mrs. C.C. Carmichael. Danny grew up in Heppner and is the grandson of Mr. and Mrs. Owen Leathers with whom he stayed. His parents are Mr. and Mrs. John Standerfer, Pendleton. The double ring ceremony at the Christian Church was read by the Rev. Orville Mick, Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Reinhart, the bride's parents, gave her in marriage. She wore a gown of chantilly lace with a bouffant skirt, Juliet cap and fingertip veil. Attending the bride as maid of honor was Linda Sturdivant and bridesmaids were Debbie Reinhart, sister of the bride and Cindy Leathers, sister of the bridegroom. Marcie Leathers, sister of the bridegroom was candlelighter and Jennifer Standerfer was flower girl. Best man was Joe Scoggins and Doug Flatt and Scott Blackman, ushers, all from Pendleton. The young couple will be at home in Pendleton where both are attending BMCC. The bridegroom is also employed by Kerns Furniture in Pilot Rock.

Heppner Couple Married At The Dalles

Julie Ayres and Alvin Ashbeck both of Heppner were married Feb. 12 at St. Peter's Catholic Church, at The Dalles. Fr. Terry Stillman performed the ceremony, before a small group of members of both families and close friends. Julie wore a white knit dress and carried a nosegay of white carnations and red roses. Her sister, Kathleen Ayres, was Julie's attendant. She wore a red velvet dress with white lace trim. She carried a nosegay of red tipped carnations. Her sister, Mary had the guest book. She wore a pink dress and a pink corsage. Mitch Ashbeck was best man for his brother and Calvin and Melvin were ushers. Mr. and Mrs. Earl Ayres the bride's parents formerly of Heppner but now of The Dalles hosted the Wedding supper following the ceremony at the Mirror Room of the Recreation. Mr. and Mrs. Leo Ashbeck of Butter Creek are the parents of the bridegroom.

The young couple is at home at the Ayres home in Heppner but will be moving to the Butter Creek ranch later in the spring where the bridegroom farms with his father. Julie is employed at the Bank of Eastern Oregon.

We're always having our attention called to look-alikes. But do you ever hear sound-alikes? Bonnie Culp and her sister Ellen Goldsmith are certainly sound-alikes. Ellen told me that when she answers Bonnie's phone that people just will hardly believe her that she isn't Bonnie.

Then while listening to Art Vance talk at the Wranglers meeting Sunday evening here was another pair of sound-alikes and that's Art and Garry Tullis. And they're only brothers-in-law.

I forgot to tell about Craig Munker's favorite food when I interviewed him on his Elks Scholarship. It's buttered popcorn. Oh, to be tall and young and not afraid of all those calories!!!!!!

It was a big moment at the Don Robinsons on Leap Year Day....Feb. 29 with the arrival of a Leap Year Colt. He'll be the youngest horse on the ranch even when he's up in those golden years and retired to pasture.

The pured Arabian stud colt has a combination name, Jaeleap Yearzadee. From his mom Shar Jaed and his pop Zadee. He's chestnut with white markings.

There's nothing quite so beautiful as all the spring babies. I'm so wishy washy. I see a colt and then a white face calf, then a lamb and each one is the cutest. You never can tell when your years on the farm pay off. At least this was a recent experience of Sandi Matheny. She's worked at Timberline Lodge this winter. The St. Bernard was going to have pups and Sandi was chosen to be the accoucheuse. Mother and Sandi did great. The St. Bernard had five pups and Sandi is going back to Oregon State for spring term.

Introducing Patty Luciani

This week we're introducing the last Princess of the 1972 Morrow County Fair and Rodeo Court, Patty Luciani is sponsored by the Wranglers. She writes--'Being a senior at Heppner High School has kept me very busy I have been active in such school organizations as Pep Club, Girls' League, G.A.A., F.H.A., Rodeo Club, and Drill Team. After being in National Honor Society as a junior and senior, I was elected president of this organization for this year.

I love sports of all kinds and have enjoyed representing my school as Varsity Cheerleader throughout the football and basketball seasons. Although I haven't had too much time for sports this year, I have enjoyed past years of girl's volleyball and basketball activities. I am a member of the Pine City 4-H Community Club and this year will conclude my ninth year of participation.

I would have to say that riding, snow skiing and water skiing are among my favorite hobbies. During the summer, I would have to say that riding, snow skiing and water skiing are among my favorite hobbies. During the summer, I help my father with the Ranch work, which includes harvesting and working with our cattle.

I'm really looking forward to this summer as a princess representing the Heppner Wranglers. I'm sure that our summer activities will be very rewarding and I'm happy to be in a position that will enable me to enjoy them'.

OLIVE HUGHES writes from Santa Ana, Ca., that she recently visited with her sister Evelyn at Yucca Valley. Yucca Valley is a lovely place way up in the high desert. While she was there she went through Joshua Tree National Park.

Olive plans to start home sometime this month if the weather improves!
