

We The Women

HAPPY BIRTHDAY to Alice Luttrell and Pat Brindle. They are wearing orchids given to them for their birthday party by Alice Soward.

Two Parties For Alice Luttrell

Alice Luttrell had two birthday parties for her 90th birthday last week. On Monday friends entertained for her at the home of Mrs. Ida Farra. Thirty-seven dropped in to enjoy visiting with Alice who has a heart warming sense of humor that is a delight to her friends. Mrs. Vernon Munkers and Milly Evans made three cakes in Easter egg colors of pink, green and yellow.

Mrs. Luttrell was presented an orchid, a gift of Mrs. Earl Soward.

Tarina Campbell Notes Birthday

For her 2nd birthday on St. Patrick's Day, Tarina Campbell had a BIG birthday cake that was one foot high and weighed 15 lbs! The four layer cake was decorated with large-sized animal cookie cutouts fastened to the side of the cake as though they were Merry-Go-Round figures on peppermint stick poles.

Tarina is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Dennis Campbell. Mrs. Campbell recently completed a course in cake decorating. She says, "I just got carried away and couldn't stop."

Guests were Kim and Cam George and their mother, Mrs. Kit George, Mr. and Mrs. Ron Britner and Teddy and her cousins Melissa and Jeanine Martin of Moro.

Mr. and Mrs. Larry Martin, the girls' parents, went to Pendleton to attend the state FFA convention. Mr. Martin is the FFA advisor at Moro. A member of his chapter was elected state FFA president.

THE MOUNTAIN of sand and gravel taken from the Pit of the Bombing Range Rd. will be used for the black top on the new road past the bombing range.

DOTS JOTS

We've had look-alikes, sound-a-likes and now we have name-a-likes, Dennis and Ann Toney and Dennis and Ann Doherty!

Many people mention the remarkable snow picture hanging in the Gazette-Times as well as in various other offices around town. It was taken in 1929 by Mr. Sigbee, Elaine George's father.

The kind of photographer who has long vanished. This one had to be taken by one of those sweeping camera and is remarkable in depth of field and clarity. Hazel Bauman told us that the man on the left of the picture is Clarence Hesseltine. He will be remembered by many old timers. He washed dishes for years for Eddie Chinn. He was a graduate of Whitman College and was a World War I an.

Rhea Creek Women Meet

Rhea Creek Grange Committee of Women's Activity met at the home of Mrs. Leonard Rill on Mar. 16th. A delicious luncheon was enjoyed by 18 ladies of the grange and 7 guests. Chairman, Mildred Wright passed sewing contest entry blanks for the Grange sewing contest. It is hoped there will be at least seven entries. It was voted at the last meeting do some work on the kitchen and hall before Pomona Grange in April, but so far no one has volunteered for the job. Mrs. Emma Drake and Mrs. Edwin Cutting reported for the Hospital Sewing Committee that coverlets for cribs had been completed.

Plans were made for a pancake supper, card party, and bingo for the public, at the Grange Hall on April 8th. Mrs. Dorris Graves, Mrs. Harold Wright, Mrs. Don Malory are in charge of entertainment and Mrs. Walter Wright of the supper. Money raised from this will be contributed to The Red Cross, Cancer, Easter Seals, March of Dimes and others.

Mrs. Robert Stevens will be hostess at her home for the April meeting.

Nonda Directs Study Courses

Mrs. Hal (Nonda) Sunday, the former Nonda Clark, is the local RISE Extension Agent at McMinville. A 6-week study course was just completed there by 20 Yamhill County women who are welfare recipients and desire personal improvement through work training and employment.

Their greatly varied course included a daily 5-hour course taking part in low cost food demonstrations, learning hair style and fashion, talking about behavior. They heard William J. Price, psychiatric social worker, discuss "non-verbal communication". The following three weeks involved menu planning with basic foods, choosing fabrics and patterns for dresses (each lady made her own dress) and learning where service and help are available. They heard experts talk on careers, job and family planning, defensive driving, how to fill out a job application. Final two weeks of the program involves an actual work experience. Various work experiences were in a number of places there. Mrs. Sunday is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Barton Clark.

Friends Honor Kristine Peterson

Kristine Peterson, bride elect of Dick Linder, Herminston, was honored at a lingerie shower on Mar. 22 at the home of the Lewis Carlsons. Sandra Carlson and Carlie Bergstrom were hostesses for the party attended by classmates and friends. Green decorations accented the personal shower in which Miss Bergstrom, Debbie Warren, and Kristin Nelson were game winners. Other friends present for the occasion were Cheri Carlson, Shauna Bergstrom, and Maureen McElligott. Those who sent gifts to the honored guest were Michelle Miller, Marianne Pettijohn, Molly Becket, Sue Jepsen, and Linda Pettijohn Wright.

WCS MEETING

The "New Technology and New Humanity" study will be completed by Rev. Ed Cutting at the regular WCS meeting April 5 at 7:30 p.m. at the United Methodist Church. Mrs. Cutting is hostess for the evening.

Bill Johnsons Note Their 25th

Quite a number of friends went to The Dalles Sunday to attend the 25th Wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Bill Johnson formerly of Heppner. The party was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Garth Bonney. Mrs. Bonney is a co-worker with Mrs. Johnson. Also assisting were employees from Mr. Johnson's office.

Lone Auction Is June 3

Lindsay Kincaid has agreed to be chairman of the annual Auction and Barbecue at Ione. He suggests that people remember the auction as they are sorting, gathering, making, saving. The committee will be meeting regularly to make plans for the day of fun and food.

John Currin and Dianna Wright Marry

Dianna Jeannine Wright became the bride of John Hugh Currin March 25 at the First Christian Church in Heppner. The double ring ceremony was performed by the Rev. Don Johnson. Mrs. Johnson was the organist.

The young couple chose to be married at an informal ceremony attended by their families and close friends. The bride chose a white polyester dress with long sleeves. Her accessories were bright blue. Her bouquet was of white mums and blue carnations.

Jill Scott was the bride's only attendant. She wore a blue polyester and carried a nosegay of yellow daisies. Melvin Ashbeck was bestman. The bride's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Albert Wright of Heppner and the bridegroom's father is Robert Currin also of Heppner.

A reception was held at the ranch home of the bride's parents. After a wedding trip to Canada, the couple will be living in Pendleton where John will finish his year at BMCC. Dianna was a student at Heppner High School.
