CARD OF THANKS

We are stunned by the fire in our nearly completed house. The valiant work of so many of you in fighting the fire and removing equipment is so deeply appreciated. The good condition of items removed from the house is evidence of your care. We marvel in your removal of the truck for we had taken the keys.
 To those who manned the fire truck so effectively—Lee Padberg, Edward Baker, Joe Yocum, Simon Winters, Butch Laughlin, Bud Wilson, Martin Potter, Don Strober, Mike Bunch, and to Lyle Cox and Joe Engleman who cared for the MCGG store while their fellow employees manned the truck.
 To Bob Reavis and Bert Roark who aided and "stayed by" for hours, just in case there might be a need.
 To Mr. and Mrs. Roy Campbell and Rev. and Mrs. Earl Soward for the delicious dinner and to the Roy Campbells for our "Home away from home."
 To all those who came by to carry and lift, and others who came by to express their sorrow, you are such a comfort to us. God bless you richly.
 Mrs. Clifford Reed (Roberta)
 Mrs. Frank Ritchey (Effie)
