Royal Shower Given Michelle

Morrow County Fair Queen Michelle Miller was given a royal shower on Fri. April 22, at St. Patrick's Parish Hall. The party was arranged by Princess Dovie Alderman and her mother Mrs. Archie Alderman and by Princess Jan Schlichting and her mother M's. Dick Schlichting.

A large group attended and many who were unable to attend sent gifts. The color theme chosen by Michelle is green and yellow, and the decorations for the party followed this theme.

Princess Jeanne Daly served coffee, Princess Jan served the cake and Princess Dovie served the punch. The fourth member of Michelle's court, Princess Jeri Snow who is away at college, was unable to attend this royal assemblage.

Biology Students Visit Coast

Sixteen exhausted biology enthusiasts returned home, April 16, after spending four active and interesting days on the 1972 Coast trip. The group comprised of 13 Heppner High School students, Steve Brownfield, Biology instructor, Mona Marshall and Mr. and Mrs. O. W. Cutsforth, left Heppner early Thurs. morning. Traveling through central Oregon and Eugene, the group arrived at Cape Perpetua late in the afternoon. After exploring the beach and rocks for a short while, camp was set up in Neptune State Park, not then opened for the camping season.

Park officials visited the camp the following morning and opened the park for future visitors.

Friday found the group sitting at the edge of Devil's Churn, romping up beaches, and a two hour search for the proposed campsite. De-

Plaza Suite's 3 act play dated for May 4.5

"Plaza Suite," a play in three acts by Neil Simon, will be presented by the Drama Workshop Class, May 4 and 5 at 8:00 p.m. in the HHS Cafeterium.

Director Donald McKay has cast students from the class for this comedy, which involves three different situations that occur in a suite of the Plaza Hotel.

Characters for act one are Linda Clough and Dave Eekman as Mr. and Mrs. Nash, and Janet Gentry as Mr. Nash's beautiful secretary. David Schwarzin will play the bellhop, and Ed Strahm will portray the waiter.

Act two will feature Mary Abrams as Muriel Tate, a married woman who goes to see Jessie Kiplinger, a movie producer, who will be portrayed by Jim Cutsforth. Bob Ployhar will act as the waiter.

Jim Speer and Lynda Baker will appear as Mr. and Mrs. Hubley in act three. Marie Van Marter will play their daughter, and Butch Taylor will act as Bordon Eisler, her boyfriend.
