

FRIENDS arrived Saturday evening for a housewarming and potluck picnic in the patio gazebo of Dan & Barbara James on Baltimore Street. Outdoor grilled hamburgers and chicken with B-B-Que sauce and other delightful foods were lopped off by the Marshalls' home made ice cream. The James' enjoyed opening a number of gifts from their friends.

It's a girl

Mr. and Mrs. Burke Gentry of Heppner are the parents of their first child, a daughter born April 30 at Hermiston. She weighed 6 pounds and 5 ozs. She has been named Dawna Waynette. Grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Larry Gentry of Heppner and Mr. and Mrs. Ray Brit of Spray. Great grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. John Hopper of Heppner and Mrs. Myrtle Barkloo of Sherwood.

Patricia Collins marries in Washington

Mr. and Mrs. William C. Collins and Lisa of Heppner went to Soap Lake for the marriage of their daughter Patricia to Donald L. Ralston. The vows were read April 22 by the Rev. Skov at the Epirata Our Savior Lutheran Church. The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Donald W. Ralston of Missoula, Mont. The church was decorated with pink and white roses and carnations. Patricia, given in marriage by her father, wore a silk shantung with lace sleeves and full length tulle veil held with a bow of lace. She carried a bouquet of pink rosebuds and white carnations. Jeanne Collins was the bride's attendant. She wore a floor length pale pink crepe dress with chiffon sleeves. Her bouquet was of pink rosebuds. Leonard Owen attended the bridegroom and Dean Hergert was usher. The reception followed in the church social room. Assisting at the reception were Judy Gardner, Judith Tottleben, (Patricia's sister) Lori Ralston (Don's sister). Lisa

Collins arranged the gift table and Loe Ralston had the guest book. For going away, Patricia chose a white double knit slack outfit trimmed with black floral design and black accessories. The young couple will be at home in Soap Lake where they both are teaching. The bridegroom graduated from the University of Idaho and has taught at Soap Lake for two years. His bride graduated from EOC and has taught at Soap Lake Junior and Senior High for three years.

Memorial Fund Set up for Mark

Because there have been many inquiries about a memorial for Mark Blakney who died April 29 at Prosser. Contributions may be sent to the Sacred Heart Memorial Fund care of his parents Mr. and Mrs. Phil Blakney, Prosser. The money will be used to purchase a statue of the Madonna for the church there. This purchase was an unrealized goal of Mark's youth group.

Women to Tour North County Monday

A women's tour of North Morrow County, Monday, May 15, sponsored by the homemakers Advisory Committee is open to all interested in the many developments and growth in the area.

Tour will start from Boardman City Hall at 10 a.m. The Wildlife Refuge and near by areas will be toured during the morning. Boeing developments will be scheduled for the afternoon.

Anyone wishing to join the group at noon for the tour of the Boeing development only, may do so.

The tour will be in lieu of the two county program development meeting. Umatilla County Advisory Committee members have been invited to join the Morrow County women, as have all other Umatilla county women who are interested in developments occurring in the area.

Guides will be Harold Kerr, Morrow County Extension Agent and Denver Grigsby project manager of Boeing.

DOUG HOLT, 18, of Oregon city has enlisted in the U.S. Navy Reserve and will enter active service Sept. 4, 1972 to attend Nuclear Technicians school. Upon high school graduation this spring, he will receive boot training.

Doug is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Jack C. Holt and the grandson of Mrs. C. J. D. Bauman of Heppner.

Local Artists Exhibiting

A group of Morrow County artists is displaying work in Walla Walla and in Pendleton. A collection of their paintings will hang at the Mill Creek Art Gallery, 39 E. Main, in Walla Walla during May and June. Another collection will be at the Equitable Savings office in Pendleton during May.

Artist whose paintings exhibiting are: Rachel Dick, Shirley McNary, Judy Laughlin, Linda Dunlap, Linda Prock, Fred Nelson, Betty Brown, Lucille Peck, Inetia Cantin, Daisy Lyston, and Betty Bunch.

Rhea Creek Is Host Tomorrow

Rhea Creek Grange will be host to all Grangers for Visitation Night Friday, May 12, beginning with a pot-luck supper at 6:30 p.m. Lexington will furnish dessert for the supper. The Rhea Creek degree team will put on the 5th Degree and Boardman Grange will present the tableaux. Any Grange wishing to bring candidates is welcome to do so. There is a contest on between the Granges to see which Grange can have the most members out to visitation nights, with a gift to the Grange with the most at the close of the year. It is hoped that everyone will come and make it a real good contest.

We The Women

Ministers Honor The Mensches

South Morrow County Ministerial Association met May 3 at the United Methodist Church. The meeting was also attended by the ministers' wives as the group was honoring Rev. and Mrs. Rudolph Mensch who will be leaving the community at the end of May to reside in Chiliwack, British Columbia. They were presented with a gift. Rev. Mensch is retiring.

A BOOTH at the County Fair in August was discussed and is being planned. A SWIMMING PARTY for high school youth (7th through 12th grades) was set for June 8 at Lehman Springs. If enough young people want to go to fill the Assembly of God Church bus it will be used; if not, they will travel in autos. They plan to leave town at 10:00 a.m. and to return in the evening. Further information will be sent to each church later.

Dear Friends: I am writing in regard to the Nursing Home. I have been here 6 years and I have never been mistreated in any way and I love it here. The first night I was here it seemed as if all the troubles with keeping house dropped from my shoulders and the fact I did not have to cook any more meals; I tell you I went to sleep and slept like a baby, and I have never regretted a day since. The home is kept so clean. And when you need anything the Nurses and Aides are right there. I am so happy in here and may God bless each one. Sincerely, Mrs. Leona Smallwood

1972-73 OFFICERS FOR the Women's Fellowship of the Ione United Church of Christ were selected at the April 27 meeting. Mrs. William Arthur will lead as chairman, with Mrs. Alfred Nelson as vice-chairman, and Mrs. Vera Rietmann secretary-treasurer. Mrs. Fred Martin will be in charge of worship and program and Mrs. Darrel Wilson will be witness. The members sorted and boxed clothing for the Eastern Oregon Hospital and Training Center, Pendleton, and for the Heppner Neighborhood Center.

HOSPITAL NEWS

Snoda Blake and Avon Melby, both of Heppner are receiving medical care at Pioneer Memorial Hospital.

Visits

Mr. and Mrs. Dan Nash and Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Springer, Hood River, were visitors at the Lincoln Nash home recently. Dan Nash is Lin's brother and Mrs. Springer is their sister.

Mr. and Mrs. Dan Nash returned home Sunday evening, but Mr. and Mrs. Springer went to the home of their son and daughter-in-law the Bud Springers for overnight. Monday they rode back to Hood River with their granddaughter Ginger Springer, Salem, who also visited her parents last weekend.

Lincoln Nash came home Saturday after undergoing major surgery on Monday at St. Anthony's Hospital in Pendleton. He seems to be recovering nicely but is still pretty weak.

It was reported that Ida Lee Engelman has undergone major surgery last week at St. Anthony's Hospital in Pendleton.

Style Show, Tea Next Thursday

Judy Lindahl, Simplicity Stylist will present a style show at the Annex, Fairgrounds, Heppner, May 18, at 1:30 p.m. All women are invited to attend. Garments will be modeled by Extension women and children, and 4-H'ers. It's always fun to see the new styles modeled, and look over sewing techniques used by the pattern company in clothing construction.

Extension Homemakers Advisory Committee is sponsoring the event and will be serving refreshments.

HEPPNER GARDEN CLUB is meeting on Monday at the home of Dr. and Mrs. Wolff for the installation of officers and a program on gladiolas. This program was rescheduled from May 8.

SARA MILLER of Heppner was tapped for Murta Board, senior women's honorary. Event was during the University of Oregon Parents Weekend.

MR. & MRS. C.J.D. BAUMAN went to Eugene last month where Clarence attended the Veteran's Service Officers meeting in Salem.

En route, they visited her son, and family, Mr. and Mrs. Jack C. Holt in Oregon City and while in Eugene, visited Carl Bauman who attends the University of Oregon.

WCS Annual Sale Coming May 20

The Annual Lawn Sale of the Womens Society of Christian Service of the Heppner Methodist Church will feature some special goods on Saturday, May 20. Besides the tables of miscellaneous bargains, the women will sell baked goods in the church basement. Lunches will be served during the noon hour with choices of sandwiches, salads, desserts and drinks. Interesting items already on hand for the sale include a collection of depression glass, an antique three-piece silver tea set, a 35 m.m. camera in case, pictures, vases, as well as many bazaar-type items. Some of these special items will be on display in the window next door to Farra's Shoe Service during the next 10 days.

The income from this annual sale goes to the society's missionary pledge and to special projects for the local church.
