DOT'S JOTS

Who should win the door prize of five sheep skinsrip donated by the Heppner Merchants committee at the Pioneer Memorial Picnic but our long-time friend Irene Tucker Atherton. We first knew her at the old Normal School in La Grande. Later taught together in Ontario. She had a first grade and I had a second until Charlie and I were married.

She stopped by to see me Tuesday and we had a coke visit. It was really wonderful to see her. She grew up in Heppner and has lots of relatives around so we should get to see her again next Memorial Day.

Met Eric Johnson at the Monday Chamber of Commerce meeting. He is filling in as assistant manager of the Columbia Basin Cooperative. Went up to his office to get his picture.

On my way back I stopped at Bill's new Laundrymat to get some pictures. Got a picture of a woman I didn't know putting clothes in the washer. None other than Mrs. Eric Johnson. They have moved their mobile home in on Elaine George's lot for an instant-home. A good thing because they would have had a struggle to find something to live in here in Heppner.

MEMORIAL DAY weekend guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Verlin Mathews were Mr. and Mrs. Harlan Gentry, Scott and Steve from Vancouver, Wa., Mr. and Mrs. Robert E. Nichols, Mark and Sheri of Lake Oswego, Mr. and Mrs. Bill McLeod of Pendleton and Mr. and Mrs. Jim Greiner of La Grande.

Mayor Dewey W. West Jr. was in the Hawaiian Islands last week vacationing with his father, Dewey W. West of Woodburn.

Jerry Rietmann has b'day weiner roast
