Girls enjoy Slumber Party

A slumber party was held June 1 at the Donald Robinson ranch. Hosted by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Robinson, Kryn Robinson entertained overnight guests as a fitting climax to the end of the school year. The girls participated in a treasure hunt, games, quizzes and listened to records; interspersed by a Weiner and marshmallow roast, pauses for cookies and ice cream, and ending in a sleepless night for all. A buffet breakfast was enjoyed at 9:00 the next morning before the girls returned home.

Those present for the affair were Pam Cantin, Cindy Dougherty, Lynne Gochmeyer, Janice Healy, Dee Hedman, Laurie Malcom, Sheree Marquardt, Susan McConnell, Cathy Palmer, Sally Sumner, Shelly Thompson, Lori Turner and Joan Warren. Also present for the evening besides the Robinson family was Debbie Yocom, who assisted in the food preparation and games.

Lori Dunlap walked off with more than her share of honors at the Junior High Awards assembly last Thursday. Her letter is in track where she entered the discus, the shot put, high jump, and hurdles. Certificate of Award for Pep Club treasurer. $25 bond from the Soroptimist Club for outstanding 8th grade student and $10 check from the Heppner American Legion Auxiliary for 1st place in the Americanism Essay Contest. She will be a freshman at Heppner High School next year. This summer she will attend a Gymnastic Clinic in Portland. She is the daughter of Lynda Dunlap and she has a brother Dyrk, Junior next fall.

LUCY HUBER is home for the summer with her folks, Dr. and Mrs. H.S. Huber. She attends Laurelwood Academy in Portland. She will be a Junior next year. She is helping out at her Dad's office until Grace Buschke is able to be back full time.

Centennial Art Show Voted Huge Success

The Art Show held in conjunction with the Pioneer Memorial Picnic was the Centennial effort of local artists. It was so admired that they hope to make it an annual affair and next year make it county-wide.

The parade of 70 paintings lined the fair pavilion on all four walls. Dr. Margaret McDevitt came over from Pendleton Friday to help hang the paintings. Betty Bunch showed the Woolery House in Ione, Betty Brown the Court House picture that hangs in the Mahoney & Abrams office, Kristen Nelson the old round barn, Norman Nelson a picture painted from an authentic old picture of himself, his brother Fred and his sister Ellen in a little red buggy in front of the Nelson ranch home; Del Piper a grizzled old miner, Pauline Matheny portrait of an Indian Chief and Nellie Anderson a bouquet of old fashioned flowers, to name a few.

Pete and Mary McMurtry had on display an original painting of Celilo Falls done by a Portland artist in water colors.

Artists were Fred Nelson Ed Cutting, Craig Cutting, Camilla Samples, Linda Prock, Betty Brown, Betty Bunch, Juanita Cogburn, Alma Green, Claudine Warren, Tom Bristow, Shirley McNary, Ardith Hunt, Nellie Anderson, Kristin Nelson, Del Piper, Pauline Matheny, Mary Bryant, Lucille Peck and Rachel Dick.

The young couple left for a few days camping at a lake in Central Oregon.

MR. & MRS. JIM DRISCOLL camped and traveled through southern Oregon and northern Calif. on a recent two weeks vacation. Snow was piled 12 feet high on either side of the road as they went through Mt. Lassen Park. They stopped at Unity Lake on their way home and caught some beautiful trout.
