Girls State...Boys State

JUNE-the month of graduation, weddings and GIRLS STATE! Each is the beginning of a new way of life for a girl. The first is a transition from the shelter of home and school to the cruel, cold world outside, the second, a change from a "me"-centered world to a "we" centered one; and GIRLS STATE is a change in a whole way of thinking about government! A change from "why don't THEY do something about..." thinking to "what can I do about"thinking. A change from politics and government as a bore to politics and government as an exciting and vital part of living in America.

This year the experience in government gained at Girls State is especially important because the lowered voting age brings active participation much nearer. Some girls may already be eighteen, most will be by next year. These young people are going to be influencing the lives of everyone in our country with their votes in the very near future. So the ways that needed changes can be brought about within the framework of our form of government and our political system becomes very important for young people to learn.

This is why so many people have given so much time and energy to making the Girls State program a success. The Unit chairmen and Girls State committees have worked hard raising money, contacting contributing sponsors, contacting schools, interviewing candidates and selecting the best ones and finally filling out their reports.

A dedicated staff of American Legion Auxiliary members along with several government officials put in a week of concentrated effort to bring about this change in the lives of the Girls State Citizens last week on the Willamette

Congratulations to the 1972 Girls Staters, Lou Ann Kelly and Tami Meador, Congratulations to the 1972 Boy Staters who had a similar program on the Oregon State Campus: Bill Jepsen, Greg Green, Allen McCabe, Dale Hedman, Jim Cutsforth.

HAZARDS OF SPRING & SUMMER

With the coming of spring and summer come traveling salesmen-some of them dishonest. Never a year goes by but what homeowners somewhere are "taken in" by shady operators who talk them into home "improvements" that fail to improve anything except the salesman's financial Beware of these frequently used introductions: The offer of a "free" inspection of your roof; "We'll use your home as a model and give you a big break on the price;" or "Congratulations! You have just won ...

If you are approached by strangers with such phrases, do some serious checking before you sign a contract or pay the salesman any money. Take a few days to get estimates for the job from established local firms or workmen you know are reliable.

ETTERS TO THE EDITOR

eastern Oregon have chosen George McGovern to lead their party. In doing so, they have said to the nation that they want a man in the White House who will speak out for the man on the street, rather than for corporate executives or big city bankers. They have said that they want a president they can trust.

I would like to thank the Democratic voters of the Heppner area for electing me as one of the two delegates to the Democratic National Convention in Miami next month. I intend to work particularly hard for a platform plank that guarantees a fair break for the small farmers and ranchers as well as for an equitable tax system that places the burden on those with the most money, not the average wage earner.

The Democratic party is more open today than has been any other political party in the history of America .. Every Democrat should have a voice in the drawing up of the party platform. I would like very much to hear what the residents of the Heppner area believe the Democratic party platform should address itself to, and I hope that the people reading this letter will make their views known to me before the Democratic National Convention convenes July 10. I will do my best to make sure that the feelings of Eastern Oregonians are heard in Miami.

As a young Democrat, 1 am particularly honored to have been chosen as a delegate. However, as the costs

57 YEARS AGO ... 1915 As has been the custom for several years for former Heppner citizens now residing in Portland to hold an annual picnic, so again this year will those people come together in Columbia Park on July 5. The annual school meeting was held at the Council chambers in Heppner on Monday afternoon, and was remarkable for its tameness. There was no opposition ticket in the field, hence nothing to arouse the interest of the voters. It has been practically settled that Heppner Lodge No. 69, A.F. & A.M. will erect a new temple on their lot at the corner of Main and Willow Streets, and that the work on the same will not be long delayed.

Relatively low prices for wheat, as compared with prices last fall and winter, are due to a scarcity of ships, high ocean freight rates, and to the dilatory policy of European buyers in placing their orders.

Episcopal replacement here Sunday

The Rev. Bob Herlocker from the Church of St. Mary the Virgin in Winnimucca, Nevada will arrive in Heppner June 24. He will attend church with his family on Sunday at All Saints Episcopal. Mr. Herlocker will meet with the people of the church at coffee following the services and with the search committee and the Vestry later. Chamber favors Cal's permit

The Chamber of Commerce endorsed the recommendation of the Development Committee and favored the granting of a liquor permit for Cal's Lounge at their Monday meeting. The representatives of Cal's Cafe and Lounge will take this recommendation of the Heppner Chamber of Commerce when they next appear before the Oregon Liquor Control Commission. Monday's appearance of the Morrow County Fair and Rodeo Court was the start of another busy week for the girls. Queen Susie was introduced by vice president LeRoy Gardner as a princess from the 1970 Court and the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond French, the Lena area. They were to be guests at luncheon of the Pendleton Chamber of Commerce on Wednesday, be on the radio that same day and take a tour of the town which was to include the Woolen Mills. On Saturday they will go to LaGrande for the Blue Mountain Rodeo but would return to Heppner in time for the Court Barbeque and crowning ceremony before the opening Kickoff Dance. Queen Susie introduced the two chaperones, Mrs. Bob Peterson and Mrs. Clista Venard and each member of her court who spoke.
