WEDDING SOON

The wedding of Bob Buchanan and Georgia Hinton will be solemnized Saturday, July 22, at 2:30 p.m. at the Boardman Community Church, reception to follow at the Riverside High School commons. Friends are invited.

Men from India to return

The three men from India who visited Morrow County earlier this spring found the hospitality of Morrow County people so pleasant that they gave a return visit during harvest top priority. They will arrive for the return visit July 18 and are bringing a friend, according to Birdine Tullis, Extension Aide.

All four men are Extension Service personnel in India, studying at OSU. Their interests are along practical lines, cultural techniques, harvesting techniques, weed and pest control methods, local agribusinesses, and the American family life. They are especially interested in the new irrigation developments in Morrow County.

Host families for their visit are: Mr. S. Balagurnathan, the Bob Jepsen family; Mr. V. Sonalwar and P. Swamy, the Rober Kroll - D.O. Nelson farm; Mr. Dharmendra Rao, the John Jepsen home. Morrow County groups or individuals interested in meeting the four men should contact Birdine, Extension Office, Heppner, phone 676-9642.

THE DEGREE OF HONOR Protective Association met July 11 at the E.E. Gonty home with a total of 22 attending. A barbecue and potluck dinner was enjoyed by the group. Highlight of the evening was a "Happy Birthday" wish to Mary Bryant, Oma Cox baked the cake. A short business meeting followed the celebration.

Members of the Carnation Club met at Mrs. Carl King's home July 18. Plans for the fair booth were discussed.

AUSTIN SMITH, who now lives in Portland, was in Heppner last week visiting his mother, Letta Archer. During his high school years, Mr. Smith worked for the Gazette-Times when the Crawfords ran the newspaper. He remembers working on the high school annual in the back office of the G-T, and he said it turned out real well during those years. He also worked in the office of the Heppner Herald before his graduation from Heppner High School in 1925.

Mr. Smith married the former Esta Miller, The Dalles, and they now live in Portland. He worked for Safeway for many years. He and Mrs. Don Robinson are cousins.

She is also active in her church.

ALL KINDS OF RACES occupied the small fry to grandparents. What else but potato sacks were used by the Sack Racers.

Job Corps Opportunities

SALEM — (Special)—More than 500 Job Corps slots have been made available to youths age 16 to 22 who need further training to be available for job opportunities, according to State Employment Division Administrator Ross Morgan. "Most assignments will be to the Angell Conservation Center at Yachats, now exclusively assigned to Oregon residents," he said. New opportunities for training in skilled trades are available. Those who qualify will be paid while preparing for such fields as auto mechanics, building maintenance, carpentry, painting, food service, welding and heavy equipment operation.

Courses will range in length from four months to two years, average stay being from six to seven months. Trainees earn $30 to $50 per month and an additional $50 per month is held in trust for them as a readjustment allowance. Other benefits include full board and lodging, clothing, medical and dental services. Full athletic programs and recreational facilities are available at all Job Corps Centers. Basic and remedial education is programmed, on an individual basis, to the trainees own pace.

Interested Young men should contact their local State Employment Office for more information. LOCALS — Howard Keithley was at St. Anthony's Hospital in Pendleton Monday for some X-Rays and tests.

Mr. and Mrs. Ronald Reid of LaGrande, and their son Robbie, were Sunday visitors at his mother's home, Mrs. Ruth Reid.

Mrs. Joe Carr was a patient at Good Shepherd Hospital in Hermiston July 5 to 13 where she underwent surgery. She is home and recuperating now.

Navy grazing land for lease

The Department of the Navy invites bids for the lease of land for grazing purposes at the Boardman Bombing Range, Morrow County.

Bids are solicited for the lease of 14,340 acres in the south portion of the range. Grazing of either cattle or sheep will normally be limited during each year for the period 1 October through 30 April. The lease term will begin on 1 October 1972 and end on 30 June 1973, with Lessee's right of renewal annually for four additional one-year periods. The general public is invited to bid.

Sealed bids will be opened at 3:30 p.m., PDT, 17 August 1972, in Building 206, Western Division, Naval Facilities Engineering Command, San Bruno, California 94066. Bid forms and other information may be obtained from that office or from the Public Works Office, Naval Air Station, Whidbey Island, Oak Harbor, Washington 98277 (Phone (206) 257-2211, extension 4348) and from Seattle Branch, Western Division, Naval Facilities Engineering Command, 7500 Sand Point Way NE, Building 5B, Seattle, Washington 98115 (Phone (206) 527-3285).

GONTYS MEET AT YAKIMA Mr. and Mrs. Ed Gonty met the Ray Gonty family at Yakima Sunday. Ray took them all out for a delayed Anniversary dinner. The Ed Gontys had been married 36 years on July 4th. The four Gonty children, Ramona, Russell, Robert and Rick, returned to Heppner for a visit with the grandparents. Robert and Rick planned to go on over to visit cousins at Ukiah later this week.

Mrs. Ullman visits

Mrs. Anita Ullman of Washington DC is in Eastern Oregon for six weeks this summer. She has been visiting family and friends in Baker, Ontario and Burns. She is staying most of the summer with her mother, Mrs. Grace Curtman in Baker.

She was in Heppner last week the guest of Mrs. Amanda Duval. A few friends dropped in to see Mrs. Ullman on Wednesday.

Her son, Wayne Ullman, arrived home from Austria this summer. He spent his Sophomore year at Stanford University in Vienna, Austria. He'll be at Palo Alto this fall for his Junior year.

Mrs. Ullman is active in Washington DC as she is a member of the National Board of the Salvation Army. She also works on the two big benefit projects. One is a garden party for 3000 people to raise money for summer camp for children of Washington DC depressed families and on a Fashion Show in September to provide toys for them at Christmas.

She is also active in her church.
