

Engagements Announced

DONNA BRADLEY

Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Piper of Hermiston, formerly of Heppner, announce the engagement of their daughter, Donna Bradley, to Gary Ball, son of Mr. and Mrs. Leon Ball, Heppner.

Miss Bradley is a 1972 graduate of Heppner High School.

No date has been set for the wedding.

CINDY EKSTROM

All family and friends are cordially invited to attend the wedding of Cindy Ekstrom and Bill Greenup July 29 at 2:00 p.m. in St. Patrick's Catholic Church, Heppner. Cindy is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Herb Ekstrom, Jr., Ione, and Mr. Greenup is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Don Greenup, Heppner.

Cindy will be a senior at Pendleton High School in the fall. Mr. Greenup is a 1970 graduate of Heppner High School and attends Blue Mt. Community College.

CATHY CANNON

Mr. and Mrs. Pete Cannon of Ione, announce the engagement of their daughter Cathleen Ann to Frank Dee Halvorsen, son of Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Halvorsen of Ione.

Miss Cannon is a 1972 graduate of Ione High School. Mr. Halvorsen has attended Blue Mountain Community College and Eastern Oregon College and is presently ranching in Ione.

A September 17 wedding is being planned.

AAUW names temporary officers

The first steps toward forming an American Association of University Women branch in Heppner were taken at a meeting on July 10. Donna Talus, state membership chairman, and Judy Harwagon, president of the John Day branch of AAUW, met with a small group of interested women to discuss the purposes of AAUW and to outline the procedure for setting up a new branch.

Mrs. Talus explained that AAUW, which is open to any woman with a bachelor's degree from an accredited college, offers women a unique opportunity to study current problems and issues and to become actively involved in community affairs. She noted that fifteen members are necessary for establishing a new branch.

Following Mrs. Talus' presentation, the group elected temporary officers. Mrs.

Richard Curtis, Mrs. Bill Lande, Mrs. Dennis Martin and set September 12 as the date for a membership meeting, at a time and place to be announced later.

Any woman interested in learning more about AAUW is urged to contact Mary Pat Lande at 676-9752 for further information.

ALASKA VISIT

Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Irby visited in Ketchikan, Alaska from July 1 to 15 with Mr. and Mrs. B.F. Kwallek and family, Kris and Betsy. Mrs. Kwallek is their daughter and the plane tickets were a gift from the Kwalleks to the Irbys.

The group enjoyed deep sea fishing and Elvira caught a shark. They also had a good time flying in a sea plane into the back country to a lake for good fishing.

Court continues Busy Summer

The 1972 Morrow County Fair and Rodeo Court, their mothers and chaperones, will be guests at the Soroptimist Luncheon Thursday, (today). This weekend they will be in Elgin for the parade on Sunday, and the rodeo Grand Entries.

The court will be in Joseph for Chief Joseph Days July 28, 29 and 30. They will ride in the Grand Entry Friday night and Saturday afternoon, and in the Saturday morning parade.

Parents of the court will attend the activities at Elgin and Joseph and some of the Pennant Bearers will also be traveling to Joseph.

Likes Drum & Bugle Music

Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Hollomon, Kaedene and Darcy were in Pendleton Sunday to attend the Rangers Round-up Arama. Seventeen Drum and Bugle Corps performed before a large crowd. The 5:30 to 11:30 program had for its Grand Finale, the assembly of 1400 musicians which was a combination of all the groups. It was most colorful and loud according to Kaedene Hollomon. Lights and flags added to the performance.

Mr. and Mrs. Bob DeSpain also went over for the program. Bob said, "It was fantastic. The music and the precision was great".

Oregon entrées came from Salem, West Linn, Pendleton, Portland, Astoria. Other entrées came from Edmonton, Alberta, Canada; Seattle, Spokane, Sunnyvale, Ca.; Santa Ana, Ca.; Tri-Cities, Wa.; Carson, Ca.; and Vancouver-Portland. Paraphenelia owned by the marching groups totaled more than one-half million.

Playing with the Rangers were Jim & Andy Myers of Hermiston formerly of Heppner when their father owned Phil's Pharmacy.

Reunion

A WARM SUMMER DAY at Anson Wright Park was the setting for the annual McDaniel Family Reunion July 16. About 40 people attended the gathering; not as many as in the past years, but still a good turnout. Local people were in good attendance.

Mrs. Gladys Corrigan, Portland and Mr. and Mrs. Aaron Stubbsfield and children of Walla Walla traveled the farthest.

The reunion is held on the third Sunday of July each year.

Henry Gorgers honored on 50th Wedding Anniversary

Henry Gorgers Honored on 50th Wedding Anniversary with wife

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Gorgers were recently honored at a beautiful reception on their 50th wedding anniversary, hosted by their children, Mr. and Mrs. David Baker of Ione; Mr. and Mrs. Dale Bennett of Pilot Rock; and a daughter-in-law, Mrs. Pauline Gorgers of Portland. Unable to attend was their son, Bill, who telephoned his greetings from Hawaii. The reception was held in the Parish Hall of St. Mary's Catholic Church.

Chairman for the reception was Mrs. Leo Gorgers, sister-in-law of the couple. Golden chrysanthemums and gladioli with gold ribbons were used about the room, with an especially lovely arrangement on the gift table. A three-tiered white cake with gold lettering and gold accents was displayed.

The honorees received guests, seated in a pair of antique heirloom rocking chairs. Mrs. Gorgers wore a light blue, two piece peau de soie gown, with matching blue jewelry, and a white orchid, a present from her husband. Centering individual tables around the room were bud vases with rose buds from Mr. Gorgers' garden. He is considered an expert in rose culture.

Serving cake were a niece, Mrs. Ken Forsythe of Portland and a granddaughter, Mrs. Jerry Kindrick from The Dalles; at the coffee urns were Mrs. Leonard Herbes and Miss Gwendolyn Ramey; serving punch were granddaughters, Miss Debra and Miss Shirley Baker; at the gift table were grandsons, Tim Bennett, Pilot Rock, Robert Baker of Ione and Steven Gorgers of Portland; and at the guest book were granddaughters, Teresa and Tomi Bennett.

Many friends and relatives attended from the Ione area, and the honored couple received many lovely gifts and congratulations from those unable to attend. Their children's special gift was a chest of gold table ware, which was most appreciated.

Tanya Tucker graduates

Tanya Tucker graduated from BMCC Practical Nurse course. Capping ceremony was held Sunday at the College for 17 students. Tanya is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Eldon Tucker of Ione. Dr. Harcourt gave the address.

Going over for the ceremony were the Eldon Tucker family, Mrs. Tom White and Sabrina and Mrs. Cleo Drake, all of Ione.

to leave the penitentiary. It is a stepping stone to prepare them to live "on the outside". She is a supervisor and counselor. She graduated in June with a degree in Humanities and Sociology.

She called her mother Sunday to tell her to watch TV as the program was featuring Halfway House and some of the girls living there.

Tolars Have No.3

Mr. and Mrs. Mick Tolar of Irrigon recently welcomed their third child, a son born May 31. He has been named Aaron Jon Tolar. He has a brother Patrick nearly 4 and a sister Megan nearly 2. Mr. Tolar is principal of A.C. Houghton School.

Grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. John Byerly of Boise and Mrs. Bennie Tolar of Echo. Mrs. Ella Byerly of Boise is a great grandmother.

DOVIE ALDERMAN has set August 19 at 11 a.m. at the Hope Lutheran Church for her marriage to Mike Bunch.

MR. AND MRS. JACK PARRISH and son, Scott of Lake Oswego, visited here last weekend with his mother, Mrs. Sadie Parrish. They attended the Class of 1947 reunion here.

MR. AND MRS. WALTER McCLAIN, Mark and Bill of Seattle visited overnight Thursday with his cousins, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Heard. They were enroute to Chicago where Mr. McClain will take schooling for Pacific Northwest Bell.

Collins' On Vacation

Mayor and Mrs. Bill Collins are home after attending the 3-day Far West Square Dance Festival in Portland last week. By Friday there were 10,000 registered from every state of the union and some foreign countries. There were more on Saturday. The overflow filled the Pacific Building and the Convention Building, both adjacent to the Coliseum.

As the dancers marched by states they went down the center of the floor by 2's, then 4's until the entire floor was covered with people. In addition, the seats were three quarters filled. The PA system was exceptionally good so the calls were heard clearly. Mr. and Mrs. Jim Driscoll attended the Festival on Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Collins accompanied by Lisa and their grandson David Tottleben went first to their daughter's home at Harrisburg. David had been visiting here and taking swimming lessons. Lisa stayed there while her parents attended the Square Dance Festival.

This completed the first section of the Collins' vacation. Bill's brother, Ted Collins, returned to Heppner with them for a week's visit. The two brothers will redecorate Heppner Cleaners while Ted is here.

CowBelles to have Sidewalk Booth

Morrow County CowBelles will have a booth in front of Gardner's at the annual Sidewalk Bazaar. They will give away beef recipe booklets. They will sell Beef Tea and Cattle brand placemats. With each 50c purchase, the buyer will be entitled to a chance on the $10, and $5.00 Beef Gift Certificates. Mrs. Merlin Hughes is chairman. The CowBelles will operate their booth only on Friday.

AT Mac HI Reunion

Mr. and Mrs. Merlin Hughes attended her class reunion at Milton-Freewater last weekend. Also attending from here were Mr. and Mrs. Bob Hager. Mrs. Hughes is the former Claudia Coe and Mrs. Hager, Linda Akes. Mrs. Hager won the prize for the most changed.
