Murphy-Peck repeat vows

Marybeth Murphy, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Louis Murphy of Carson City, became the bride of Robert D. Peck July 1 at the List's Washoe Valley Ranch.

The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. George Peck of Heppner, Ore.

The Rev. C. Harold Van Zee of the Presbyterian Church officiated at the double-ring ceremony.

The wedding area was decorated with white mums on small white pedestals which led to the altar.

"Speak Softly Love" was sung by Robert Wright.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a white full-length cotton lace mantilla type veil and dress. For something borrowed, she wore an amethyst ring from the matron of honor. She carried a bouquet of blue bachelor carnations, yellow daisies and baby's breath.

Matron of honor was Barbara Testolin of Winnemucca. She wore a floral pattern white dotted Swiss gown and carried pink blue and yellow flowers.

Best man was Michael Lott of Carson City. Seating the guests were Glen Goza and Alan Glover of Carson City and Lloyd Kegney of Reno.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Murphy wore a full length floral pattern dress. Her flowers were carnations. The bridegroom's mother wore a full length flowered pastel dress. Her flowers were pink carnations.

A reception was held on the lawn of the ranch.

The newlywed couple took a wedding trip to Victoria, Canada.

The new Mrs. Peck is a sophomore at the University of Nevada. She is employed by the Public Employees Retirement Board.

The bridegroom is working towards a degree in geology at the University of Nevada. He is a member of the Mackay Mines Phi Delta Theta fraternity. He is employed by Firestone.

The couple will make their home in Reno.

MR. & MRS. VICTOR D. VERTNER of Aptos, Calif. are the parents of a son, Justin Victor, born June 16. He joins a brother Mark, 5 yrs. and a sister Megan, 2 yrs. Maternal grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. J.K. Morrison of Ione and paternal grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Wm. J. Vertner, Richmond, Calif.

Mr. E.W. Ferrell of The Dalles is the baby's great-grandfather, and Mrs. M. Carr of Richmond, Calif. is the great-grandmother.

Mrs. Vertner is the former Merrie Jo Morrison of Ione.

Carnations, Roses accent Kinzua Ceremony

In a 4:00 p.m. double-ring ceremony Saturday, July 22, Karen Mortimore, daughter of Richard Mortimore, became the bride of Donald Cossitt, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Cossitt of Heppner.

The service, read by Pastor William Mai, was before the altar lighted by white candles and flanked by tall baskets of yellow carnations and white roses. Yellow satin bows marked the pews.

The bride, escorted to the altar by her father, wore a gown of white satin and chiffon, empire style, with long sleeves fastened with white satin buttons. The chapel length train was held to the waist with daisies that also accented the round necked bodice and the train. Her finger tip length veil was held in place by a satin bow with daisies also scattered on the veil. She carried a nosegay of white gladiolus centered with yellow rosebuds.

Kathy Nelson of Kinzua was the Maid of Honor and wore daisy flocked nylon sheer over yellow, fashioned empire style with long sleeves gathered to a wide cuff and trimmed with avocado green ribbon. Bridesmaids were Terry Hunt, Mrs. David Hunt and Billie Jo Marler all of Fossil. Their dresses were of the same style as Karen's, but were over green and all carried nosegays with satin ribbons.

David Glenn of Hermiston, uncle of the groom, served as the best man with ushers Gene Mortimore, brother of the bride, Steve Jones of Drain, and Rick Cossitt, brother of the groom. All wore western cut clothes with green vests, yellow shirts, and green ties.

Roger and Earl Mortimore, brothers of the bride, were candlelighters and were dressed in western clothes with white shirts.

Traditional wedding music was played by Mrs. Robert Kelso with Mrs. Troy Day as soloist, singing "We've Only Just Begun", accompanied by herself.

After the service, a reception was held in the church annex where the three-tiered bridal cake, decorated in yellow, green, and white centered the serving table. It was topped with yellow satin bells and white doves. After the young couple cut and shared the first slice of cake, it was cut by Mrs. Don Hardwick, served by Mrs. Dod Marler of Fossil. Punch was served by Mrs. Earl Norris with Mrs. Alva Hunt pouring coffee.

Mrs. David Knight from Fossil was in charge of the guest book with the gift table by Linda Rice, Kinzua, and Miss Ellen Hunt, of Fossil. Mrs. Homer Bowman was in charge of the reception, assisted by Mrs. Wayland Hyatt and Mrs. Marvin Hines.

The couple left on a short trip and will be at home in Condon. Mr. Cossitt is employed by Eastern Oregon Logging Co.

Don is a 1969 graduate of Heppner High School and has attended Blue Mountain Community college. Karen is a 1972 graduate of Wheeler High School.

Portland lady re-visits Birthplace

Summertime is a popular time for vacations, explorations and expeditions and so was the case with Carolyn McPeak, nee McKee who was in Heppner Friday revisiting her birthplace.

Mrs. McPeak was born in Heppner in 1904 to Mr. and Mrs. Charles McKee who were homesteading between Lexington and Heppner somewhere on Willow Creek. The McKee family, who had three homesteads belonging to Charles McKee, her father, George McKee, her grandfather and Shelby Taylor, her uncle, originally came from Roseburg.

They moved to Portland when Mrs. McPeak was three years old and did not continue ranching. The elder McKees and Taylors are now deceased.

Mrs. McPeak was accompanied by her younger brother, David McKee, who was born after the family left the area.

We the Women

Wedding is Aug. 19

Our apologies to Anne Hoskins who had only a 30-minute notice that I was on my way out to get pictures of her. She was going to be gone for the weekend and I couldn't go out Monday. She was very matter of fact about it all. No fuss and fury that her hair was in curlers for the dance that night just really great about it all. Thank you, Anne.

THE ARRIVAL of my sister, Cheslah Young last Tuesday saved me from a fate almost as bad as my tumble down the Court House steps! Not really but all Charlie can cook is peanut butter sandwiches and for three times a day that would have been a bit much!

Anyway it was great to have her. She retired in June as director of Public School Libraries at Lebanon and just can't realize that she can actually take time to take these side jaunts. She's had several short trips already and plans a longer one after Christmas. I caught her at home between jaunts. She plans to be back for the FAIR and bring her youngest grandson.

Cheslah went with me to talk with Queen Susie. We had a delicious lunch and a delightful afternoon. Have you ever heard of a 3-handed photographer? I'd hold the camera, she'd turn to get the focus and snap the button. Anyway the pictures didn't turn out too badly.

Friday the doctor took out the stitches on my head. This Friday he will change casts. I can hardly wait. I told Charlie I thought my elbow was getting moldy. Just maybe I'll be able to take pictures with this new one. I'm supposed to have more finger movement.

I continue to be amazed with the cards filled with kind thoughts that keep coming my way from Morrow County. Pilot Rock, Pendleton, Milton-Freewater and Joseph. Flowers and goodies from gardens and pantries. THANKS Friends. Believe me the next people I see with a broken bone will have MORE of my sympathy than ever before.

MR. AND MRS. ARTHUR DALZELL, Ione, attended the McClintock family reunion in The Dalles Sunday. The Dalzells were among the 38 who attended the reunion. "It was hot there," Mrs. Dalzell reported.

WEEKEND visitors at the Ervin Anderson home were Mrs. Al Parent and daughters, Lisa, Shelly and Allison of Portland.

Alison remained for a longer visit. Also, spending a longer time: Suzanne Martin of Portland and Ramona Reish of Lostine.

Karen Nelson Marries

Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Nelson, Jr., Lexington, announce the marriage of their daughter, Karen, to Mr. Lee Le Voie, Pinedale, Wyoming. The ceremony took place in Reno, Nevada Aug. 7.

The bride is a 1967 graduate of Ione High School and attended Oregon State University. The bridegroom has recently returned from his second tour of duty in Vietnam with the U.S. Marines. After a honeymoon at Glacier National Park and other Montana and Wyoming spots, the couple will be at home near Pinedale where the groom is engaged in cattle ranching.

Cuttings Home

Rev. and Mrs. Ed Cutting Venessa and Craig are home from Rochester, and Minneapolis, Minn. Both Mr. and Mrs. Cutting had medical care while there. They visited their sons and other relatives. Ernest Cutting and family are at Minneapolis. He is an attorney and has been elected moderator of the St. Paul Presbytery. The other son, Todd, is a senior at the University of Minnesota. He is majoring in Horticulture. Crop-wise corn is king in this area. The corn looks good.

Friends of Dovie Louise Alderman and Michael James Bunch are cordially invited to their wedding on August 19 at 11 o'clock in the morning at Hope Lutheran Church, Heppner. The reception will follow in the church social room. Dovie Louise is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Archie Alderman and Michael James is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Bunch.

MR. & MRS. JOE DAVIS of Augusta, Ga. visited Heppner the first of the week. His father of San Diego had purchased two lots at Blake Properties which his son was looking over as he owns them now. They had camped much of their way West which was a first time for Mrs. Davis. They were traveling with their St. Bernard. The three found Heppner hot.

JIMMY ANGELL, right, son of Mr. and Mrs. Larry Angell, Heppner, stands with his 35 pound Chinook Salmon he caught in the ocean near Newport July 28. Beside him is his cousin, Sam McDaniel, from Pendleton.

Showers Held for Brides-to-Be

Bridal showers in July honored two close friends and brides-to-be, Donna Bradley and Dovie Alderman.

Dovie's shower was held July 14 in the Hope Lutheran Church basement. Hostesses were Mrs. Tad Miller, Patty and her mother Mrs. George Luciani and Donna and her mother Mrs. Mel Piper. The brides colors of yellow were carried out in the decorations. After the opening of a many useful gifts, the group enjoyed banana splits for dessert. Dovie is the bride-elect of Mike Bunch, Lexington.

Donna's shower was July 28. A white bell sat in the center of the table, mixed in with other decorations of green. Hostesses were Dovie and her mother Mrs. Archie Alderman and Mrs. R.G. Watkins. Donna also received many useful gifts and after they were all opened, the group enjoyed lemon ice cream pie. Donna is the bride-elect of Gary Ball, Heppner.

Mother-Tot Lessons are Great!

JUDY GENTRY, swimming pool aid, helps Shane Mallory during a session of the Mother-Tot Swimming lessons at the Heppner Municipal Pool. Shane is the three-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Don Mallory, Heppner.

The Mother-Tot Session of swimming lessons at the Heppner Municipal Pool is over now, after running for two worthwhile weeks.

This session is for mothers and their children who are too young to be in the pool by themselves. This way, both the mothers and the children benefit.

A good example of what can be learned in such a session is Shane Mallory, three-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Don Mallory, Heppner. This is Shane's first summer in the water, and he progressed very well. By the time the two weeks were up, he was swimming short distances, with some assistance; half-jumping, half-diving into the water from the side of the pool; and doing the same from the diving board. The expression on his face while performing his "tricks" conveys his true delight with the water. Mrs. Mallory is an avid swimmer, and like she said, "I encourage the boys." The Mallory's other son, five-year-old Shawn completed Beginners' session earlier in the summer.

Also taking the lessons were Jill Nelson and her mother Mrs. Kenneth Nelson, Lexington; Julie Gerking and her mother, Mrs. Marvin Gerking, Heppner; and Terry Sabey and her mother, Mrs. Ted Sabey, Lexington.

The warm days are slipping away faster than most would like to think but there is still time to get some swimming in before the pool closes.

Six Grandmothers Attend Wedding

There were six grandmothers at the Scott Barratt wedding. They were all smiles and corsaged. Mrs. E. Harvey Miller, of Corvallis, Mrs. Howard Ferguson of Lake Oswego, Mrs. Winnie Calkins, of Spokane, Mrs. F.H. Kavanaugh, of Auburn, Wa.

Mrs. Claude Calkins of Spokane, Mrs. Garnet Barratt of Heppner.

Scott and his new bride are at home at Ft. Hood, Texas where Scott is flight commander of a helicopter squadron.

Marquards Host Ohio Visitors

By Delpha Jones

Claude Miller, brother of Mrs. Norma Marquardt, a daughter Claudia, and a granddaughter have been visiting at the Norma Marquardt home from Cincinnati, Ohio. While here Norita and Charma Marquardt took the guests to the Painted Hills at Mitchell, and Peterson Rock Gardens and to see the reindeer at Redmond. Mrs. Carl Marquardt and girls took the guests to the Oregon Coast on Friday of last week, and Monday they visited Lehman Hot Springs, after which they were taken to Pasco, where they left by train for their home.

MR. AND MRS. JULIO DOMINGUEZ from Ca., have been visiting at the Carl Marquardt home. Mr. Dominguez spoke at the churches in Heppner and Pendleton while here.

MR. & MRS. ALFRED HASKINS and son of Bismark N.D. visited on Monday with John Spence and Florence McMillan.

EARL MILLER of Portland spent the week-end visiting friends and relatives. Word was received in Lexington, that Mrs. Trannie Parker is a patient in the Physicians and Surgeons Hospital in Portland.

MRS. VENICE HENDRICKSON, Mrs. Florence McMillan and Waide Sawyer were Pendleton visitors Sunday at the Bob Cool home and visited Mr. and Mrs. John Karan, who are in Pendleton after a stay of duty in Tennessee. Mrs. Karan is the former Pearl Sawyer.

Glenda Kay Van Winkle is at home after a stay last week in Pioneer Memorial Hospital in Heppner.

MR. & MRS. PETE KLINGER have had as their guests this week, their grandsons Mike and Mark Klinger, sons of Mrs. Arleta George, of Portland, Billy Klinger, Mr. and Mrs. Vic Klinger and daughter Sheridan and Bonnie Leong all of Portland. They returned to their home on Friday after a short visit.

LOLA BREEDING was a Portland visitor over the week-end and attended the Spray Picnic.

Melanie and Irene Messenger of Hermiston spent several days last week with their grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. T.E. Messenger, Sr.

Busy Johnsons

The Don W. Johnson family has been busy since late June. On June 27, they left to attend the Oregon Christian Church Convention at Turner. Pastor Johnson served on the Recommendations and Nominating committee.

Bible lecturer was Dr. Alger Fitch who is professor on New Testament at NNC at Eugene. The lectures were taped and will be replayed at the two local churches this fall.

Jack Naff of the Hermiston church was elected president of the convention.

The family returned in time to enjoy the annual 4th of July picnic at Cutsforth Park.

Their vacation which followed took them first to Walla Walla where Pastor Johnson had a medical checkup. They enjoyed visiting the museum, cemetery and park at Fort Walla Walla. Then to Dayton and Pomeroy, Lewiston and south. The state park at McCall was cool and inviting.

The want to Oxbow Dam and to Baker and Unity Reservoir. Fishing was best along the John Day. They brought home 20 cat fish and threw 30 back.

and had to be taken to the hospital for X-rays. She was out of the cheerleading activities for two days.

"The whole week was really fun, otherwise," Barb added.

Thursday there was no evaluation. A big rally session that night where each group was allowed to do what they wanted to do and not be judged, preceded a last-night dance.

Friday was final evaluation. Ribbon - awarding followed that.

"We learned a lot more yells that we are going to be able to use this year," Barb said. "Last year some of the ones we learned we didn't even use."

Those attending besides Barb were Lisa McCabe, Debbie Peck, Toni Toll and Janet Gentry from Heppner; Cindi Martin, Jan Ekstrom, Sherri Wilson and Christina Lindstrom, Ione, Cindi fell and hurt her back Tuesday
