

Coxen Services held in Salem

Word has been received of the death of James B. Coxen, 83, resident of 706 41st Place NE, Salem.

Mr. Coxen was a native of Missouri, a retired barber who resided in Morrow County approximately 40 years. He married Edna Ayers in Heppner in 1915 and shortly thereafter purchased his first barber shop in Lexington. They had three children, a son preceeded him in death.

The Coxens resided in Salem for the past 13 years where Mr. Coxen was a member of the First Christian Church.

Survivors include his wife, Edna Coxen, of Salem; one daughter, Mrs. Betty Hoyt of Monmouth, one son, Glen Coxen of Salem; and a sister, Mrs. Ciella Chrisman of Springfield, Mo.; Dee Coxen of Toledo, Ore.; eight grandchildren and one great-grandson.

Funeral services were held August 7 at 2:00 p.m. in the Virgil T. Golden Funeral Home, 605 Commercial St. SE, Salem. Interment was in Restlawn Cemetery.

Clean-up, Fix-up Day Aug. 13

A work day has been scheduled for Sunday afternoon, August 13 by the Morrow County Fair Committee to add finishing touches in preparation for a big 1972 County Fair.

All 4-H and open class superintendents, parents, leaders and others interested are encouraged to come out to help.

Many improvements have been made at the Fairgrounds this year. Shrubs have been planted, a new beef wash rack built, and signs to identify all exhibit areas purchased.

Cooperation from all in the final days of preparation will be appreciated! Fair Committee members are Dick Schlichting, Heppner, chairman; Jean Bennett, Wilbur Van Blockland, Hal Whitaker, Heppner; Bev Doherty, Ione; Delpha Jones, Lexington; Francine Evans, Irrigation; Ron Black, Boardman. The Fair Committee works closely with the Morrow County Fair Board in planning and carrying out events and improvements at County Fair.

Consider the occupational frustration of an elevator operator. He never hears the end of a good story.

Boardman

Rod Flug and Barbara Russell had low net in the weekly "rose and thorn" contest Sunday at Willow Run Golf Course. Ron Daniels and Donna Wicklander had low gross.

In the Sweepstakes, Ron Daniels had low gross, and Wayne Kuhn had second.

There were two tables of pinocle in play at the card party held last week at the Greenfield Grange Hall, sponsored by the Women's Activity Committee of the grange. Mrs. Chub Warren was hostess.

High prize was won by Mrs. Tom Barnhart and second high went to Mrs. Pete Peterson, Mrs. W.G. Sechafer and Mrs. Don Downey received the traveling pinocle prizes.

THE LADIES AID SOCIETY OF Boardman Community Church met last week at the home of Mrs. Chub Warren. Mrs. Frank Marlow was in charge of the devotional program, taking as her topic, "True Trademark of a Christian", taken from "The Upper Room".

The group is making lap robes to be given to the nursing home in Hermiston.

MR. AND MRS. HAROLD RASH and daughter Diane returned home from a week's trip through the southwest. They visited Reno, Carson City, Las Vegas and Virginia City in Nevada; Lake Tahoe, toured the Grand Canyon, and went to Prescott and Jerome, Ariz.

MR. AND MRS. PERRY PARKS of Lincoln City visited three days last week at the home of Mr. Parks' sister, Mrs. George Sicard.

MR. AND MRS. JIM WALKER and children Betty, Vickie and Lee of Astoria were overnight visitors Saturday at the home of Mrs. Walker's uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Rash, on their way to a week's vacation at Wallowa Lake.

Mrs. George Sicard went to The Dalles Sunday to visit at the home of Mrs. Ernest Cramer.

Rev. Dick Struckmeier of Phoenix, Or. was guest speaker Sunday morning at the Boardman Community Church. He and Mrs. Struckmeier also sang a duet, "The Shepherd of Love." They are visiting this week at the home of Rev. Struckmeier's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Everett Struckmeier.

MR. AND MRS. DON LEIGHTON were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Roscoe Cook of Portland at the annual Northwest Steelheaders Banquet at the Sheraton Motor Inn in Portland recently.

Guest speaker for the evening was U.S. Senator Bob Packwood. There were about 500 attending from Oregon, Washington and Idaho. Roscoe Cook is an active member in the Beaverton chapter of the Steelheaders Association.

DONALD, DEENO AND DANIEL LEIGHTON rode in the Pee Wee Rodeo at Battle Ground, Wa. a week ago. Donald received a 5th place ribbon in Calf Roping and a 5th place in Pony Riding.

Recent visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Don Leighton were Mr. and Mrs. Don Stocks, and Donald and Sherri of Tacoma, Wa., and Mr. and Mrs. Roscoe Cook and Rhonda, Ally and Theresa of Portland. Mrs. Stocks and Mrs. Leighton are cousins.

Mrs. Frank Marlow accompanied by her sister, Mrs. Clarence Thomas of Pendleton, spent overnight at Wallowa Lake Thursday.

MR. AND MRS. DON LEIGHTON and Donald, Deeno and Daniel attended the Mr. Pleasant Pee Wee Rodeo at Washougal, Wa. over the weekend. Donald and Deeno rode in the Calf and Pony Bucking events, and Donald brought home the first place trophy and ribbon in the Senior Division Pony Bucking event. He was also presented with a bridle for his winning second place in Calf Riding at the White Salmon, Wa. rodeo.

Fire Chief Forrie Burkenbine told of costs of the new flood sirens. Cost had been expected around $1900 but installation, parts, wiring and pole had raised costs to $2340. County will pay half the overage. Needed is another $422.28. Dept. of Emergency Services will pay about $1300 of this. Council stated the overage will probably be paid from Flood Damage account. The Fire Chief stated they will probably sound the flood siren once a month on the first Thursday. The first monthly test will be Sept. 7.
