

Parade Pleases!

People said the parade was bigger and better than any year, as it should have been as people put forth extra effort for Heppner's 100th birthday. Several people mentioned the two best things in the parade were Bob DeSpain's Volunteer Centennial band and the parade of Past Queens and Princesses. Randall Peterson was parade chairman.

There were 23 former queens and 29 former princesses. Volunteers appeared as if by magic to play in the band. Twenty four who played with Bob Cole as drum major were: Kevin Gutierrez, Anita Davidson, Louann Kelly, Dale Hedman, Chuck Nelson, Bob Lowe, Barbara Sherman.

Linda DeSpain, Dennis Campbell, John Rietmann, Shannon Kelly, Bob DeSpain, Ed Struthers, Rick Wadholt, Greg Wilson, Mark Rietmann, Gene Rietmann, Carl Spaulding, Wayne Hams, Chris DeSpain, Mike Hedman, Todd Cox, Phillip Raymond and Joe Rietmann.

Parade Marshal
The Golden Age represented by Frank Turner and Emma Hager led the parade as the Parade Marshalls.

Floats
Heppner Soroptimist Club won Sweepstakes and first in Adult Organizations with their float on Centennial Reflections as two girls dressed in matching old and new stood in front of an antique frame suggestive of a mirror. A garden of huge paper flowers was the setting for the modern miss in the mini-skirt and sagebrush and sunflowers for her sunbonnetted counterpart. The girls were Laurie & Lisa McCabe. Morrow County CowBelles got second.

Rainbow Girls showing Rainbow Now and Then won first place in the Juvenile division of Organization floats.

Three prizes were given under the Business division: Pioneer Memorial hospital 1st, 1st National Bank 2nd and Kinzua Corp. 3rd.

Out of County
Hermiston Chamber of Commerce Float with the bride and groom won first in the Out-of-County entries, US Navy 2nd, Umatilla Ordnance Depot 3rd, Hermiston Cub Scouts 4th.
Best Riding Club: Pendleton Mustangers 1st, Umatilla Sage Riders 2nd.

Mounted Groups
Best Mounted Family Group was the Floyd Hutchins family. Best mounted cowgirl was Diana Ball. Best mounted cowboy was Raymond French. Oldest cowgirl was Ethel Lehman on Danny Boy and Oldest cowboy was Royce Fullerton.

Best comic was Arletha Brannon. Heppner Volunteer Centennial Band won first and only. Queens and Courts: Pendleton Round-Up 1st, Umatilla Sageriders 2nd and Grant County 3rd.

Surreys and buggies: Frank Anderson 1st, Norman Nelson 2nd and Floyd Hutchins 3rd.

JUVENILE DIVISION
Childs floats: Bill Brannon family in a pony cart 1st, Riding Cubs, Two Trackers 4-H Club. Costume: Mardel James and Lisa Wilson first. They were dressed as two old ladies with parasols. Robert and Marion McMillan 2nd were clowns.

Youngest cowgirl, Bridgett Greenup 1st, youngest cowboy, Mike Mahoney, 1st; Bicycles: Andy Gorman 1st as the Lone Ranger; Brian, Greg and Jerry Rietmann 2nd. No tricycles were entered.

Best Juvenile Cowboy costume Jason Dougherty 1st. Pet entries: Jackie Gentry 1st and Kelly McClintock 2nd.

Laurie McCabe

Lisa McCabe

Ebb Hughes & his harmonica.
"FROM OUR RANGE TO YOUR RANGE"

Jackie Allstott

John Messick

Joyce Hollomon

Kaedene Hollomon

Dick Calvert

(Darcie Hollomon other side)

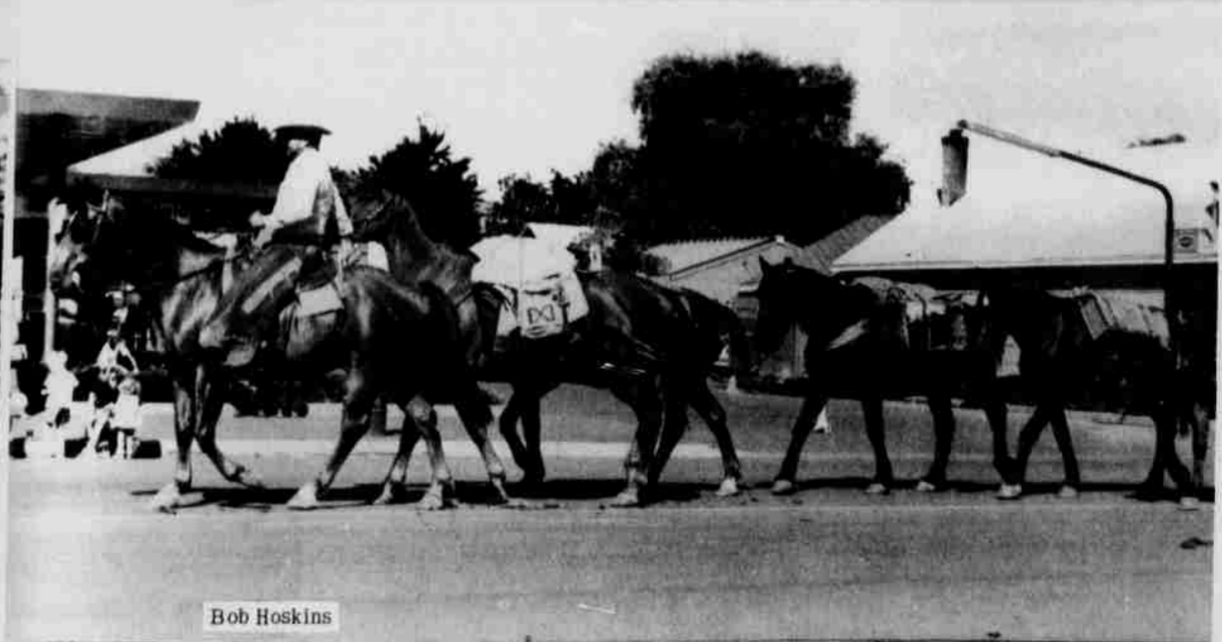

Bob & Sue Jepsen

Hermiston Chamber

Brannon Kids

Bob Hoskins

Frank and Kay Anderson

Floyd Hutchins & Kin