STATE STYLE REVUE

Fashions in a variety of styles, colors and fabrics will greet the 1972 Oregon State Fair visitor in the 4-H exhibit building as young men and women from throughout the State show their best efforts, points out Birdine Tullis, Morrow County Extension Aide. This year, for the first time, the style revues will be held on the outdoor stage in the heart of the fairgrounds. It is hoped that the move to the outdoor stage will enable even more people to see the fashions created by 4-H members in clothing and knitting projects.

Morrow County members participating in the revue scheduled for September 2 will include Cheri Carlson, Ione, Joan Warren, Heppner, Anita Davidson, Lexington, and Kathleen Bartlett, Boardman. Cheri and Joan will participate in clothing, Kathleen and Anita will model their knit garments. Morrow County residents attending state fair are invited to attend the big outdoor revue, September 2 at 1:00 p.m. to watch our county representatives show their style!

MARY LOU CARLSON, Lexington, gave a demonstration on ceramics in the Hobbies corner. Mrs. Carlson owns the Sandhollow Art Shop in Lexington. During her afternoon session, she completed a small angel.
