Kite Healy's 'Be Big Mac' is Performance Champion at Wranglers Horse Show

"Be Big Mac" owned and ridden by Kite Healy was named the champion Performance horse at the Wrangler's Horse Show Friday afternoon. Be Big Mac is his registered name but on the ranch he's Golde. He is a registered Quarter Horse and the Heals bought him three years ago when he was a two year old. Janice, the Heals 12 year old, has been riding him this summer. He was Patti's official horse the two years she rode on the Pendleton Round Up Court. The Heals enjoy Golde because he is so versatile. He wasn't in the Wrangler's Horse Show last year because Patti, Queen of the Round Up, had to attend an out of town appearance.

Mrs. Healy won a Trophy donated by Floyd Jones, who retired last year's trophy, and a horse blanket donated by P.W. Mahoney.

Reserve Champion Performance was Rexall's Baldy owned by Bob and Beverly Steagall, ridden by Bob Steagall of Lexington. He won a horse blanket donated by Fred Mankin, past Horse Show Superintendent.
