Ione Garden Club Plans Bird Meeting

The Ione Garden Club met Sept. 13 at the home of Annetta Klinger at Lexington. Preceding the business meeting several of the members entertained with a skit called "Garden Club Blues". The members of the cast were Helen Martin, Pat Pettyjohn, Doris Cutting, Delpha Jones, Vida Heliker and Bobbie Driscoll.

The group voted to keep arrangements of flowers in at the Bank of Eastern Oregon at Ione as long as arrangement materials were available. They decided to do this in lieu of the traditional flower show. Pat Pettyjohn entertained with a variety of guessing games. Bebe Munkers won the prize.

The next meeting will be at Mrs. Norman Nelson's home on Oct. 11. Fred Eiling of Milton Freewater will speak and show slides on birds.

MR. AND MRS. ED MORENO, of Sacramento left for their home Tuesday after visiting here 10 days with her brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Imel at Ione.

Notice of Filing

Notice is hereby given that on September 15, 1972 Pacific Northwest Bell Telephone Company filed tariffs with the Oregon Public Utility Commissioner at his offices in Salem, Oregon to effect a general repricing of its services. A portion of said filing is designed to provide said Company with interim rate relief, through increases in certain rates, sufficient to permit it to earn the return on its investment authorized by the Oregon Public Utility Commissioner in Cause No. U-F-2667 December 31, 1971 and approved by the Federal Price Commission March 27, 1972.

Said rates and data in support thereof have been filed with the Oregon Public Utility Commissioner. Members of the public may request a public proceeding on the matter to the extent permitted by statute and by the rules of practice and procedure of the Oregon Public Utility Commissioner.

MOVE FROM ILLINOIS

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Wilson, twins, Katrina Marie and Thomas Victor Jr., Tina and Tommy, 2½ years old and Robert Lee, 1½ years have moved from Galesburg, Ill. to make their home in Heppner. Mr. Wilson has employment at the Veneer Plant and expects to start with the second shift next week.

In Illinois he was a serviceman for small appliances, air-conditioning, stoves, refrigerators in electrical and gas.

Mrs. Wilson is the former Mary Loretta Nichols of Ione. Until they can find housing, the Wilsons are staying with the Nichols family.

SNAPPY SNIPPERS

The Snappy Snippers 4-H Club of Ione had their last meeting of the year. A successful year and Fair was reported by all. A special thanks is given to our leader, Rikka Tews and to Birdie Tullis, 4-H aide for all the encouragement they have given us.

Our records for the year were discussed. Refreshments were served to the following members attending, Carol McElligott, Natalie Tews, Lora Bergstrom, Jan Peterson and our Junior Leader, Cheri Carlson. News Reporter, Jan Peterson.

CANADIANS VISIT

Mr. and Mrs. Tom Mulligan of Edmonton, Alberta came to see the Pendleton Round Up. While they were here, they were guests of Mrs. Vida Heliker. Also here for the Round Up were Mr. and Mrs. Elmo Emerson of North Bonneville, Wa. who also stayed with Mrs. Heliker. Other friends and relatives dropped in to see the guests.

Knit pants for women

October 2 and 9 are the days selected by Debbie Barker, Extension Home Economist for training leaders for sewing knit pants workshops in Morrow and Umatilla counties. Leaders trained in knit pants sewing techniques in the two day workshops will later give workshops which are open to all women at no charge in each community.

The leader training will be given at Peace Lutheran Church, Pendleton. Leaders are needed from Ione, Heppner, Boardman, Irrigon and other localities in Morrow County to take the training. Please call 676-9642 as soon as possible to indicate interest in attending the October 2-9 training or the later workshops.

CHESLAH YOUNG and Phoebe Fortier of Lebanon came last week to attend the Friday Pendleton Round Up festivities with Mrs. Young's brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Heard.

Following services at All Saints Sunday, Mrs. Young met Juanita Leathers Carmichael. They had known each other in the early years of their teaching careers when they both taught in the Lexington area. Mrs. Young retired this spring as Director of Libraries at Lebanon Schools. Mrs. Carmichael was teaching in Heppner when she retired last year.
