Thursday morning as I sat having my second cup of coffee something thrilling happened that made my day. A robin flew to a limb of our Mountain Ash tree and as the wind bobbed him close to one of the clusters of orange berries, he gobbled one. After he had his fill he flew away and later another robin or the same one was back for more. This is exactly why we planted the Mountain Ash where we did so we could watch this annual performance.

It started in Joseph where for 10 years, we watched the birds eat the berries from a Mountain Ash through the dining room windows. Every house since we have planted a Mountain Ash where we could see it from the dining room windows.

So when we bought our house up on Chase St. one of the first trees we planted that first summer was a Mountain Ash. This is the first year it has produced berries and I am delighted to have it bearing berries for the birdies!

I WAS SO PLEASED Tuesday when I opened my mail to find a Certificate of Appreciation from the National Red Cross for the best percentage of NEW DONORS in the 1971 Columbia River Red Cross Blood Program.

That was the one the High School kids worked on. They brought in 17 new donors, I remember. We didn't reach our quota but we did have a lot of first time donors. I knew that was better than I had ever bumped into before...but to have the best percentage of all.

THAT WAS REALLY GREAT!

The Rev. Mark Johnson performed the double ring ceremony. Miss Diane Mills was vocalist accompanied by Mrs. Paul Tews. Wedding music was "One Hand One Heart" and "Silent Wedding Prayer" an unpublished song.

Given in marriage by her father, Clyde Pettyjohn, the bride was attired in a full-length sheer white dotted swiss with empire waist and long train and veil. The dress was made for Terry by her Grandmother Mrs. Howard Keithley. She carried a Bible with a white orchid.

Mrs. David Hall, sister-in-law of the groom, was Matron of honor. Bridesmaids were Dee Ann Pettyjohn, cousin of the bride, and Mrs. Bruce Botts, aunt of the bride. Flower girl was Kim Pettyjohn and candles were lighted by Tami and Tracey Pettyjohn. All three girls are sisters of the bride. The attendants wore full-length striped and flowered organdy gowns in the different colors of the rainbow. The bridesmaids and matron of honor carried stocks of white gladioli.

David Hall of Corvallis, was best man for his brother. Ushers were LaVerne Van Marter, cousin of the groom, and Steve Kemp, cousin of the bride. The men attendants wore light blue dinner jackets with blue carnations.

The mother of the bride, Mrs. Clyde Pettyjohn wore an off-white polyester dress with navy blue accessories. Mrs. Eugene Hall, mother of the groom, wore a pink chiffon dress with matching shoes.

The wedding reception was held in the basement of the Hope Lutheran Church, with a potluck dinner following. Bouquets of white glads and blue candles decorated the tables. Pouring coffee were Mrs. Ellis Pettyjohn and Mrs. Jack Hynd, Jr. Punch was poured by Mrs. Shelby Graves and Mrs. Jimmy Pettyjohn and the cake, which was baked and decorated by Mrs. Bill Zinter, was served by Mrs. Jim Reed—all aunts of the bride. Corsages were pinned by Dolores McLachlan, aunt of the bride.

The gift table was attended by Diane McLachlan and Mrs. Mike Bunch, cousins of the bride, and the guest book was presided over by Mrs. Ron Borst, an aunt of the bride.

A lime-green dress with white accessories was the ensemble chosen by the bride for going away. Their wedding trip will take them to Wallowa Lake and northeastern Washington.

The couple are 1971 graduates of Heppner High School. The bride is a graduate of Merritt Davis School of Commerce, Salem, Oregon. The groom will be a sophomore at Oregon State majoring in Agricultural Engineering. They will reside in Corvallis.
