

DeMoss Ranch Scene of Wedding

Mr. and Mrs. John De Moss Jr.

Music and song set the mood for the wedding of Carolyn Jean Carlson and John DeMoss Jr. at the DeMoss Springs Ranch home of his parents.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Oliver Swegheimer, Anaheim, Calif. The prelude music was organ-piano duets by Mr. and Mrs. Dale Brady of Moro.

The bride, escorted by her father, was gowned in a mall-brown formal with white chiffon overlay and also a large brimmed white hat. She carried a single long-stemmed spider mum.

Tricia Miller, whose parents Peggy and Jerry Miller were married in the same room 11 years ago, was flower girl. Tricia wore a lime green formal and carried a white basket of fall flowers. Tricia's dress had been worn by the maid of honor at the same age when she was a flower girl.

The Rev. Dick Morgan officiated. The best man was Steve Gentry, a school friend and adopted brother of the groom. David Carlson, son of the bride served as ring bearer.

The bride was given in marriage by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Swegheimer.

For something borrowed, the bride held the groom's mother's Bible in her bouquet and wore a borrowed garter. Her maid of honor, Jan DeMoss, placed in her shoe a coin that the groom had brought back from one of his tours of the Far East.

The fireplace altar candles and an abalone shell candle (a gift to the groom's parents by the bride couple) were lighted by Leo Coelsch.

Mrs. Arlene Allegre of Hood River sang "The Wedding Prayer," and "May We Always" and was joined by George DeMoss, uncle of the groom, to sing "The Hawaiian Wedding Song." They were accompanied on the organ by Mrs. Dale Brady.

RINGS EXCHANGED
After the vows were taken and rings exchanged and Carolyn and John were pronounced husband and wife they went forward, each taking an altar candle and together lighting their candle of life in the center of the fall flower arrangement on the mantle.

The wedding guest book was attended by Mrs. Leo Coelsch and wee Kevin. As the guests arrived they were seated by Richard Johnson and Gary Irzvk.

Special guests were the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Oliver Swegheimer of Anaheim and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Swegheimer, brother and sister-in-law of the bride, from Fullerton, Calif. As the couple's grandparents were all unable to be present the couple were honored to have Mrs. Inez Thompson and Mrs. Cecil Hockman, as adopted grandmothers for the day. They were seated by the parents.

CALL FROM HAWAII
The bridal couple received a congratulatory call from John DeMoss grandparents, who are now residing in Honolulu.

A reception followed at the Moro Legion hall.

Carolyn and John cut the first piece of wedding cake with an ivory and silver cake knife, a gift from Jan DeMoss, and drank toasts from silver goblets, a gift from Frank and Babs Swegheimer. A gift from David Carlson of two silver lovebirds was placed in front of the wedding cake.

The reception guest book was attended by Mrs. Don Holzman and Todd.

The reception hall was decorated with fall flower arrangements by Dick Yocum.

The reception tables were prepared and cared for by Mrs. Virgil Archer, Mrs. Ted Thompson, Mrs. Bill Coons, Mrs. Irma Johnson, Mrs. Sara Coelsch and Mrs. Don DeMoss who also helped serve coffee, cake and punch along with Mrs. Cecil Hockman, Mrs. San Alberty, Mrs. Jerry Miller, Mrs. Jean Bonness, Mrs. David Lane, Mrs. Harold Stevens, Mrs. George DeMoss, Mrs. Robert Stevens and Mrs. Keith Howland.

The buffet table was prepared and cared for by Mr. and Mrs. E.P. Thompson.

Attending the gift table and helping about the rooms were Misses Jeannie Archer, Sandy Alberty, Bobbie Gammell and JoJean Stevens.

IN FUN
After the guests were greeted the groom and best man were handcuffed and taken to the local jail for a time by Sheriff Lohy and Deputies Johnson and Axford. The Jack McDermid burro was caught and blanketed so the bride could lead the animal taking her husband for a stroll, to the delight of the guests.

An orchestra, consisting of Dale Brady, organist; Don DeMoss, drums; and George DeMoss, saxophone, played background music until the bride and groom danced the first dance, leading to further dancing by the guests.

The couple spent their wedding night at Timberline Lodge and returned to DeMoss Springs the next day to open gifts with many of their family and friends present to help them enjoy this occasion, plus helping Jan DeMoss to celebrate her birthday.

Again leaving in a shower of wheat, Carolyn and John left for his U.S. Navy duty station at Meridian Miss., where he is an ETT in air traffic control maintenance.

Locust Chapter Hosts Instruction

Monday evening Locust Chapter No. 119, Order of the Eastern Star were hosts to the Associate Grand Conductress of the Grand Chapter, Mrs. Dorothy Parrish of Lake Oswego, who was making her official visitation. Officers of Ruth Chapter No. 32 of Heppner were also present and joined in the evening of instruction.

A special guest was Mrs. Dick Wilkinson of Heppner, Junior Past Grand Matron of the Grand Chapter of Oregon.

The meeting was preceded by a no-host dinner at The Cafe and following the meeting, Mrs. Herbert Ekstrom Jr. and Mrs. Adon Hamlett were hostesses for the social hour.

Mrs. Parrish was a house guest of Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Halvorsen while in lone.

MRS. HENRY GORGER is in St. Vincent Hospital in Portland for serious surgery. She is doing fine and will be there for two more weeks. She is in room 801 and would welcome cards and letters.

Shower Honors Jane Krebs

There was a Bridal shower held in honor of Jane Krebs, lone, October 10 at the home of Mrs. Garland Swanson. Thirty-eight friends and relatives attended the shower.

The cake was decorated with wedding bells, and bride and groom dolls. The table was decorated with white Chrysanthemums.

Hostesses were: Irene Swanson, Loa McElligott, Betty Carlson, Pat Pettyjohn, and Ruth McCabe. Those helping with the gifts were: Tanya Tucker, and Chris Eldridge. Mrs. Beth Hynd came from Umatilla to attend the shower.

Pumpkin chiffon tarts, coffee, and tea and punch were served.

Deadline

Nov. 1st is the deadline for mailing entries to the "Make It Yourself With Wool" sewing competition. Mrs. Robert Hoskins district director, reports that even though this year's contest is open to boys, none entered in her district yet. Oregon did have the first boy to enter, he is Dan Cleary of Portland.

The district style revue will be Nov. 18th at B.M.C.C. at 2:00 p.m. The winners in the Junior-Senior division will receive an all expense paid trip to the state competition Dec. 7 & 8th in Portland. The winner in the Sub-deb competition will receive a beautiful lambs-wool pelt rug from Krebs Brothers of Cecil.

Entry forms are available at the Home Extension office and from the director. Later entries may be made by contacting Mrs. Hoskins by phone.

A thick layer of ice in your freezer actually reduces cooling power. It's a good idea to defrost your freezer regularly, and before the ice is more than a quarter-inch thick.

I have never quite figured out what Indian Summer is...but for me I've decided this fall is one. The beautiful sunny days following that first crippling frost have been wonderful. The flowers that escaped have the most vibrant hues, the Michaelmas daises, the roses, the mums, tuberous begonias. Really my favorite time of year.

Wood smoke smells are beginning to creep from an occasional fire in a fireplace. I'd like sunny days and frosty nights until Christmas, have a month of snow and then spring!

Have you ever seen the Magpies as close to town as they seem to be? I've seen them flying from the back windows and Wednesday morning one was in the front yard. I think he was looking for venison bones that seem to get parked there these days.

Marj Gardner hit a soft spot the other evening when she said, "I still miss Dewey". We still miss our old fat dog without any hair on his tail too. It was just a year ago that he was hit by a hunter. I'll always be grateful that he wasn't a hit-and-run driver. He took time to find the police chief who told Charlie about it. Our Dewey is buried at the foot of the garden with a very special stone. In fact it was once painted pink and graced the garden path at the Junior Prom at Mac Hi, the year Judy was chairman. Charlie says I'm awfully sentimental. That stone has been moved quite a few times.

Before Charlie went over the post office after the tax statement Friday, he asked if I had any heart attack medicine and when he got back I needed it!

North End 4-H Family Night

4-H Family Nite was observed in Irrigon on Thursday with a good dinner and time to get acquainted with your neighbors. Awards were presented to 4-H members, according to the number of years they had completed in 4-H. These awards broke away from the traditional 4-H pin and ranged from nail clippers to bright t-shirts.

Patty Proctor was recognized for having completed 10 years in 4-H. She was a Jr. leader in horsemanship last year, and is a student at BMCC this year.

Karen Richards and Kathleen Evans, Irrigon and Denise Henkle of Boardman were honored for having received National awards on the County level. Seventy-five local young people received 4-H achievement awards.

(complete list of awards and pictures will be in next weeks G-T).

Mrs. Howard Baker played the piano to accompany the spirited group singing led by Mrs. Gladys Hobbs. Among those introduced were Dorothy Heard of the Heppner Gazette-Times, Ron Black, Vo-Ag instructor at Riverside High School, Birdine Tullis who served as 4-H Home ec director and Don Stangel 4-H Extension Agent. David Richards conducted the meeting.

Don spoke briefly at the close of the presentations. He had words of praise for the leaders and the 4-H club members. As he made the announcements he was joined on the stage by his young son, David Stangel, who stole the show as he clapped when the other kids did and only stopped when the photographer got his picture.

David Stangel who stole the show without knowing it. He only became bashful when he saw the photographer start to take his picture.

Ione Garden Club

The Ione Garden Club met on October 10 at the home of Mrs. Norman (Jean) Nelson, Lexington. Mrs. Elmer Hunt was co-hostess. There were 11 members and 4 guests present.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Etling of Milton-Freewater gave the program. Mr. Etling showed many beautiful slides of birds and wild flowers. He also played a tape recording of a mocking bird. It sounded like a whole forest of different birds and was quite noisy.

It was reported that the corsages made by garden club members for the Ione PTA Teachers reception were greatly appreciated.

Plans were made to meet with other members of the Blue Mountain District at Boardman on Oct. 17 for a meeting of the Native Flora Committee pertaining to our preservation of wild flowers on the Old Oregon Trail between Lexington and Boardman.

The November meeting of the Ione Garden Club will be at the home of Mrs. Wallace Wolf.

Auxiliary Seeks GI Names

With Jerry Rood acting as Chief Pancake flipper, a half-a-hundred Legionnaires and a half-a-hundred Legions enjoyed a Pancake supper Monday evening at the Legion Hall.

At the American Legion Auxiliary meeting which followed, the members made plans for observing the November birthdays for those in the Nursing Home. There are three who have birthdays next month. Members volunteered to make and serve two angel food cakes on each of the birthdays.

Members will compile a list of the boys in the service. Families who have someone serving are asked to call the Gazette-Times with names and addresses. Plans are to send holiday boxes to them.

Plans were made to attend the District 6 meeting in Pendleton at the Vert on Oct. 30 at 8 p.m. District 6 will host the annual visitation of Department officers.

The group voted to spend $50. for gifts for the Gift Shop at the Veterans Hospital in Portland. These are gifts for all ages that the veterans may choose from to send to members of their families for Christmas.

Mrs. Clayton Sweek will chairmen the committee.

The Gift Shop usually opens soon after Thanksgiving.

The Legion and Auxiliary have been experimenting with a meeting date that would be more satisfactory. The third Monday of each month was set for the regular meetings.

It's time for payment of dues and members wishing to may send their dues to Mrs. Frank Hamlin.

On Nov. 20, the menu for supper includes elk stew, garlic bread and salads.

Elaine George Home

Elaine George is home from her first two weeks vacation in 20 years. She loved it and wasn't really ready to go back to work Tuesday. Ask her if she had a good time and her answer "I learned how to live!"

After attending the District 2 Soroptimist meeting at The Quay on Oct. 7, she went to Portland where she visited her uncle, Dr. Oscar Borg. Enroute to San Francisco, she visited with friends in Gold Beach.

At San Francisco, one time her home, beautiful weather was with her. She went to many of her favorite places and found some new ones. She spent time at Sacramento and Reno before coming back to Heppner.
