Joan Healy Crowned '72 Queen

A 20-12 Heppner Mustang victory over the Sherman Huskies Oct. 27 highlighted a week of spirit-building activities as Heppner's '72 Homecoming week drew to a close. Joan Healy, senior, was crowned Homecoming Queen at half time of the game by football captain Rick Drake. Her court consisted of senior princesses Barbara Sherman and Kathleen Bartlett and junior princesses Susan Healy and Jean Christman.

The week got off to a start Wednesday with sophomore decoration day and the girls powderpuff football game at noon. The sophomore class decorated the hall with blue and gold streamers and tied some to car handles and antenna. The Junior-senior team, coached by Bill Jepsen and Dale Hedman, was victorious over the freshman-sophomore team, coached by Jerry Gentry, 6-0. The teams were led by quarterbacks Anita Davidson, Sophomore and Susan Healy, junior. Matt Greenup was crowned Homecoming King at half time. Members of his court were Rick Drake, David Eckman, Allen McCabe, seniors, and Jack Chitty, juniors.

Thursday was junior decoration day. The class hung a stuffed gunny sack from the ceiling in the hall to represent a Sherman Huskie. A sign below said, "This is a Sherman Huskie. Take your frustrations out on it." Difficulties were encountered at the Tug-of-

War at noon, though, when the rope kept breaking under the strain. A smaller rope was finally used. The Tug-of-War was called a tie between the juniors and freshmen. The teachers' pep assembly was the high light of the afternoon, when a fake trial was staged for Bobby Sue Rawlins. (Jane Rawlins), and Teen Angel Riley, (Ron Riley), who were on trial for murdering Mr. School Spirit. After each teacher had been presented in the court as witness, Judge V. Lanham dismissed the case due to lack of evidence. Attorneys were Neil Poulson and Dennis Toney for the defense. The burning of the "H", in place of the traditional bonfire, was held behind the bus sheds later in the evening. A downtown pep assembly was staged Friday noon. A regular pep assembly was held in the afternoon and the float parade followed at 4:00 p.m. The junior float was named winner. "Popular Songs," was this year's Homecoming theme and was carried out on the floats. Float judges were Heppner Merchants Marj Gardner, Randall Peterson and Harley Sager. Ron Riley's name was drawn from the raffle box, and he was named the winner of the Pendleton wool blanket which was raffled by the student body during half time of the game.

Style Revue

Home Sweet Home is the theme of the Home Ec girls annual fall Style Revue on Nov. 17 at 1:30 at the High School. Freshman and Sophomore classes are planning and making the refreshments. They are writing the narration for the Junior and Senior girls who will be doing the modeling. Quite a few of the girls have drafted their own patterns.

The girls will also display their home projects. The girls are making cookies they will serve with punch and coffee. Guests are all the girls in the high school and mothers of the Home Ec Girls.

Final Game

Nine Heppner High seniors will be playing their last high school football game Friday, Oct. 28 against Union. They are: Bill Jepsen, Dale Hedman, Allen McCabe, Dave Eckman, Jim Cutforth, Rick Drake, Jim McLachlan, Jeff Marshall and Benham Malcolm.

The Mustangs have ended their league season with a 3-1 record.

Seniors at College Panel

Twenty-five Heppner seniors traveled to Hermiston High School Monday, Oct. 30, to attend a college visitation presented for area schools. The afternoon was divided into three sessions with all participating students attending the first session together. There, each of the major state colleges and universities were described to the students so they would be aware of the opportunities and limitations at each of the schools. For the last two sessions students attended individual classes for the first and second choices of the schools they'd like to attend.

Report

Jim Bier reported at the Chamber of Commerce luncheon Oct. 30 that $325.80, money from ticket sales and donations has brought the balance owing on Heppner's scoreboard down to $292.00. The balance was $617 before the fund-raising this year. This is the 2nd year of a 3-year contract and the balance should be easily paid next year.

Ron Christophersons Here Mr. and Mrs. Ron Christopherson (Bonnie Miller) are visiting here on leave from Texas. On Nov. 10 he will report to the Mountain Home AFB. They were guests of Mrs. Christopherson's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Milton Miller.

Fillics Earn Win at District

The Heppner Fillics scored an impressive win over the Pilot Rock girls at the District Volleyball meet Oct. 28, but lost to Condon in the next match to eliminate them from further competition and any league standings.

Donna Bellamy was Heppner's high-scorer the first game with five points. Jean Christman had four; Susan Healy, three; Kristi Hague-wood, one; and Cyde Allstott, one. The game ended 15-11. The Fillics lost the second game of the match 15-15. Cyde earned seven points for the team; Susan, four; Donna and Joan Christman each one. Heppner High's girls were able to pull through in the final game and earned a romping 15

Bill Gentry to Missouri

Bill Gentry returned last week from a visit in Missouri. He visited his grandmother, Mrs. Clyde Shipp and his uncle, Burl Shipp at Ava. It had been 7 years since he had been back. It was cold and snowy when he left Missouri and there was more snow when his plane stopped in Denver. Heppner looked like the banana belt.

Calif. Vacation

Mr. and Mrs. Vel Robinson had a vacation California way. They went the coast to San Francisco and then had to go inland to Moro Bay because of the slides on the Big Sur. It was their first trip through the giant Redwoods. Visited friends and relatives in Los Angeles and San Diego. Here they enjoyed Sea World and the world famous zoo. They returned home by way of Las Vegas and Reno.
