PGT Pays $1,239,000 Tax Bill To Nine Oregon Counties

SPOKANE - Pacific Gas Transmission Company paid $1,239,488 to nine eastern Oregon counties this week for 1972-1973 property taxes, Vice President-Operations Herbert A. Danielson said today.

By counties, PGT's tax payments were: Morrow, $171,204.88; Umatilla, 131,100.21; Gilliam, 80,322.43; Sherman, 91,936.93; Wasco, 60,744.07; Jefferson, 142,620.56; Crook, 21,417.46; Deschutes, 224,252.46; Klamath, 315,889.35; Total $1,239,488.35.

Pacific Gas Transmission Company revenues come from the sale of Canadian natural gas to Pacific Gas and Electric Company at the Oregon-California border, and from transportation to points along the PGT pipeline of gas owned by others.

PGT owns and operates 352 miles of 36-inch-diameter pipeline in eastern Oregon; compressor stations in Morrow, Sherman, Jefferson, Deschutes and Klamath Counties; maintenance bases in Redmond and Klamath Falls; and several gas measurement and communication stations. All are part of the 1,400-mile Alberta-California natural gas pipeline system.

Two Warrens Killed in Seattle Crash

The community was stunned last weekend when word was received from Seattle of the three-car accident that took the lives of a brother and sister and her friend.

Details of the wreck are sketchy but it occurred about 9:30 Friday evening. Killed instantly were Linda Kay Warren 23 and her friend known here only as Russ. Dennis Delbert Warren, 26, driver of the car, died in a Seattle Hospital about six hours later. Parents of the two are Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Warren of Heppner. Other survivors are a sister, Barbara Warren Bloodworth of Heppner and a brother, Arthur of Ione. Dennis' twin sister, Diane, was killed in an auto accident here in October 1964.

Dennis is also survived by a son, Dennis Raymond Warren and a daughter, Kimberly Dawn Warren, both of Heppner.

Arthur was hunting in the mountains and Mrs. Bloodworth went to the mountains to tell him of the accident.

Graveside services were held Tuesday at High View Cemetery. Contributions may be made to the Warren Scholarship fund at the Bank of Eastern Oregon or Sweeney Mortuary in Heppner.

Debby Warren, junior at Oregon State, accompanied by her sister, Mrs. Victor Klingler and Sheridan of Portland came home to spend this week with the family. They are daughters of Arthur Warren.

Episcopal Church Bazaar

The Episcopal Church's annual Bazaar, "A Christmas Fair", will be held this Saturday, Nov. 18 from 11 a.m. to 3 p.m. at the Episcopal Church Parish Hall. Luncheon will be served from 11 a.m. and a door prize will be given away. The door prize is a lovely large candle which is on display at Murray's Drugs along with some other gifts which will be for sale at the bazaar. There are also some gifts displayed at Sears.

Sunday Morning Collision

Passengers in two cars were considerably shook up Sunday morning when they collided in front of the Paul Warren home north of Heppner. Mr. and Mrs. Leland Millman were turning left to enter the Warren driveway when Curtis Cutsforth attempted to pass.

Both cars were driveable and no one required immediate medical care. Don Wilson was a passenger in the Cutsforth car. Sheriff Mollahan investigated.

Hospital

Patients receiving medical care at Pioneer Memorial Hospital are Lila Crowell, Ione and Tommy Schoolcraft, Kinzua.

Jackie Howell, Spray was dismissed.

Jeanne Daly as Princess of the 1971 Heppner Fair and Rodeo Court.

Jeanne Daly, a Blue Mountain College coed and a Heppner High graduate, has been chosen as the 1973 Morrow County Fair & Rodeo Queen. She is the daughter of Butter Creek ranchers, Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Daly. Announcement was made this week by the Morrow County Fair and Rodeo Board. Pat O'Brien will again be Court chairman.

Jeanne says she is slim, trim and ready and is already thinking about the colors for their outfits. She will be riding a spirited 5-year old by the name of Red Leo.

New Fair Board Chairman

At a meeting of the Morrow County Fair Board on Nov. 8 Helen Acock of Boardman was elected chairman. Dick Schlichting, who has been chairman, will now be serving as a board member.

'Harvey' in final practices

With hopes of a good crowd during Thanksgiving vacation, the cast and crew of 'Harvey' are reaching the final stages of preparation before dress rehearsal, set for Tuesday, Nov. 21.

Mrs. Bill Rawlins, director, has announced this week that anyone who will be unable to attend the regular performances of the play because of the holidays may come to dress rehearsal. Regular admission prices will be in effect.

The play is the robust comedy about Elwood P. Dowd, (John Rawlins,) who owns and lives with an invisible six-foot rabbit, Harvey. The rabbit causes problems at the home of Dowd's sister, Veta Louise Simmons, (Mary Blackaller,) and his niece, Myrtle Mae Simmons, (Cyde Allstott.) One day, amidst the other chaos, tow members of the family are admitted to a sanitarium because of their feelings about Harvey, and even the rabbit's life is threatened!

Several other community adults and students from Heppner High complete the cast of the three-act comedy. Performance nights are Nov. 24 and 25, with curtain time at 8:00 p.m.

Admission will be $1.00 for adults, $.50 for grade school students, with pre-schoolers being admitted free. Reserve seat tickets will be $1.25.

Mark your calendar and don't miss an evening of good entertainment.

Christmas
Opening Here
Next Week!

Yep, it's almost here - Heppner's annual Christmas Opening that arrives each year soon after Thanksgiving. This year the event will be Saturday, November 25.

Early shoppers can get the jump while stocks are complete in Heppner stores. All the stores have put forth a lot of extra effort to obtain the very best merchandise for Christmas gifts they've ever offered.

It's free parking all day in Heppner. Santa Claus will be in town on Saturday. And there will be free candy for the kiddies.

Be sure and plan to come on down town and see your friends and everyone visit with Santa Claus.

Wheat Growers' Dinner Tonight

The annual fall dinner meeting of the Morrow County Wheatgrowers Association will be held tonight Thursday, November 16th at the Ione Legion Hall in Ione at 6:30 p.m.

The speaker for the evening will be Dr. Clinton Reeder, Extension Marketing Management Specialist. His speech is entitled "Horse and Buggy Marketing."

President Jerry Myers says, all wheatgrowers and wives are invited and urged to attend. Door prizes will be awarded.

The dinner will be served by the Legion Auxiliary. The cost will be $1.00 per person.

Ski Run Ready To Go

Improvements have been made at the Arbutuck Ski Course and the requirements for the Forest Service special use permit have been completed. The tow poles have been reset, the county crews and Forest service have laid diversion ditches across the slope under the tow. The landings have been repaired.

Elwayne and Joyce Bergstrom Heppner 4-H Ski Club leaders are anxious to have as many as possible sign up for the club before the insurance application is sent in.

Turks coming!

And no joke's intended. Harold Kerr, county agent here, is making arrangements for a visit here next Monday when some officials from Turkey will visit. They plan to come to Lexington to visit with Larry Mills and look over the Morrow County Grain Growers plant as they are making a study of cooperatives and their operations in the U.S.A.

Five Turkish governors will be in the party accompanied by an assistant under secretary, a Turkish interpreter, an AID representative. With them will be Tom Zinn, former Gilliam County agent who is now in Turkey, and Rex Warren a retired farm crops specialist.

Wool Style Revue To Be Saturday

Make It Yourself With Wool contestants will model their garments for the public this Saturday, Nov. 18th, at B.M.C.C. Theater. The starting time has been changed from 2 p.m. to 1 p.m. according to director, Mrs. Robert Hoskins.

Contestants placing first in the junior and senior divisions will receive an all expense paid trip to the state contest in early December. First place winner in the sub-deb division will receive a wool lambskin rug given by Krebs Brothers Inc. of Cecil. Pendleton wool skirt lengths will be given by the following woolgrowers: Shirley Rugg & Wavel Wilkinson, Jim West, Harold Wright, Stewer Ranches, Joe Doherty Sr., and Cunningham Sheep Co.

Everyone is invited to attend.

Dog Returned - Ad Pays Off

Dear Dorothy & Charlie: Advertising in the Gazette-Times does pay off. Bob Wright of Umatilla saw the "Lost German shorthair" in the G-T. Ralph, our adopted pet, was taken from Heppner and left at Bob's asking if he'd be returned.

We are most happy Ralph hadn't been harmed. Hope the ones who took him had enjoyed him for the short time he was with them. Our sincere thanks to Bob and to all who asked about Ralph.

Sincerely,
The E.E. Gonty Family
