

Unusual Candle Lighting Ceremony Marks Brinkman-Krebs Rites

When Jane Ellen Krebs became the bride of Ronald C. Brinkman, part of the service was an unusual candle lighting ceremony. The groom lit a candle on his side of the altar upon entering the sanctuary. The bride lit her candle after entering. After they were pronounced man and wife, each took their individual candles and together lit a center candle and then extinguished the flames of the individual candles.

The wedding was on Oct. 28 at 2 p.m. at the United Church of Christ in Ione with Rev. William Arthur officiating.

Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. Henry R. Krebs, Ione, and Mr. and Mrs. Clair Brinkman of Chinook, Mont.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride's gown was white satin with lace over the satin bodice and lace trim on the empire waist. Her elbow length veil was of nylon tulle. The bridal bouquet was made up of mandarin carnations and yellow mums.

Maid of honor was Cheri Carlson. She wore a floor length gown of mandarin orange with an empire waist and lace over the bodice. Her bouquet was yellow and white mums.

Candle lighters were Glen Krebs, brother of the bride, and Wade West, a cousin.

Clint Krebs, the bride's brother, served as best man, with Skye Krebs, brother of the bride, and Robert Hultden of Arlington were ushers.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Krebs wore a mandarin orange dress. Grandmothers attending were Mrs. Henry W. Krebs, Arlington, and Mrs. Art Boner of Phoenix, Ore.

The wedding reception was held at the church following the ceremony. The cake was made and decorated by Mrs. Pete Hams, Ione. The table was decorated with bouquets of white mums and mandarin orange carnations with mandarin orange flame candles and pearl grapes in wreaths.

Mrs. A. R. Mercer and Mrs. James West, aunts of the bride, were cutting cake and Mrs. Henry W. Krebs and Mrs. Art Boner, grandmothers, poured.

Clay West, a Cousin, attended the gift table and Susan Mercer, bride's cousin, was in charge of the guest book.

For a wedding trip to Montana, the bride wore a brown and orange dress with an orange coat. The couple will reside in Havre, Montana.

The new Mrs. Brinkman graduated from Ione High School in 1971 and attended Montana State University. The groom attended Chinook High School and is now employed by Burlington Northern Railroad.

Mothers Club

Mrs. Gus Nikander presented an interesting demonstration of China Painting at the November meeting of Mother's Club. Several pieces of finished china were displayed as well as the pieces painted at the meeting.

The group met at the home of Mrs. Barbara Jessmer. Mrs. Don Burwell served refreshments.

Plans were made for the next meeting which will be held on Dec. 11. Mrs. Don Johnson will be the hostess for an International Potluck Dinner. After dinner Christmas wreaths will be made for the hospital.

Guests for the evening were: Mrs. Dick Calvert, Mrs. John Messick, and Mrs. Don Bellamy.

Trio sees musical comedy

Mrs. Don Cole accompanied by her mother Mrs. Ed Chadwick and Mr. Cole's mother, Mrs. R. B. Cole, both of Baker, went to Portland last weekend Saturday afternoon they went to see the musical comedy "Applause" and saw Fiddler on the Roof in the evening. They shopped on Sunday and came home.

Ginger still on the Go

This year Ginger Wilkinson is serving as vice chairman of the Masonic and Eastern Star Home board. The home is at Forest Grove. In this capacity she meets with the board once a month in Forest Grove.

She attended receptions for the Grand line Eastern Star officers. Last week she attended the reception at Sweet Home for Marjory Wilson, Grand Conductress. Earlier that day she had attended a luncheon at Tigard of "Ginger's Jewels". These are her counterparts throughout the state during her year as Worthy Grand Matron.

The last reception this fall will be held at Lake Oswego on Nov. 25 for Dorothy Parrish, associate Grand conductress.

Film Bluebirds With Soroptimists

This noon film "The Story of a Beef" will be shown to the Soroptimists and their guests the Bluebirds. The film grew from a Cattleman's Convention skit arranged by the Baker County CowBelles some years back. The women went on to produce the film which is being shown here through arrangements with Mrs. Merlin Hughes, Morrow County CowBelle president. Don Stangel of the Extension Office will be projectionist.

For many years the Soroptimists have been sponsors of the Heppner Bluebird group. Mrs. Harley Sager is the group leader who will bring the girls to luncheon today. They will tell about some of the things they are doing this year.

One of the projects that the Bluebirds help the clubwomen with is the annual Valentine party in the Pioneer Memorial Hospital's geriatric section. Today's meeting will be a "getting-to-know-you" affair for both feminine organizations.

MR. AND MRS. G.E. NIKANDER had week-end guests from the Vancouver, B.C. area. Mr. and Mrs. Harold Rogers of Coquitlam and Mr. and Mrs. Howard McDougal, New Westminster are friends of long standing of the Nikanders.

Vida Bundy Younger Sparkles On T.V.

A former Morrow woman, Vida Bundy Younger, came back into county homes via KGW - T.V. last Thursday. Vida was featured on the evening news from Portland as she demonstrated her profession. She has been employed by the Boyd Coffee Company for over 20 years as a coffee taster.

Vida was born near Lexington and lived there until she finished high school. Her mother Linda Gray was a sister of Merrit Gray's father, and Mrs. Faye Ruhl, Lexington, and Vida's dad's name is "Mont" Gray. He farmed and operated a dairy while they lived in the county.

Members of the Soroptimist Club who have met her this fall at district meetings at Grangeville, Id. and at Vancouver, Wn. have been so charmed by her friendliness and efficiency.

In 1974 when the Soroptimist Federation of the Americas has its national convention in Portland, Oregon, Vida will be in charge as general chairman. She has been an outstanding member of the Portland club and has held several regional offices.

TURKEYS

While the Sam Steers were out Elk hunting they were indescribably thrilled to see three flocks of turkeys. They saw 15 in one flock and 5 and 4 in two other flocks. "They were just beautiful." They weren't afraid of the pickup and were all on the ground.

Gee I hate to think of an open season on Turkeys before I get to see a flock of them.

PHIL

Phil a former printer of ours who was the 1965 National Liar of the year writes this "nutty" little letter of his that appeared in Doug Baker's column in the Oregon Journal week ago last Saturday. In a previous column, Doug was wondering why baseball players spit more than other athletes - Phil wrote about seeing a baseball game years ago being stopped on account of spit. Also the well-documented case of a baseball player clobbering a spit ball and swimming to first base.

(craziest things come into my noggin, he writes) Mr. Baker told Phil he should enter that in Burlington's Liars Club. Phil says, "If he only knew about my notorious title." Anyway he did enter this little jewel along with another half-dozen or so little ditties. Now we'll wait and see if he wins another first.

The Heppner grades had their Thanksgiving dinner on Nov. 15. The cooks fix a layer of turkey and then a layer of dressing with good turkey gravy. Sounds delicious.

I like what the little girl said after eating turkey for the first time. "I didn't like the turkey so well but I sure liked the bread he ate."

Blue Birds

Anybody who feels the need of helping someone else could volunteer to work with 8 - 10 Blue Bird girls every other week for an hour. Crafts and local field trips and treats.... that you furnish when one of the little girls forgets. If two helpers could be found the groups could be smaller with say 7 - 8 which is about right. If this is your cup of tea and you're just waiting to be discovered, call Bertha Sager 676-9917.
