

Ione Residents attend meeting in Spokane

By CASSANDRA CHAPEL

Mr. and Mrs. Milton Morgan were in Spokane last week to attend the fall meeting of the Federal Land Bank. They attended the retirement dinner for Fred Knutsen, president of the bank, who is retiring after 39 years of service to the organization. The gala affair was held at the Ridpath Hotel. The ladies were entertained at a brunch and style show at the Bon Marche and Mrs. Joe Carter, a former resident of Pendleton, hosted a luncheon at her home on Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Heim-bigner went to Portland Thursday, November 9th and spent the night with their daughter and son-in-law Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Vincent Jr.

Susan Lindstrom is home visiting for a few days. She is now living in San Francisco.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Lindstrom went to Condon for an Eastern Star meeting.

The Jr. High School classes of the United Church of Christ had a rally. It was Sunday at 3:00. The Jr. High class hosted it. Mrs. Bill Rietmann played the piano and everybody joined in a session of singing after the Devotional.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Heim-bigner received word that their son 1st Lt. Tom Heim-bigner received a broken hand while playing football at his base in Thailand. He will be sidelined from flying duties for about 6 weeks.

Gene Crowell is home from Germany for a thirty day leave.

Wedding For
Mr. and Mrs. John Belknap
On November 11, Stella Clark and John Belknap, both of Cecil, were married by Rev. William Arthur at the Ione United Church of Christ. The small wedding was attended by relatives and a few close friends. The women of the church, under the direction of Mrs. William Arthur, assisted the couple in planning a reception. The groom is employed by Kinzua Corporation and the couple will be living in Ione.

Ione Garden Club Members To Make Christmas Swags

The November meeting of the Ione Garden Club was held at the home of Mrs. Wallace Wolff last Wednesday. Mrs. Ed Cutting and Mrs. James Driscoll were co-hostesses.

The Garden Club welcomed a new member, Mrs. Riley Munkers and presenter her with a green thumb. Year books were assembled and distributed.

Mrs. Wolff was appointed to represent the Ione Garden Club in the district project of plant identification on the Bombing Range. Mrs. Gar Swanson reported the floral arrangements made by garden club members displayed at the Bank of Eastern Oregon in Ione this summer and fall have been greatly admired and appreciated. The members voted to feature the arrangements at the bank instead of their usual fall flower show.

Mrs. Van Hubbard, president of the club, appointed a committee to make Christmas swags for the business houses in Ione. Mrs. Swanson gave a short talk on "What the American Flag Means to Me". Mrs. Wolff showed slides on bird feeders and bird houses and gave some hints on their construction. Following the business meeting many of the members started work on the construction of either a bird house or bird feeder.

Imels Travel to Portland
Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Imel went to Portland last weekend to attend the 25th wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Ivan Hardy. The reception was held at Oregon City from 2 to 5 p.m. There were over 300 people there. Both of the Imels were raised there so they renewed many old acquaintances. Later in the afternoon they attended a dinner at the home of their son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. James Imel, honoring Herbert's brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Imel on their 47th wedding anniversary. Incidentally, Sunday was Jim Imel's birthday, too.

The Ione Rainbow Assembly had a traveling food sale Nov. 11. It was very successful.

Shrine Caravan

On Nov. 10 the annual Shriners' caravan started out from near Boise, Idaho and proceeded west gathering cars, people and gifts as they went along. Herm Winter, John Wood, Claude Graham and Don Gilliam from Morrow County joined the caravan at Boardman when they stopped for lunch. Les Grant joined at Arlington. They took about 75-100 doz. cookies, 700 lbs. of potatoes, from D.O. Nelson, and $10,280 in cash. The $280 was local contributions and $10,000 was a bequest from an estate. Mr. Winter's car was the 50th in the caravan and there were plenty behind him by the time they arrived at the Portland Shriner's Hospital.

On Saturday Mr. Winter and those with him had the opportunity to enjoy a beautiful, sunny day in Portland by attending the California-Oregon State football game which turned out to be very exciting.

At the Wednesday safety meeting at Camp Five there were twenty eight in attendance. Hershel Murdock received 1,000 green stamps for perfect attendance. Chuck Vader was introduced as Kinzua Corporation's new safety director.

Friday Mrs. Bud Dunlap and Mrs. Hershel Murdock went to The Dalles for business, shopping and eye care for Wanda.

Visiting Mr. and Mrs. Bill O'Neal over the weekend were Mr. and Mrs. Bill Stumper and family of Portland.
