

Lex Grange Plans Progressive Dinner for Christmas

By Delpha Jones

Lexington Grange will meet on Dec. 18 with a progressive dinner as part of the Christmas party. After the dinner there will be a gift exchange and slides of earlier parties and programs of the Lexington Grange presented by Dorris Graves of Hardman. Homes to be visited during the evening will be announced later.

Holly Rebekah Lodge met at the hall for their regular meeting with the NG presiding. Election of officers was held. Elected were Mrs. A.F. (Freida) Majeske as NG; Mrs. Florence McMillan as VG; Mrs. C.C. (Delpha) Jones as Sec. and Mrs. Frank (Ruth) Robinson as Treas. Mrs. Irene Padberg 3 year trustee. Mrs. Ada Eskelson was issued a transfer to Sunbeam in Hermiston and Mrs. Maureen Davis was reinstated from a withdrawal certificate. Plans were further discussed concerning the initiation and Christmas Party. The Party will start at 6:00 p.m. on Dec. 22 with a turkey potluck dinner and program followed by an exchange of gifts and treats. This is for members and their families and invited guests.

Card Party

The second in the series of card parties was held on Sat. night with 6 tables present. Winning hi were: men, Richard Peck, and low Kenneth Marshall. Women Hi, Ardith Hunt and low Madge Bryant. The next meeting will be Jan. 6th.

Mr. and Mrs. C.C. Jones attended the installation of Grange officers held at the Willows Grange all in Ione Sat. A lovely potluck dinner followed. The installing team was present from Baker with Bob Coble acting as installing officer.

Mr. and Mrs. Norm Williams spent the Thanksgiving holidays with his parents Mr. and Mrs. Cliff Williams.

Mrs. Bill B. Marquardt & Mrs. T.E. Messenger visited Penny Marquardt in Portland over the weekend.

Several members of the Lexington Grange Women's activity group met at the home of Mrs. Norman Nelson, on Wed and motored to Pasco, where they were guests of the Health Spa at Columbia Center. After the tour the ladies enjoyed some shopping and sight seeing of the beautifully decorated shops, and enjoyed a no hostess lunch at Farrells before returning home. Those attending were Mrs. Wilbur Steagall, Mrs. Florence McMillan, Mrs. C.C. Jones, Mrs. Alfred Nelson, Jr. and Mrs. Norman Nelson, Mrs. Wavel Wilkinson of Heppner and sister of Hermiston.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry M. Breeding of Gresham, spent the weekend with his mother, Lola Breeding.

Herb Connall of LaGrande, who is with Grange Mutual Life Company, was an Ione & Lexington visitor Saturday.

Jaycees Progressive Dinner to be Held

Heppner Jaycees will have their annual progressive dinner this Saturday, Dec. 9 beginning with cocktails at the Clyde Allstott home at 7 p.m. The appetizers will be served at Archie Ball's, soup at Jerry Holloman's, the main course at the Legion Hall and on to the Marv Gerking's for dessert. The evening will be topped off with a party and dance at the Legion Hall. Gag gifts will be exchanged.

All Jaycees and their guests are invited to attend. Also any prospective Jaycee members are most welcome.

The Kinzua Mountaineer Square Dance Club danced Friday evening at the Schoolhouse with Bob Jewitt of Condon as caller. During the business meeting, the Club set their next dance to be December 16th with a farewell potluck preceding the dance honoring Mr. and Mrs. Bob Jewitt. Those attending the dance Friday were the Jewitts and Mr. and Mrs. Jim Cochran of Condon, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Bell of Fossil, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Norris, Mr. and Mrs. Herschel Murdock, and Glen Perkins, all of Kinzua.
