Lexington Tops Party Set

A Christmas party featuring low-calorie salads and a gift exchange will be held on Monday, December 18 at the Weatherford parsonage. This day-time club is happy to have Mrs. R. B. Cogburn as a new member and Mrs. Eva Griffith as a return member.

The weight-losing TOPS of Lexington are having a Christmas tree ornament contest. Each member has contributed several tree ornaments-and for the next several meetings at the Lexington City Building those who lose poundage will get to select ornaments to put on their family trees.

Heppner Schools Plan Christmas Programs

Grade School

On Tuesday, Dec. 19, the grade school will have their Christmas program in the Jr. High auditorium. Music will be provided by Mr. Jespersen's classes, grades 1-8, and Mr. Hildebrandt's band classes, grades 5, 6, 7, & 8. This is the first year that the 5th grade band has participated in the program. The music will consist mostly of traditional Christmas songs. The first and second graders will present a skit, "The Christmas Butterfly" which includes both dialogue and songs. Some of the other songs will be "How Far to Bethlehem", by the 4th grade, "Silver Bells", by the 5th and 6th grades and the 7th and 8th grades girls chorus will sing five or six special choral arrangements of Christmas songs.

High School

The Heppner High School Band and Chorus will have their Christmas program on Dec. 21 at 7:30 p.m. in the high school auditorium. There will be many beautiful Christmas songs played and sung. Among the selections the band will present will be "Do You Hear What I Hear" and "White Christmas". The chorus' music will range from Renaissance to contemporary Christmas music. Some of their selections will be "Sister Mary Had a But One Child", "Sleigh Ride" and "Bless The Lord". The chorus is under the direction of Bob Jespersen and the band is directed by Larry Hildebrandt.

Heppner Community Kindergarten

The Kindergarten program will be presented on Dec. 20 at 7 p.m. in the grade school multi-purpose room. The children will sing Christmas songs and there will be some poems recited. Santa Claus will be at the party and distribute gifts for the little ones. This will also be the kindergarteners' Christmas party.

Scouts Sell Christmas Trees

The Heppner Boy Scouts brought in about 140 Christmas trees to the Ford Garage lot, TV last Saturday. Because of the cold weather, the boys have not been able to man it. Anyone wishing to take a tree is invited to choose one and leave the money at the Elks Club, Gazette-Times, John Gochnaur or Glen Ward. Charges are about $1.00 a foot but for only the good part, the boys say.

Del Piper and Dail Turner took a group of boys up on Kinzua land on Jug Creek to cut trees. Kenny Turner, Art Ward, John Morris, Glen Ward, Orville Cutsforth, Herman
