Lexington

Mr. and Mrs. William J. Van Winkle of Lexington were able to have their family together for a few days during Christmas for the first time in seven years.

Home for the holidays were Fred Van Winkle, a teacher in San Francisco; Mr. and Mrs. Michael Kerr, San Francisco; Mr. and Mrs. Don Van Winkle and their son William from Salem; Billy Van Winkle, Hermiston; Mr. and Mrs. Bob Van Winkle and their daughter Theresa from Pendleton; and Glenda Kay, home from Blue Mountain in Pendleton. Cleo Van Winkle was also at their home over the holidays.

A Christmas dinner in honor of Florence McMillan was held at the C.C. Jones home Christmas day. All of Mrs. McMillan's children and grandchildren with the exception of one were able to be home for the day.

Besides the Jones, other guests were Mr. and Mrs. Dale Whitney and Kimberlee from Portland; Rick Whitney and fiance, Portland; Mr. and Mrs. Kenny Jones, Lexington; Mr. and Mrs. Stuart Smith, Hermiston, and their family; Mr. and Mrs. G.E. Irvin and Bill of Baker; Mr. and Mrs. Bob Cool and family of Pendleton; Mr. and Mrs. Bill Waldon of Tigard; Wade Sawyer, Richland, Wa.; and John Smith, Lexington. Mr. and Mrs. John Karran were the only ones who were unable to be here for Christmas. Mrs. Karran is Mrs. McMillan's granddaughter.

Soroptimist Citizenship Applications

More Soroptimist Youth Citizenship application blanks have arrived. All Seniors, boys and girls, are invited to fill one out. The applications are at the Heppner Gazette-Times. Besides the usual student activities, community activities and leadership activities, applicants are asked to write in 100 words on (1.) What do you consider your citizenship responsibility in the family? (2.) State your views of your citizenship responsibilities in the Community and (3.) How do you view your role as a citizen of the World?

The application blanks should be turned back into the Gazette-Times by Jan. 10.

Soroptimists believe in the integrity, worth and ability of youth. In recognition of the outstanding contributions by young people in these fields of endeavor and to encourage youth to develop the highest concept of patriotism and more effective cooperation in home, community, national and international affairs, the Soroptimist Youth Citizenship awards have been established. The Heppner Soroptimist Club presents the first place winner with a $25 bond and second place is presented with a check of a lesser amount.

First place winner then competes in the District where the winner receives $100.

EDUCATION FUND

During a special meeting of the lone High School Student Body Friday morning, a presentation was made by the Junior Class to Melissa Rowell education fund in memory of her mother, Shirley Nichols Rowell.

The check was received by Melissa's father, Mike Rowell. This fund is being handled by the Bank of Eastern Oregon and anyone wishing to contribute may contact Larry Prock at the bank in Ione.

Exchange Program for Morrow

Morrow County has been selected as one of five counties in Oregon to receive foreign exchange students from Japan during late July and early August, 1973.

Thirty families in the county will be hosting the Japanese students, both boys and girls, ranging in age from 13 to 17. During the student's visit, he is to see the way of life in the area as it normally is. Host families are supposed to plan nothing special to entertain their guest.

The exchange student program is in cooperation with the Oregon State Extension service. Next summer, students from Morrow County and other counties in Oregon will have an opportunity to return the visit.

Coordinator for Morrow County is Mrs. Bob Davidson, who will meet with other coordinators in Corvallis Jan. 18 and 19 to work on plans for the summer's activities. It is hoped that those families hosting an exchange student will be able to begin communicating soon with the student and his or her family.

Athena Trips Pirates

Riverside's score of their second game with Athena Dec. 22 was not as one-sided as their first game. Friday's score was 88 to 48 in favor of Athena.
