

Cindy Barnett Chose Gold Tones for her Wedding to Dean Wright

An evening ceremony Nov. 24 in Hope Lutheran Church in Heppner united in marriage Cindy Barnett, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Dave Barnett, Ione, and Dean Wright, son of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Wright, Heppner. The church was decorated in fall colors of orange and gold. Rev. Johnson officiated at the double ring ceremony.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a floor-length gown of white taffeta with an over-apron of lace in the front and back. Her floor length veil was ruffled at the crown and she carried a white orchid on a Bible.

Maid of Honor was Mrs. Phil

Ayres, Bremerton, Wa., sister of the bride. Bridesmaids were Mrs. John Currin, sister of the groom; Mrs. David Wallace, Portland; Monty Kinder, Hillsboro, sister of the bride; and Mrs. Bill Greenup, Pendleton. The bridesmaids wore floor-length gold gowns with over-aprons of chiffon print, edged in lace. The Maid of Honor's gown was orange, also with the chiffon over-apron edged in lace. All the attendants carried gold spider mums.

Best man was Gary Watkins, Heppner. Groomsmen were Greg Greenup, Heppner; Mark Hopkins, Heppner; Rollie Aune, Seattle, cousin of the bride; and Phil Ayres, Bremerton, Wa.

Ushers and candlelighters were John Currin, Pendleton, and Rick Barnett, Ione. The men wore gold jackets with orange ruffled shirts and black bow ties.

Flower girl was Nicki Ayres, niece of the bride. Ring Bearer was Scott Barnett, Ione, brother of the bride. Julie Zinter sang "The Wedding Song" and "Love Can Make You Happy," accompanied by Mrs. Lucia Cutsforth at the organ.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Barnett wore a floor-length gown of orange wool plaid, with black accessories. She had an orange tint corsage. Mrs. Wright's floor length gown was in two shades of green crushed velour, trimmed in nylon crepe. She used silver accessories and wore a white carnation corsage.

Lutheran Women Host Reception

The women of the Lutheran Church hosted the reception following the ceremony. Orange and gold flowers carried out the brides colors on the five tier wedding cake. Orange candles in a silver candelabra decorated the table.

Mrs. Darrell Vinson, Heppner and Mrs. Johnny Jackson, grandmother of the bride, cut and served the cake. Mrs. Ray Barnett, the bride's grandmother, poured coffee, and Mrs. Pearl Wright, the groom's grandmother, served the tea. The punch bowl was attended by Mrs. Vernon Aune. D-Ann Barnett had the guest book. Mrs. Frank Halvorson, Cheri Carlson and Linda Clough took care of the gift table.

Going Away

For going away, the bride wore a brown knit pant suit with a gold ruffled blouse. She used brown accessories and an orchid corsage topped off the outfit. After a wedding trip to Lake Chelan, the couple is at home in Heppner.

Cindy is a 1972 graduate of Ione High School and was employed at the Frances Shop in Pendleton before her marriage. Dean is a '72 graduate of Heppner High School and is employed on his father's ranch.

Look Alikes: The Christmas wreath on the Don Coles front door and the one on the front page of the December Family Circle.

Small World: Peggy Connor and Betty Rugg came from Pilot Rock Thursday and we went to the Drive In for coffee. Like long lost friends Reita Harris and Betty Rugg had lived next door neighbors in Pilot Rock when Reita was Reita Jean Peterson and was a very little girl. She is a sister of Dr. Kenneth Peterson, dentist we went to at John Day. Does she go to her brother? "Oh no I won't let his hands in my mouth. He remembers too many childhood grievances." Well...it was fun.

Christmas is come and gone and Phil hasn't had time to print my Christmas letter. I wonder if my friends will care if they get a Ground Hogs Day letter this year. It's just like the Shoemaker's children has no shoes. Two weeks late but Merry Christmas and a Happy 1973! To all of us.

Health Insurance Topic for Extension

Have you looked at your health insurance policy lately? Did you read all the small print, and did you really understand all the terms in the policy? Did your policy cover you and your family in each case of illness or accident, and to what extent? How does Medicare work for you? Have you been reading or hearing about proposed national health programs? Extension women asked for more information and help in understanding health insurance as costs of health care and hospitalization rise nationwide. Marilyn Lunner, Family Fi-
