

Mustang Mustang Rack Up Two More Wins

By Greg Green
By squeaking past two major contenders last weekend, the Mustangs have set themselves in a second place tie with three other teams in league play.

Heppner defeated Wasco Co. 61-59 and edged Pilot Rock on the Mustang home court in a thriller, 64-62. McEwen of Athena holds first place in the Columbia Basin League with a 5-1 record. Heppner shares second with Condon and Umatilla, all 4-2.

The Mustangs found themselves down by as many as 17 points during the first half but were able to pull within 11 as the half ended.

Pilot Rock Game
A 24 point spree in the third quarter brought Heppner back into the game with a 53-48 lead at the end of the 3rd period.

The fourth quarter was tough and go up to the final minute. Pilot Rock missed two free throws but rebounded and scored to tie the game. Heppner then lost the ball to the Rockets on a traveling violation with 30 seconds left.

Kenny Eckman stole the ball and scored the winning lay in. Pilot Rock missed scoring chances from the field and the foul line before the game was Kenny Eckman scored the winning points in the neck 'n neck Mustang-Pilot Rock contest Saturday.

Heppner out shot the Rockets from the bonus line 61 per cent to 42 per cent. From the field, the Mustangs dumped only 35 per cent to Pilot Rock's 43 per cent.

Kenny Eckman, John Boyer and Lloyd Wilson led the home team in scoring with 13 points apiece. Allen McCabe had 10 and Dale Hedman dumped 8. Wilson brought down 14 rebounds for the winning team.

Wasco Co Contest
The Mustangs found themselves down 9 points with 2:40 left on the clock then rallied on a scoring spree to a two point victory.

A break away play by Boyer and Greg Green tied the game in the last seconds. Then a steal followed by a Boyer layup capped the win.

Most of the game was close with the halftime score 43-41 in favor of the Redsidies. Heppner lead by 1 at the end of the 3rd period.

Again the Mustangs were outshot from the field. This time 34 per cent to Maupin's 37 per cent. Both teams hit 55 per cent from the free throw line.

Boyer led all scores by quite a distance with 32 counters. McCabe netted 8 points and Mike Bergstrom scored 7 and grabbed 11 rebounds (most in the crucial last minutes.) Wilson recovered 13 rebounds.
