The birds are delighted to have the ice off the bird bath in our back yard. One morning this week, they were lined up to take their turn at bathing and drinking. I've only seen one robin. But Sunday morning a Meadow Lark sang and sang from up in the pasture. I know they tell me he was establishing his territory...but I chose to think he was a happy bird.

Hansell's Economy Plan
We got an interesting brochure, the "economy model" on School Finance and Tax Program, a Hansell-Newby proposed State change.

Haven't got to study it in detail yet but I like the 57 percent support of operating costs of schools better in the Hansell plan than the 100 percent of the Governor's plan. Staff Hansell has been there before and he really squeezes my nickels and this what it takes.

In summary the "economy plan" lists 11 goals:

1. New Tax base for schools.
2. 57 percent School Support
3. 27 percent property tax relief
4. Provides Property Tax limitation
5. Avoids State-wide property tax (Hooray)
6. No major shift in taxes
7. Moderate increase in Income taxes (I'd rather go this way than Sales Tax.)
8. Satisfies Seranno Case
9. Keeps Local Control (It may be slipping but we still have some.)
10. Encourages economy in school.
11. Keeps pressure on State Budget.

If you have a chance to see one of those brochures, study it. You'll find it interesting.

Ski at Spout Springs

Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Nelson went to Spout Springs for the weekend. There was fresh snow Sunday morning and the skiing was good. They met Mr. and Mrs. Mike Farrel of Pullman. Mrs. Farrel and Mrs. Nelson were former school mates. Mrs. Nelson twisted her knee but was only limping by Monday.

Tops Clubs See Changes

A big change to TOPS Clubs in eastern Oregon comes with the resignation of Mrs. Fern Christian, Pendleton, as area supervisor for TOPS Club, Inc. Mrs. Dorothy Davis, La Grande, has been appointed her replacement as of Feb. 3, the Regional Director, Joanne Wynveen has announced.

The Lexington Club has varied its regular schedule of exercise at 2:00 and meeting at 2:30 by calling a special program for next Monday, Feb. 12. Members are to bring low-calorie salads (and their recipes) to the Lex. City Hall at 1:00. After the weighing-in and luncheon, Mrs. Elsie Allyn Fox will lead the muscle-toning exercises and club leader Mrs. Erda Piper will chair the business meeting. Mrs. Frank Anderson, Ruggs, and Mrs. Evelyn Gulick, Sandhollow, are being welcomed as new members of this Lexington club.

All clubs regret Mrs. Christian's resignation. She became area supervisor when there were only 6 clubs in eastern Oregon in 1969; now there are 74 clubs in the area and the load is more than she can continue to carry. All clubs are working on plans for the State Recognition Day to be held in Pendleton next May 17 and 18. These clubs are open to persons of either sex and of any race or creed.

Degree of Honor Installation

On Jan. 23, six ladies from Kate J. Young Lodge No. 29, Degree of Honor, went to Pendleton to install officers of Magnolia Lodge No. 34, Degree of Honor.

Clara Gertson, State Organizer, was installing officer with Mary Bryant, Bernice Nash and Ida Farra as her assistants. Lovely gifts were presented the Installing Team by the ladies of Magnolia Lodge.

Refreshments of cake and coffee were served. It was decided that Ida Farra was the windiest one present as she was able to blow a balloon up the largest, thereby winning the door prize of a lovely candle.

Tom Sullivan Issues Challenge to Soroptimist Club

Three Heppner High School senior girls were warmly greeted at the Soroptimist Club luncheon meeting Thursday. They were three busy seniors who had taken time to fill out the application for the Soroptimist Citizenship award. The three were so close that the six member committee split evenly with two votes for each girl. A qualified and new person of the community read the application forms and the letters of recommendation that had been written for each one. The 1st winner's application has been sent in for district judging. Because of the caliber of the applications, the club voted to give two second prizes of $10. These were presented to Shanney Farley and Tami Meador. LouAnne Kelly won first place for the $25 Bond.

New Member
With the announcement that Carolyn Davis was to be welcomed as a new member, the Soroptimists greeted her with a round of applause.

Several applications have gone out for the Training Awards Program scholarship. These must be back into Mary Eleanor Gilman at First National or Dorothy Heard at the Gazette-Times by Feb. 10. Any woman who needs to meet changing demands in employment or wishes to enter the job market or to upgrade skills for advancement in their careers may apply. The scholarship is granted on the regional level and up to two $1000 scholarships may be granted Northwestern Region.
