

Tangerine And Yellow Are Wedding Colors Chosen For Rietmann-Smith Wedding

A lily of the valley design in silk embroidery accented the silk organza gown worn by Vera Lou Smith at her recent marriage to Wayne Edmond Rietmann, Mrs. Carrie Smith, The Dalles, and Mr. and Mrs. David Rietmann, Ione, are the parents of the couple.

The Rev. Milton Hopper conducted the evening single ring ceremony at the Evangelical Church of North America in The Dalles, Oct. 28, 1972.

The church was decorated with matching baskets of yellow Princess Anne chrysanthemums. Fall leaves and wheat arrangements were used for altar flowers and the church pews were accented with variegated autumn-colored ribbon bows.

Brother Gives Bride

The bride, given in marriage by her oldest brother, Arthur Smith and by her mother, wore a floor length gown which featured an Empire bodice with a shallow scoop neckline. The back of the gown was accented with a bias band of bouquet taffeta which formed a deep bow at the back. A deep fold of taffeta at the hemline gave the appearance of an overskirt. The chapel length train was of double taffeta Watteau, and the elbow length butterfly veil of English silk illusion was held in place by a cap of lilies of the valley and small white roses. The bridal bouquet was a cascade of white miniature carnations and Hawaiian Delight roses.

Mrs. Elsie Drinkard, Moro, sister of the bride, was Matron of Honor, and Mrs. Ernest Smith, Gresham, sister-in-law of the bride, was bridesmatron. They wore gowns of tangerine dacron accented with yellow embroidery trim. Their bouquets were nosegays of yellow Princess Anne chrysanthemums with autumn hued ribbons.

Flower girls were Cindy Lou Drinkard, Moro, and Mollie Lou Smith, Gresham, nieces of the bride. They wore floor-length

Granny gowns which featured tangerine bodices and yellow daisy print skirts, trimmed with yellow. Their flower baskets were filled with yellow Princess Anne chrysanthemums, fall leaves, and stalks of wheat.

Harold W. Rietmann, Ione, brother of the groom served as best man. Ushers were the bride's brother, Ernest Smith, Gresham, and cousins of the groom, Donald Bristow and John Rietmann, both of Ione.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Smith wore a yellow crocheted sheath dress with crystal and rhinestone jewelry. The groom's mother, Mrs. Rietmann, attended the ceremony in a white on peach dress with pearl jewelry.

Reception Follows
The reception, following the ceremony, was held in the Social Room of the church. The reception table was decorated in the bridal colors, tangerine, yellow and white, accented by lovely brown German candelabras which held large candles of tangerine and yellow. The four-tier wedding cake was accented with the bridal colors and garlands of green fern. The floral arrangements of chrysanthemums were designed by Mrs. Russel Larkins.

Attending the guest book was a special guest, Mrs. Richard Bowers, Lawton, Oklahoma. She was assisted by the bride's nephew, George W. Drinkard III, Moro. Mrs. Jodie Morrison, Ione, poured the coffee and tea, and the punch was served by Mrs. Rober Barnhouse, The Dalles. Serving the wedding cake were Mrs. Lawrence Deardoff and Mrs. Bill Dodson, Jr., The Dalles.

Going Away
For her going away ensemble the bride selected a tangerine dress with white accessories, and pearl earrings and a pearl necklace, a gift from the groom. Her corsage was of white miniature carnations and Hawaiian Delight roses. The couple honeymooned at the Oregon coast.

The groom's parents hosted the rehearsal dinner at the Mirror Room of the Recreation Restaurant in The Dalles. A bridal shower was given by Mrs. Rober Barnhouse.

The bride, a graduate of The Dalles Senior High School and of The Dalles School of Beauty, has been employed at Vera's Beauty Salon, The Dalles. The groom is a graduate of Ione Senior High School and of the Oregon School of Technology. He is now associated with his father and brother in wheat ranching in the Ione area.

The couple is residing near Ione.

Festival

Mr. and Mrs. Bill Collins and Lisa were in Eugene last weekend. Bill and Daisy attended the International Square Dance Festival. Two callers were there from Canada to guide the 1200 square dancers through their paces at the Lane County Fair Grounds. Among those going from this area were Earl and Carol Norris and Herschel and Betty Murdock of Camp 5.

The Collins visited with their daughter and family the David Tottlebeins at Harrisburg and Bill's brothers, the Ted Collins at Eugene.

SUSAN CHALLY

Mr. and Mrs. Lowell Chally of La Grande, Oregon announce the engagement and forthcoming marriage of their daughter, Susan Marie, to Dale S. Skinner, son of Mr. and Mrs. Gaylord Skinner of Auburn, Washington. The traditional candle passing ceremony was held on the campus of Northwest Christian College in Eugene last fall where both are students. The wedding is planned for March 17 at the Allison Park Christian church in Eugene, at 2 p.m.

Mrs. Pettyjohn Visits in Wichita

Mrs. Jim Pettyjohn has returned from a visit to Wichita, Kansas. She went back to be with Mr. and Mrs. David Wright and the new baby boy, Albert James. She remained in Wichita for 12 days. Mrs. Wright is the former Linda Pettyjohn. She got along very well.

This was the first time Mrs. Pettyjohn has been in Wichita and the first time to fly. She liked flying and was surprised at how far she could see. She saw the new civic building at Wichita, Century II which is a huge round building. It is said to be big enough to hold five concerts at the same time. "Kansas has lots of wide open spaces."

ATTEND THE BALLET IN PORTLAND

Mrs. A.D. McMurdo and Miss Mildred Clowry accompanied Mrs. McMurdo's niece, Mrs. David Baum of La Grande to Portland last Friday. They attended two performances of the Canadian National Ballet at the Civic Auditorium. Rudolf Nureyev, the famous Russian dancer, was a guest performer. They saw Swan Lake and La Sylphide. Mrs. McMurdo was thrilled with the performance "so dainty and so pretty and so sad."

Mrs. McMurdo visited her son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Charles McMurdo. They returned to Heppner Monday. Mrs. Baum stayed overnight and returned to her home in La Grande on Tuesday morning.

On March 1, the tragedy, Othello, will be under discussion, and the place for this session will be announced later. These study sessions have been arranged by the new Morrow County Branch of A.A.U.W. Mrs. Bill Rawlins is the leader of the Shakespeare group. Anyone interested may attend.

Ione Sets Figure Control Class

There will be a new Figure Control Class for women beginning Feb. 15 from 7:30 to 9:30 at the Ione High School Gym. This is an adult education class from BMCC. The tuition cost is $15. for the 10 weeks session. This class is basically a physical fitness class involving exercises and volley ball for fun. Anyone interested is urged to come to the first meeting. Be prepared to join in on a light exercise session. More information on what is involved in the class will be given at this meeting. Anyone unable to come to the first session is asked to call Martha Doherty at 676-5398.

SHROVE TUESDAY PANCAKE FEEDS DATED

The Episcopal Church Women are in the midst of plans for the annual Shrove Tuesday Pancake luncheon and supper. Mrs. Allen Hughes and Mrs. Jerry Bunch are co-chairmen for the March 6 event. As they did last year, the women voted to serve two meals that day, one at noon and one in the evening.

DOTS JOTS

Howard Bryant has been feeding a lot of birds. They learn fast where to find their favorite foods. I arrived Sunday too late to get a picture because they had all eaten and gone home to bed.

As I walked home by Ed Dicks who have a natural wonderland for birds, their trees were filled with robins.

The Church women through their World Day of Prayer offering have voted half to the local project, the Bird Sanctuary at the Nursing Home. The first year shrubs planted close to the Dicks should eventually provide an extension of their wonderland of berries and cover for the birds. With the offering this year, it is hoped to complete the purchase and installation of the bird bath.

If and when the solarium is added to the Nursing Home, an even better view of the birds activities will be afforded those in the Nursing Home as well as the hospital patients from the solarium.

I was delighted to see the snow and colder weather. My apricots were getting set to burst into bloom in March and then get nicely frosted with a late frost. No way I'd rather have winter now and come the 21st of March have spring.

Harrisons Have Baby Girl

After three boys, Mr. and Mrs. Bob Harrison became the parents of a baby girl, Tiffany Shaye, on Feb. 11 at St. Anthony's in Pendleton. Tiffany weighed 8 lbs. 11 oz. and will be joining brothers Todd, Travis and Trent at home. Her grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Everett Keithley, Heppner, Mrs. Alice Harrison of Boardman and great grandmother, Mrs. Ida Grabill, Ione.

NEW BABY

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Bonner of Heppner became parents of a baby boy born Feb. 12 at Pioneer Memorial Hospital. Brian Lee weighed 6 lbs. 4 ozs. and joins a sister at home, Kathryn Lee. Grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. D. Bonner, Heppner, Carell Prewitt, Hines, Ore., C.L. Prewitt, Hines, Ore. and Mrs. Ave Garrison, Prineville.

Mrs. Zinter Masters New Oven 4-H Girls Tour New Homes

Mrs. Sid Zinter is recovering slowly from a miserable bout with the flu. She became ill in Portland where she had gone to take instruction for her new micro-wave oven. Her oven was her Christmas gift from her husband and hunting friends paid for the school of instruction at OMSI.

Julie Zinter came to Portland from Kirkland to meet her mother. They both came down with the flu. Julie was running a temperature of 105 degrees. Sid had to go to Portland to bring his wife home.

She feels that the school is worthwhile. "I'm really using that oven". She had just finished cooking an apple pie in 6 minutes turning it at intervals. It never boils over. After cooking in the micro wave oven, she has to put it in her electric oven to brown it. "It is just delicious". She cooks vegetables with a tablespoon of water. Her white sauce comes out so smooth.

Mothers' Club Progressive Dinner

Everyone had a wonderful time and too much really good food on Feb. 10 when the Mothers' Club had their annual progressive dinner. The evening started with appetizers and hot punch at the Dick Calvert's and from there to the home of Daniel James for salads. The main course of turkey and ham loaves was served at Harley Sagers in the dining room which was beautifully decorated in pink and red. The evening ended at the Don Coles' with a cherry dessert, punch and coffee. There was lots of good talk and fellowship, with some newcomers getting better acquainted with older members.

Those attending were: Mr. and Mrs. Dick Calvert, Mr. and Mrs. Daniel James, Mr. and Mrs. Forest Godin, Mr. and Mrs. Don Cole, Mr. and Mrs. Harley Sager, Mrs. Barbara James, Mrs. Pat Brindie and Mr. and Mrs. John Messick.

Girls' Trio Visits

A girls trio from Puget Sound Christian College were guests at the Lexington and Heppner Christian Churches, Sunday.

Second House

The girls then hiked up to the latest addition on the Rasmussen-Lott Addition. This smaller house is deep brown with gold shutters. It too, has three bedrooms with a split bath. There's gold carpeting on the living room and hall. The kitchen appliances are gold with orange accent in the wall paper and light fixtures.

The house has an electric furnace and an attached garage.

Following the tour, Mrs. Lott treated the girls at The Drive In.

Golden Agers

The Golden Agers met Feb. 5 at the Elks Club for their monthly meeting. Ola Ruggles was to be co-hostess with Ida Farra for the meeting, but because of her accident she was unable to help. Ida took the responsibility for hosting the event and she did a grand job. She decorated the meeting room in a real Valentine fashion and made special gifts for those attending. There were about 17 there and they enjoyed music, singing and Bingo.

Ella Adlard and Effie Johnson will be hostesses when the Golden Agers meet again on the first Tuesday in March.
