

Betty Anderson is bride in Hood River

Mr. and Mrs. Don McTavish of Monmouth. Mrs. McTavish is the former Betty Ann Henderson who attended school in Heppner.

At an afternoon ceremony January 13, Betty Ann Henderson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Alonzo Henderson, Hood River, became the bride of Don McTavish, son of Mr. and Mrs. Don W. McTavish of Hillsboro. The double ring ceremony was performed by Father James Brady, Campus Minister at College of Education, Monmouth.

The bride wore a white slipper satin gown in Empire style, with lace bodice, lace on sleeves and around the bottom of a six foot train. The lace bodice rose to a scalloped neckline. The veil was elbow length caught by a circle of lace which matched her dress.

The bridal bouquet was of pink rose buds and white carnations caught up with white satin ribbon.

Maid of Honor was Jeannette Henderson, sister-in-law of the bride. She wore an A line floor length gown of pink brushed satin and carried a long stemmed white carnation tied with satin ribbon.

The best man was Brandt Henderson, friend of the groom, Hillsboro.

Following the ceremony a reception was held in the church rooms adjacent to the church. The rooms were decorated with pink roses and pink carnations with white satin ribbon.

The wedding cake was a three tiered, decorated with pink rose buds and white Lily-of-the-Valley, topped with three pink Wedding bells and pink rose buds.

After the bride and groom cut the traditional first piece of the cake it was served by Joan Gardner, sister of the groom, Sherry Walters, of Hood River friend of the bride was at the silver service. The punch was served by Lori McTavish, sister of the groom. Sheryl Nelson of Canby was in charge of the gift table. Attending the Gift Table was Linda Robertson of Toledo.

Out of town guests included Mrs. Arhter Mehrens, grandmother of the groom, who flew out from Butte, Montana to be at her grandson's wedding.

The bridegroom is a 1971 graduate of Hillsboro High School and is attending College of Education in Monmouth.

The bride was a 1969 graduate of Hood River High School. She has been attending Oregon State.

Following the wedding the couple will be at home in Monmouth while they both finish their education.

While the bride was a 1969 graduate of Hood River High School she took most of her schooling in Heppner when her folks were living in Lexington.

The Artifactory is Coming

The American Association of University Women is sponsoring a craft Fair and Book sale. Date for the event is Saturday April 14.

There will be many crafts on display along with scheduled demonstrations on tole painting, leather craft, macrame, and crewel work. And don't forget the book sale.

The Artifactory will be held in the Heppner Hotel lobby and restaurant from 10 a.m. to 5:30 p.m. You're all invited and it's free!

Immunization Clinic

The second immunization clinic for Heppner will be on Tuesday, March 13 at the Heppner Grade School beginning at 9:00 a.m. Parents who did not get their pre-schoolers to the first clinic may bring them at this time if they wish. Also, kindergartners who go to the afternoon class should be brought up that morning if they need shots.

Also given that morning will be tine tests (for tuberculosis) to the 7th graders. The students will need parental permission, so if your 7th grader has not brought a permission slip home, you may want to make sure that they do.

HEPPNER GARDEN CLUB will meet March 12 at 8 p.m. at the Ed Cutting home. Butch Taylor will talk on birds.

Heppner Kindergarten

The Heppner Community Kindergarten sponsored a baked food sale last Friday and made $28.42.

The spring rummage sale is coming up sometime in April or May and we all need to be thinking about it as we do our "spring cleaning", cleaning out closets, drawers, etc. If you want to get it out of your house early the rummage may be left at Heppner Hotel, or for pick up you may call one of the following numbers: 676-5085, 676-9443, 676-5098, 676-5837, 989-8288 or 422-7449.

Golf starts at Boardman

The bride-elect is a senior at Riverside High School in Boardman.

The groom to be is a 1964 graduate of East Anchorage High School, Anchorage, Alaska, and also a graduate of Seattle-Tacoma Trade School. He is currently employed at Lamb-Weston, Hermiston.

A January wedding is planned.

"Alert in our time" is followed at World Day of Prayer service

The 3rd annual World Day of Prayer for the Church women on Willow Creek was held Friday afternoon at the Ione United Church of Christ. Mrs. F. T. Martin, general chairman, gave the welcoming address. It was decided to divide the offering between the Church Women United and the local project, a bird sanctuary at Pioneer Memorial Hospital. The invitation to meet at the Seventh Day Advent Church next year was accepted.

Mrs. Darrell Wilson, Ione, conducted the worship service in the sanctuary and Mrs. F. T. Martin served as organist. Mrs. Carol Godin introduced the new hymn sung by the congregation. Rev. William Arthur, pastor of the host church, gave a meditation "Alert in Our Time". He asked for a moment of silence of thanks for Mike Benges' homecoming. Then he brought the topic to focus on local needs. He noted the women might be able to assist with the Methodists' offer to provide facilities at their church for an AA. The Neighborhood Center is used by many including the senior citizens for clothing, meals and where people can find a friend. The women could provide volunteer services to help at the Neighborhood Center as well as to provide transportation for those needing a ride to the doctor, and or other communities. He suggested a continuing co-ordinating committee "to show that we have Christian love to help solve these local problems".

During the offertory Mrs. Kenneth Smouse played a violin solo "When You Pray", accompanied by Mrs. Martin. Mrs. Roy Lindstrom was chairman of the ushers. Readers were from the twelve churches represented.

Publicity was handled by Mrs. Charles Heard and Mrs. Kenneth Smouse. Mrs. Norman Nelson was in charge of the guest book and Mrs. William Arthur made the name tags. Greeters were Mrs. Alfred Nelson, Mrs. George Dabbs and Mrs. Keith Rea. The offering was $53.43.

Preceding the worship service a coffee hour was held in the social rooms with Mrs. Victor Rietmann as chairman, assisted by Mrs. George Griffith as kitchen chairman. The linen covered tea table was centered with a lovely spring arrangement of blue dutch iris and yellow narcissus. Mrs. Kenneth Smouse and Mrs. Rietmann poured.

Ione Garden Club Pruning Project

The annual street tree pruning project was held this year on Feb. 27 from 9 a.m. to 3:15 p.m. The first planting of street trees, spearheaded by the Ione Garden Club, was done in 1962, the second planting in 1963 with additions done at various times since. The pruning project has been an annual event since.

Mrs. Fredrick Martin was chairman of the project this year. Members who worked were: Mrs. Van Hubbard, Mrs. Lee Pettyjohn, Mrs. Fredrick Martin, Mrs. Gar Swanson and Rev. Ed Cutting. Their recruited helpers were: Mr. Fredrick Martin, Mr. Eldon Tucker, Mr. Roy W. Lindstrom, Rev. Wm. Arthur and Mr. Gar Swanson.

A noon potluck was served at the home of Mrs. Fannie Griffith served by Mrs. Griffith and Mrs. Edith Nicholson who were assisted by Mrs. Roy W. Lindstrom and Mrs. Ruby Roberts.

Besides pruning the street project trees, some was done for private individuals. Shrubs were pruned at the Christian Education Building and church building of the United Church of Christ, the St. Williams Catholic Church and the memorial marker in Woolery Park.

Late in the day Mrs. Wilma Ladd and Ed Martin provided a refreshing drink to the workers.
