Kennedy said the port has the tenants who want the facilities in the initial 80-acre tract. These facilities are principally the utility services. He said that the Port has three processors interested in the port's food processing park at this time.

He also stated there is evidence that in 1974-75 there will be 28,000 acres of land irrigated with automatic sprinklers in north Morrow County. He sees 25,000 acres additional irrigated land from Carty Reservoir in 1980.

Kennedy said the Navy bombing range will be moved within three years in order to avoid any problems with nuclear power plants and to turn the 50,000 acres of desert into irrigated farm lands.

The Boardman City Hall announces that for a limited time only the book, "Homesteads and Heritages", the history of Morrow County by Giles French, is available at the hall for half price, which is $5.00.

He referred to an application to federal agencies for funds to aid in the development of the port's food processing park.

Last Thursday the commission received a preliminary report from its consulting engineer, Pettyjohn Engineering of Portland. The engineering is on an initial 80 acres in the 350-acre tract.
