Ione Garden Club Gets Landscaping Tips

The Ione Garden Club held their March meeting at the home of Mrs. Riley Munkers Heppner, Oregon. There were 16 members present and refreshments were served by Hostesses Pat Pettyjohn and Delpha Jones.

Preceding the business meeting Ed Cutting gave a program on landscaping. He brought out many factors pertaining to planned planting for beauty. The main points besides beautification being - Adaptability to environment and climate - Care

(how much time one plans to spend on maintenance) and Individuality. The members enjoyed the program and all seemed to agree that individuality really plays a major part in the art of landscaping.

Pat Pettyjohn gave each member a bulletin on home and garden weed control sent us from Martin Zimmerman Gilliam Co. Agent.

Helen Martin reported 18 people were present this morning from the district clubs for our first field trip on our natural Flora project. Lee Hotchkiss from the Umatilla Wildlife refuge and Mr. Karl Urban, professor of Botany at Blue Mt. Community College were our leaders. Mr. Urban helped identify the many plants and showed much enthusiasm for our project.

It was decided that the next major beautification project would be to aid the Ione Churches in replacement of some of the shrubs and plants needed for landscaping.

Visitors at the Charles Wilson home Sat. were their daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Dale Rodgers, Buddy and Paula.

Transferred
Gayle Shoemaker has transferred to Miramar Naval Station, San Diego, Calif. where he is employed as an electrician. He was formerly employed at the Ordinance Depot. His wife and daughter plan to join him as soon as arrangements can be made.

Cooperatives
good business
plus

Cooperatives are people in business to serve people. They're good business—but with a difference.

They are people—all kinds of people—who work together to do what one cannot do alone. People together can, and do, meet just about any sort of need imaginable... marketing, getting farm supplies, electric and telephone service, credit, insurance, housing, health care, and on... with efficiency, economy, and warm understanding.

All today's user-owned cooperatives—whether marketing, purchasing, or service—fit into the contemporary scene like hand in glove.

People in cooperatives are now people, actively participating in programs for community development, improving the environment, and bettering the quality of life for everyone, everywhere.

Cooperatives serve—by placing priority on people, making them a vigorous part of the American business system.

That's the big PLUS.
