Irrigon Asparagus Harvest Starts

By FRANCES ROSE WILSON

Asparagus harvest started in earnest, the past week, at the Willard Miller farm in Irrigon. The tender vegetable is late in coming on this year because of cold weather and the water shortage. The Millers have 2 acres that have been in production for some 6 or 7 years. They haul the crop to Walla Walla for processing at the Birds Eye plant. With increased agricultural activity in the area the Millers find it increasingly difficult to find local help to cut the asparagus, which needs to be cut every other day in cool weather and every day when the weather is warm.

Mr. and Mrs. Don Adams and family and the Bill Cooley family and Vera Cooley spent a recent weekend vacationing on the Deschutes River near Tigh Valley.

Mr. and Mrs. Chester Wilson visited their son and family in Boise the past weekend. They were accompanied by Evangelina Fagerstrom, who is great grandmother to Tommy 7 yrs., Jere 5 yrs. and Jeffrey 3 yrs., the Wilson boys in Boise.

Mike Bengé on TV

Delayed

by JUSTINE WEATHERFORD

On the first hour of the TODAY show last Friday six ex-prisoners were interviewed-five were military men and Heppner's Mike Bengé, a civilian AID area development adviser. The military men agreed that 1969 was a sort of turn for the better for prisoners generally and that their tortures were eased somewhat. They agreed that the anti-war demonstrations in the US made trouble for them-some of them resisted meeting the unofficial anti-war groups that came to Vietnam. Some were almost forced to write letters to American anti-war groups. They said treatment in different prison camps varied, but that neither in the north or the south were their captors humane. One thought that maybe he was fed a little better when he was moved to the north.

Mike Treated Worse

Mike, the last man interviewed, said that probably civilians were treated even worse than the military. He spoke of 35 days of suffering with malaria and being denied medication. He was close to two missionary friends who died and saw the massacre of 7 unarmed civilian missionaries. He was a prisoner in Cambodia for over a year, and as he was moved north saw many North Vietnam soldiers in Cambodia.

My Memory Of Mike

In 1967 when I was teaching at Heppner Elementary, Mike spoke to an assembly there. He showed slides of his work and the area he came to know so well in South Vietnamese Highlands. I was so pleased to meet him, to see what a fine young man he was; how sincere he was about his opportunity to help the Montagnards with whom he lived and worked. He explained that this special cultural group were mountain people who lived by hunting, fishing, and farming and were not "civilized". He compared them in ways to our American Indians. He was eager to make their lives better and had mastered their language. The students who attended this assembly were, like me, very impressed with Mike. He seemed, boyish, a bit ruddy or sun-tanned, and apparently in excellent health. He returned to his work abroad soon after that appearance.

The Change

Over a week ago, I watched a TV exposure of Mike coming off the plane at Clark AFB in the Philippines-and then along with millions of other Americans observed him closely on the TV rather early last Friday morning. My personal opinion is that he has aged faster than would be expected, in the six years since I saw him in person. His face looked lined and his speech was more hesitant (but who wouldn't speak hesitatingly under the circumstances?)

Not For Amnesty

When the group was asked how they felt about the U.S. granting amnesty to "draft dodgers"-Col. Risner said that he could speak for the six of them as they all felt alike. He said although they are Christians and do not want to be unreasonable-they agree that every citizen should obey his country's laws. They do not favor amnesty, but think that maybe the dodgers might be allowed to come back and do some special service to pay for their resistance of the draft law.

The MC asked if any of the six knew of any American MIAs (Missing in Action), and each indicated they did not. A military officer said that teams were going to make thorough searches for men and the facts about men from which nothing has been heard.

Over The Tee Cup

by MARIE McQuarrie

Big doings coming up for members of Willow Creek Country Club and for their golfing-minded friends. A Family Kick-off Breakfast will be held Sunday April 29th. This "Start of Golf for 1973" is being held for both men and women, and also, please bring any of your golfing friends that might be interested in joining our group. You might know of couples or singles who are wanting to play the game of golf, but never have.

Kick off Breakfast

Breakfast will be served from 7:30 to 9:00, consisting of ham, eggs, hotcakes and coffee. BIG SURPRISE - all this is to be served by the men, which should be an extra treat for the gals. What a whale of a breakfast for $1.50.

Men's organized play will start at 9:00. At this time the women will have an organizational meeting, while the men are teeing off. The ladies will then get a chance to play their 9.

The committee for this Family Kick-off Breakfast is Ed Hiemstra, Ray Massey, Vel Robinson, Dennis Martin and Norm Rickert.

High School Golf

Congratulations are in order for our Heppner High School Golf team. They are doing themselves proud by the way they are performing here and on the other golf courses. To make it a little clearer to you, the boys that play on the team are chosen in the same way the pros are eligible to participate in the large golf tournaments. Each week, on a certain day, the boys play on the course here to "make the cut". This definitely keeps the boys practicing, improving their game and on their mettle in order to be on the travelling team.

Today, Umatilla High School team will be here to compete with our boys. They are 1 to 1 on games, so this particular day should prove interesting. Our boys go to Kinzua to play on Saturday.

In this paper, elsewhere, Tom Shear, coach of the golf team, has the scores the boys have made and how they have stacked up against the teams they have played. Tom is mighty proud of his boys, and so are we. Tell them so.

Recruiters Here

Jerry Schmatka, army recruiter and Vern Olson navy recruiter were in Heppner, Ione and Riverside High Schools last week. They presented the programs that the Armed Services have to offer. They are strictly on an all-volunteer basis. The recruiters were pleased with their acceptance at all three schools. The Navy has a nuclear power program. In as much as Morrow County may be the site of the next nuclear power plant, the Navy feels this would be an excellent program to prepare the enlistee for work-after enlistment here.

Board of Equalization

MAY 14

Joyce Bergstrom, Morrow County Assessor, has announced that the Board of Equalization will meet on Monday, May 14 at 9:30 a.m. at the Courthouse in Heppner. At that time there will be a public examination of assessment rolls for 1973 and correction of all errors in valuation, descriptions, or qualities of land, lots or other property assessed by the assessor.

Any interested persons should plan to attend the meeting. Petitions for adjustment of assessments must be filed with the Board of Equalization not later than Monday of the week following the first week that the Board is in session.
